

ACCUSED ASSAILANT

ACCUSED ASSAILANT UNDER $75,600 BOND DETROIT, Oct. 13 -- (P)--Carl Bolton, 39, former minor union of-ficial, was held under $75,000 bond today on a charge of trying to kill Walter P. Routher, president of the CIO-United Auto Workers. Recorders Judge Christopher E. Stein entered t plea of innocent for bolt after the defendant stood mute on a charge of assault with intent on a charge of assault with intent to kill.

Judge Stein set Bolton's exami-nation for Oct. 19 after defense counsel asked for as early a hearing as possible.

Reuther was shot in his home April 20. No mative for the crime over was established.

What's Cooking

ABILENE CLUE, after yell practice, Thursday night at the "Y". Officers, to be elected. BAYTOWN CLUE, 7:30 p. m., Wednesday, Man Lounge, Bryan Annex. Organization. Plans for Christmas Dates. BAYTOWN CLUE, After yell practice Thursday, Room 106 Aca-demic Building.

demic Building. BRYAN-COLLEGE A&M CLUB

7:30 p. m., Thursday, Room 307, Academic Building. Election of Officers. Plans for party. BRUSH COUNTRY CLUB, 7 p. m., Wednesday, Room 203 Aca-demic Building, Election of Officers.

COLLEGE STATION GUN CLUB, 7 p. m, Friday, Small bore indoor range, North Gate. CORYELL COUNTY A & M

CLUB, 7:30 p. n., Thursday, Room 125, Academic Building. EL PASO CLUB. Thursday after yell practice. Room 326, Academic Building. GALVESTON COUNTY CLUB, 7:30<sup>s</sup> p. m., Thursday, YMCA Assembly Room HOUSTON A&M CLUB, after yell practice, Thursday night, Mother's Club Lounge, YMCA. Of-ficers to be elected, JTAC CLUB, 7:15 p. m., Wed-nesday, Academic Building.

LUTHERAN STUDENTS AS-SOCIATION Meeting 7:30 p. m., of the Senior Court for the fall semester, Colone Wednesdays at the Lutheran Stu-ner, commandant and PMS&T, has announced. of the Senior Court for the fall semester. Colonel H. L. Boatdent Center. LA VILLITA CHAPTER, D.A.R.

Volume 48

COLLEGE STATION (Aggieland), TEXAS, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1948

Hospitality And Good Will Theme Of Welcoming Group

The Battalion

PUBLISHED IN THE INTEREST OF A GREATER A & M COLLEGI

· Friendly relations were immeasurably strengthened yesterday between TCU and A&M when eight students and two faculty members, representing the Welcoming Committee of the Student Senate, visited the Horned Frog campus.

Met by President Sadler of TCU and Ben Hearne, president of the student body, the Aggie delegation was escorted to the gym where a business meeting for the students was to

Top Cowboy Will Win Gold, Silver Buckle

By HENRY LACOUR

A beautiful gold, silver and all visitors. ruby-studded belt buckle has been donated by L. J. Court, owner of the College Station Shoe Repair Shop, for the Champ All-Around Cowboy of the 1948 Aggie Rodeo.

Last year the prize for All-Around Champ was a radio-phonograph combination, which was do-nated by J. D. Martin. Charley Rankin won the prize. Court decided to sponsor the award and ordered the buckle from California. Last year Court donated the prize for second-best cowboy, Lloyd

This year they have been very George Edwards, consolidated band ted among the long notes generous with their gifts. Includ- commander; Joe Morris, Cavalry ics come Saturday night. dise and cash. Cadet Colonel J. F. Davis has been designated president be held. The meeting opened with a short address by President Sadler. Char-les Kirkham, president of the Sen-ate, was then introduced and he emphasized the spirit of hospitali-ty and good will in which our wel-come was made. Ben Wyatt, chairman of the Wel-coming Committee, then told the assembly of the various activities taking place on the campus during this week-end, and of the Welcom-ing Committee's information booth

By BUDDY LUCE ing Committee's information booth that will be in operation to help

It's swing and sway the western way in Sbisa Hall

Corps Commander Bob McClure Saturday night as Aggieland spoke of the Aggies' desire to establish a friendly relationship be-tween the two schools. "This year cowboys finish doing their 8,000 Aggies are waiting to receive you without prejudice," McClure said. "Regardless of what you stuff on bulls, broncs, and sidewindin' milk cows, the Aggieland orchestra will hold forth in Sbisa with a real old western think of us, we want to be your knock-down and drag-out. After a spell, the Aggie Ramb-These three short addresses by lers will give the Aggieland Ormen representing A&M, given in complete and heartfelt sinchestra a brief respite while the heel-scrapin' goes on to the tune of "Ida Red" or some similar fancerity, seemed to be greatly ap-preciated by the TCU students. dango.

