sports writers were of the opinion that Villanova might beat the Army in their game next weekend at West Point. The Villanova coach, Jordan Oliver was very well pleased with the showing of his squad. He said he thought his team was nearing their peak of condition.

On the other side of the field Aggie Head Coach Harry Stiteler thought his squad was far from their peak of condition. Coach Stiteler feels as though the team has a lot of room for improvement and he is confident that they will get better as the season progresses.
