As you hurried to chow from that late class, or as you got "on the beam" to your sack after a "refreshing" lunch "down under," have you stumbled across those wires lying on the sidewalk in front of Sbis Hall?

anxious to help you get your two out of three. In case you are one of the few who really get stumped and the hecklers can't help you, don't worry. Bill will invite you back for the next day's program and another chance at a prize.

Bradley Becomes New Principal At A&M Consolidated

Harry M. Bradley, elementary principal of A&M Consolidated School, assumed his new position recently.

Bradley comes from Kissimmee, Florida, where he held a similar position. He has been in public school work since 1929 in Pennsylvania and Florida.

Bradley is a veteran of three and one-half years service in the U. S. Army Air Force as a liaison pilot in the United States and European Theater of operations.

He is a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, holds a Masters degree in Education, and has done graduate work at Duke University and University of Florida.

Bradley will be in his office every day to counsel with parents concerning school curriculums. Bradley is a member of the Kiwanis Club; Phi Sigma Pi, which is a national honorary professional fraternity; the National Department of Elementary Principals; the Southern States Work Conference of 1946; and the Florida Principals Committee on pre-service and in-service teaching of teachers.