The Aggie delegation consisted This year's Aggieland Orchestra Griffith won the $50 buckle set. Many donations of prizes for the Senate; Bob McClure, corps male and female vocals. The girl the cowboys to compete for have commander; Ben Wyatt, chairman singer is Billy Jean Barron and been received from Bryan, College of the Welcoming Committee; Bob the male crooner is Tommy Butler. Station, and Texas businessmen. Smith, secretary of the Senate; Their talents will be well distribu-George Edwards, consolidated band | ted among the long notes and lyr-

ed among the prizes are merchan- and engineer commander; Richard As was the case last year at the Denny, member of the Welcoming western dance after the rodeo, the Some of the prizes already re-ceived are a pair of $75 hand-made boots by Abran Rios, a $15 trench coat by Waldrop & Co., a $27.50 Shaeffer threesome set and a $19.-75 radio by the Exchange Store, Finishing the business of intro-Along with the western theme had by all.

MINERVA COLLINS of Wichita Falls has been nominated for Sweetheart of the Artillery. She will be escorted by CALVIN WIND-HAM of E Artillery.

NANCY PHILIPS of Galveston was nominated by BILL CLAY-

Twelve other members who have been appointed to the

F. Davis Named President Seniors for Fall Semester

TON of D Battery for Sweetheart of the Artillery.

8:00 p. m., Thursday at the home of Mrs. R. R. (Lancaster in College Park, College Station. ORGANIZED RESERVE, 7:30 p. m., Thursday, Petroleum Lecture Wilcox Speaks Room.

PRE-LAW SOCIETY, 7 p. m., Wednesday, North Solarium, YM-CA. All persons who plan to at-tend law school are asked to at-

PORT ARTHUR A&M CLUB, For Education 7:30 p. m., of immediately after rell practice Thursday, Room 225, Academic Building.

RIO GRANUE VALLEY CLUB, 7:30 p. m., Thursday, YMCA Read- meeting Monday night heard

RIO GRANDE VALLEY CLUB, 7:30 p. m., Thursday, YMCA. SCOUTS AND SCOUTERS MEETING, Wednesday 7:30, room 301 Goodwin Hall. SCOUTS AND SCOUTERS AND SCOUTERS MEETING, Wednesday 7:30, room 301 Goodwin Hall. SCOUTS AND SCOUTERS MEETING, Wednesday 7:30, room SCOUTS AND SCOUTERS SCOUTS AND SCOUTS AND SCOUTERS SCOUTS AND SCOUTERS SCOUTS AND SCOUTERS SCOUTS AND SCOUTS AND SCOUTERS SCOUTS AND SCOUTS AND SCOUTS AND SCOUTERS SCOUTS AND S

SOUTHWEST TEXAS A&M was to lay a foundation of subject CLUB, Y.M.C.A., Thursday, 7:30 matter on which the club members may begin study of this year's in-STUDENT AGRIC U L T U R E tercollegiate debate question: "Re-MEETING, 7:10 p. m., Wednesday solved, that the federal govern-Room 305, Achilemic Building. SOUTHWEST TEXAS A & M equalizing educational opportuni-CLUB, 7:30 p. m., Thursday; YM- ties in tax supported schools by means of annual grants." STUDENT AG. COUNCIL The organization, sponsored by Operation Vittles 13, at 7:30 p.m. in Reading Room of English, will, during the year, of the Y.M.C.A.

hear similar programs designed to THE FOODS GROUP. Oct. 15, stimulate discussion within the 2:30 p.m., in the home of Mrs. W. group. Allen explained that, while W. Meinke, 395 Crescent Drive, the organization is interested in North Oakwool

TRANS PECOS CLUB, 7:30 p. debates with freshman groups of Departmen m., after yell practice Thursday, other colleges, it is as much inter-announced. Room 227 Academic Building. ested in cultivating a desire for THE HEART OF TEXAS CLUB, understanding of contemporary flight engineers who volunteer for pete. Thursday immediately after yell problems.

