Quiram Announced as President Of Singing Cadets for 1948-49

Helmut Quiram will be president of the Singing Cadets for 1948-49; retiring president Whitney Wilson Jr. announced Saturday night at the annual award banquet of the Singing Cadets.
Pete Jones will serve as vice-president for next year; Bill Moss will be librarian; Doris Byrd was named business manager; and Ben Schell will be reporter-historian.
In recognition of his past year's work as Singing Cadet president, Wilson was presented a certificate entitling him to a suit of clothes. Retiring vice-president Bill Evans was given a pen and pencil set. Both awards were made by President Gibb Gilchrist.
Twenty-six members of the Singing Cadets were presented silver keys in recognition of two semesters' work in the choral group. Students who had been in the Cadets for four semesters were given gold keys. Six-semester Cadets were presented award letters.
Keith Haines, John Smith, Jules Sarrazin, and Wilson received letters in recognition for eight semesters' work in the Cadets.
Rev. Sam B. Hill, college chaplain, was principal speaker at the banquet and Wilson acted as master of ceremonies.
Bill Haile arranged the entertainment for the evening; Helmut Quiram was chairman of the banquet committee; Thomas A. Wise was program chairman, and Sam Lanford was in charge of decorations.
