Donald Andrews in County Jail For July Hearing of Grand Jury

Donald K. Andrews, graduate of A&M last spring, is being held in the County Jail on two charges of assault with a prohibited weapon and a charge on carrying a pistol, Davis Grant, Brazos County Attorney, said yesterday.

Andrews fired at least seven shots with an Army Carbine and .45 pistol, held up two Southern Pacific freights temporarily, and entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Blair before Fred Hickman and R. P. Batten, of the Campus Security, disarmed him.

The Campus Corner "Guide-post to tasty foods"

Have you seen those people coming out of the Campus Corner? They're wearing the "new look"—the SATISFIED LOOK — Why? Of course—it's because they have been served good food, superior fountain drinks, and better confections.

This week the Corner cook has put all his art and ability into a real different Tuna Sandwich

Golden Walnut Sundae — a giant scoop of your favorite flavor of ice cream covered with marshmallow cream or chocolate and topped with a mound of sweet golden walnuts — a bright maraschino cherry is thrown in for good measure too!

(Note: Our staff physician will be on hand to treat those who eat too many of these sundaes.)