practice, M.E. Shops Lecture Room. Allen said that the vitality of Complete plans for the semester the club will not depend upon its will be outlined, including holiday dances, intramural sports, and extended an invitation of member-club parties. WILLIAMSON COUNTY CLUB, 7:30 p. m., Thursday, Room 205, Academic Builling: linterested.

behind the Snack Bar. The room Pre-Laws to Meet is entered through the door on the north side of the Snack Bar. Wednesday in 'Y'

Staff of College A special meeting of the Pre-Law Society will be held at 7 p. m. Invited to Dance Wednesday in the North Solarium of the YMCA, Phillip Goode, co-sponsor, has announced. All members of the A&M Col-Business to be covered in the lege Staff are invited to attend a session will include a discussion of dance to be given on the Slab, the meeting night, appointment of Thursday at 9 p. m., J. A. Gray, several committees, and mapping of the A. H. Department, has anthe society's pogram for the se- nounced. mester, Goode said. The da

The dance is to be given in hon-A chairman and three members or of the directors of the Sheep and of the Activities Committee will Goat Raisers Association. There be elected. The committee is to be in charge of the detailed planning of programs for the society dur-ing the entire year. Goode con- the occasion is informal.

The Horticulture Society held its Arthur Stewart, co-sponsor, will conduct a forum discussion after the business seision. State require-ments for taking bar examination license in Texas will be the subject Holds Barbecue of the forum.

ATTENTION ALL SCOUTS AND SCOUTERS

last Saturday afternoon.

Court are Lt. Col. Phil K. Sheets; Lt. Col. David T. Gentry; +Lt. Col. Edward Hodges; Lt. Col. Guy B. Daniels; Lt. Col. Billy J. Shields; Lt. Col. L. J. Sexton; Ma-jor A. D. Sprawls; Captain J. B. Rochelle; Captain John M. Wallace Captain E. P. Curry; Captain Cur-tis Erck; and Captain Jack A.

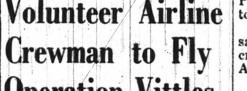

Cadet Abel O. Cruz has been ap-pointed Recorder for the Senior announced that all members of The Freshman Discussion the Corps will be acquainted with the provisions of the Senior Court Manual by their unit comand Debate Club at its third manders. Hearings of all cases tried be

Dr. G. B. Wilcox, chairman of the trials to prepare themselves for their responsibilities next year.

Airline crewmen who volunteer recalled by the USAF to Fly Op- Degree. eration Vittles transports to Ber-

Operation Vittles duty will be placement Training Unit transi- contest. ent training course being conduc-ted at the Great Falls, Montana, ship to all freshmen who may be Air Force Base. Only applications from USAF

The next meeting will be Mon-day, October 25, at 7:30 in the room ing and duty.

Court for the school year 1948-49. The Military Department has 4 Dairy Husbandry Majors to Attend Contest Oct. 20

Four men from the Dairy Husbandry 307 class, accompanied by tary of the student body; Harriett J. G. Feato, professor of dairy hus- Margo, freshman director, YMCA bandry, will leave for Atlantic City and Jean Mundhenke, president of New Jersey, October 20 to engage the YMCA.

in the Senior Intercollegiate Dairy Products Judging Contest on October 25, Feato said Monday.

Each contestant will judge ten samples of market milk, vanilla ice cream, creamery butter, and American cheese.

The two top teams are entitled to elect one member of their team to receive the Tow Award Fellow- to A&M with a feeling of accomship. This award gives the member for return to active duty will be $850 for work towards a Master's Started in 1916, the contest was debate and will attempt to arrange hin during the winter months, the first entered by A&M in 1938. debates with freshman groups of Department of the Air Force has Teams from each of the 25 schools in the United States and Canada Furloughed pilots, co-pilots, and with a dairy husbandry unit com-

> This year schools from foreign trained in teams in the new Re- countries have been invited to the

AUSTRIA NPW'S BACK HOME VIENNA, Austria, Oct. 13 -(AP) Nearly 1,000 Austrian prisoners of Reservists and Air National Guard war, many captured by the Rusmen will be accepted for this train- sians at Stalingrad, returned home by repatriation train today.

Davis Undergraduate Welding Award Program in Full Swing

The 1948-49 edition of the A. F. Davis Undergraduate Welding Award Program is in full swing, Professor H. P. Rigsby of the ME Department announced today. In making this announcement, Rigsby expressed hopes that Aggie engineering undergraduates will be competing for the awards. Rigsby listed the awards given+ and construction, Rigsby said. Any annually as follows: $200 to the author of the best $200 to the student publication in which it appears. and articles may be co-authored, Rigsby added.

$150 to the author of the second best paper. $150 to the publication which it appears. The purpose of the contest, Rigsby stated, is to stimulate undergraduate interest in welding. For this purpose funds have been donated to the American Welding Society for the A. F. Davis Undergraduate Welding Award.

annual barbecue at Henzel Park, This award, consisting of the $50 pair of boots by L. White Boot fices which followed the official the Aggie-TCU game Saturday. Shop, a $40 pair of boots by Elmer Aggie welcome, the meeting ad- The dance will start at 9 and the Van Dyke Studios, a $12.65 set of proceeded to the new TCU lounge of chute number one with bells fog lights by Mitt Lee & Co., and where cokes were served. Holick's Boot Shop is giving a pair The feeling of fellows friends."

The feeling of fellowship was clearly stressed between both groups when George Edwards, consolidated band commander, said. "They're swell fellows. They of cowboy boots. Some of these prizes are on display in the west window of the Exchange Store. won't let me pay for anything." Luncheon with leaders of the student body was next on the agenda. The Aggies were the guest of Ben Hearne; Lynn Fleming, editor of the student newspaper, "The Skiff"; Dee Kelly, retiring president of the junior class; Andy Carter, former class representative Elaveen Childress, retiring secre-

The thought uppermost in everyone's mind as the Aggies prepared to leave was expressed by Lynn Fleming. "It was so nice to have you with us. We hope you will return soon.' Each delegate seconded Lynn's thought as they hit the road back than were last year. plishing something toward a secure and lasting friendship between TCU and A&M.

Extensioner Goes To Chicago Meet

Joe L. Matthews, extension ser vice administrative assistant, left Monday by plane for Chicago, Illinois, to attend a meeting of the Committee on the Study of Educational Implications of the United States Armed Forces Institute, according to Dr. Ide P. Trotter, exension director.

Matthews will get general in-formation about scholarships and fellowships for Extension workers who may wish to receive graduate than 5000. training at the University of Chicago, and will represent the agri- GI's, barely slipped past last years cultural Extension point of view at total by about 25 students at A this meeting.

The Williamson County Club will meet Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in Room 205 Academic Building Charbilities of a Christmas party to be held in the county during the holi-The paper must appear in print between the dates of April 1, 1948

Quarterback Club

Jack A. Quirey was elected President of the Arts and an $18 Stetson by WSD Clothiers, ducing candidates for student of- will be the victory theme after Sciences Council during the initial meeting of that group Tuesday afternoon. The council elected J. B. Rochelle Secre-Ferry. an $8 nortrait in color by journed and the A&M delegation Aggieland Orchestra will come out tary-Treasurer. M. T. Harrington, Dean of the School of Arts and on. The Ramblers will take two 30-minute breaks later in the even-

This is the first home game and Dr. Turner Of local "lost week-end" for the troops and a good time should be Enrollments Rise

Public Invited Dr. Arthur W. Turner, as-Five SWC Colleges sistant chief of the bureau of plant industry; soils and agri-While the University of Texas cultural engineering, United and Southern Methodist University States Department of Agrireported decided drops in enrollment, A&M, Baylor and TCU ad- culture, Washington, D. C. ded to their previous registrations will be at A&M next week. totals this year. As a whole, there are fewer students enrolled in the larger schools of Texas this year The University of Texas reported 16,991 students registered for Agricultural Engineers Tuesday the 1948-49 session-a drop of 509 from last year's 17,500. During the war years TU averaged 18,000. Southern Methodist also suffered an enrollment loss, but by its ing staffs Monday and Tuesday.

ber of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers for many years, and was president of the

The public is invited to hear society in 1933 and 1944.

him speak.

Davis

own hand. Students were being rejected in an attempt to hold down A graduate of Iowa State College he was employed by the Inthe enrollment figure. Last year's all-time high of 7,031 dropped to ternational Harvester Company as 6800 this year. educational advisor for a number of years. He took over his present

Texas Christian enrollment eased past the 5000 mark/and is expected post in 1944 and has charge of all research work in agricultural en-gineering which is carried on by the USDA. Historrk includes stu-dies dealing with farm equipment, to draw even to last year's peak of 5749 by the end of the school

Baylor's enrollment topped the mechanical processing of farm pro-ducts, rural electrification and previous count by 466 students. Despite the decrease in the number of farm structures. GI's Baylor now has 5,054 registered. This is the first year in the school's 103-year-old history that the enrollment has been more $537 students, both corp men and

Williamson County Club Meet Planned Howitzer Will Be Set Up On

To/See LSU Movies

has also made arrangements with "Rip" Harwood, editor of the ENGINEER, for satisfying publication requirements of any paper deemed suitable for entry. No speaker tact between the Dean and the students. He explained that the council helps to coordinate the work of the School of Arts and USDA to Talk Sciences as far as student activities are concerned. The organization consists of the presidents of student clubs sponsored by departments in the School of Arts and Sciences. If there are no organizations spon-sored by a department, the head of that department appoints a junior or senior student who is majoring in that department as it's representative on the council. The editor of The Commentator is a member of the group. Members of the council are J. L. Liverman, Biology Club; J. B. Ro-chelle, Pre-Med Society; Curtis G. Homeyer, Business Society; David Tarner will be guest speaker at W. Sharp, Accounting Society; David the meeting of the A&M student Charles D. Cabaniss, Pre-Law So-branch of the American Society of ciety; Joseph G. Savins, Student Chapter of American Chemical Society; James Hadley Edgar, Econight. He will confer with members nomics Club; Donald G. Uickels, of the Agricultural Experiment English Club; Martell S. Moore, Station and Agricultural Engineer- Spanish Club; Robert B. Mayes, Camera Club; Jack A. Quirey, Physical Education; Robert

Sciences, told the group that the council serves as a personal con-

Number 55

Baty, Education; Paul E. Parker, Mathematics; Walter L. Brown, History; Kenneth Bond, Journalism; and J. T. Miller, Editor of The Commentator. Moore and Baty were the only members not present for the first session. Harrington stated that the council fund consisted of $153.04. This sum was the one-third of the net profits from the '48 Follies which the School of Arts and Sciences received for its work in the production. Turner has been an active mem-

Three representatives from the council are to be appointed by President Quirey to serve on a central committee for All-College Day. The Agriculture Council and the Engineer Council will have three members each on the nine man group. This nine man central committee will coordinate plans for the event.

Future meetings of the council, will be held at 5 p. m. on those Wednesdays which will designated by the President of the council. Student rating of courses was placed on the agenda for the next meeting.

"A" and "B" Athletic Compan-Bird-dogs better beware at the Artillery Ball next Friday night. A 105mm-Howitzer will be instal-led on the dance floor for the pro-tection of the artillerymen's dates. The howitzer will be used as a theme of decoration and as a prop for a mock fire mission to be con-ducted by a gun section chief and his cannoneers.

The Quarterback Club will meet Beginning at 8 p. m. in Sbisa ed to form a cardboard partition test, to be held in Atlantic City, Hall, the dance will feature the between the dance floor and the N. J. October 25.

sembly Hall to see the A&M-LSU Aggieland Orchestra. Refresh- section where tables and chairs Team members include J. D. game films. Team members will be served, and artillery will be placed. Marchant and Fred Finke of Deni-days.

and April 1, 1949. Rigsby has offered to help any student in selection of a subject, aid in obtaining technical data, and help in editing entries. He

There will be a meeting of all scouter stand scouters to might (Wed) lighted the recreation for the men multiplications for the best and second by Rigsby to one interested or to anyone seen TCU in action will be the sevent and plans were discussed from Well the form five beautiful nominees by the function. Subject matter of the paper meeting of a sevent and plans were discussed for wilding mythate the formatter of the paper matter of the paper method. After the game barbecue was student soft any new use to which the student soft as spectral for a paper, Rigsby said. week's game. The week's game. The team is coached with and Billy soft and week's game. The team is coached with and Billy soft as sevent and the charter is to to be held in Sbisa Hall in the data or is application to design. The team, paper deemed suitable for a paper, Rigsby said. week's game.