Critics of Quarterbacking in Waco Unaware of Missing Aggie Tackles

Many of the sports writers, and Aggies, have questioned the quarterbacking in the final few plays of the Baylor game. Everybody but the Baylor fans agrees that the worst thing about it was that we didn't score; if we had, it would have been smart playing and everybody would have been happy.

Your reporter has checked into the situation and found several things which even he did not notice from the press box.

The above illustration shows the formation which the Aggies used to pass their way downfield while the Baylor backfield was wondering whom to guard.

The first thing which appears unusual is that there are four ends and no tackles in the line. A&M was confusing the Bruins by making these end-tackles eligible by shifting their lines.

For example: If Bob Goode remained on the line and Jim Beswell and Copeland moved back a few steps before the ball was snapped, then Andy Hillhouse was the end of an unbalanced seven-man line.

That made Copeland, Hillhouse, Boswell, Goode, and Wright eligible receivers. The same shift was used on the other side, and the Baylor backfield did not know who was going to be an eligible end until a second before the ball was put into action.

The Cadets made their last drive by using this spread when Cashion hit Kadera, Boswell, Hillhouse, and Kadera again to put the ball on the five.

Back to the signal calling. Considering it a moment, a man could not have been called the first play because there were two ends in the line which did not know the tackle blocking assignments in the regular "T" formation.

Coach Stidler sent in one tackle at this point, but could not send in another without an automatic

Fish Football Team Meets Baylor Cubs Next Friday

By SACK SPOEDE

The Texas Aggie freshman football team will meet the Baylor University Cubs next Friday night in Waco for each team's third game of the year. The Fish have on both of their previous games while the Cubs have won one and lost one.

The Aggie team defeated the John Tarleton Plowboys 12-6, and romped over the TCU Polliwogs, 13-0. The Cubs rate an edge in next week's game because they trailed back the TCU team, 24-6, in their first game of the season. The Cubs won a moral victory in their second game by tying unexcused University Yearlings, 13-13 a week ago in Waco.

The outstanding feature of the Cub-Yearling game was the terrific boating of quarterback Marshall Alford of the Baylor team. Alford booted the ball eight times averaging 47 yards per kick. The Baylor lad got off one 45 yard kick and his average might have been much higher if he had not had to keep the ball out of bounds twice in Texas territory.

Robert Reid of Houston, Larry Isbell of Houston, and Alford, Baylor has three of the outstanding quarterbacks on the freshman teams of the Southwest Conference. Isbell is the younger brother of Cecil Isbell of rutue and Green Bay Packer fame.

The game will also bring together five members of the state championship Brackenside Aggie team of last year. Two of the Brackenside team are on the Fish team. They are center Danny Ferguson and back Gary Anderson.

The other members of the Brackenside backfield of last year are on the Baylor squad. They are Jack Schuening, Bill Sweet, and Jack Cahoun, who is now playing center on the Cub starting eleven. Schuening is starting in the backfield.

Outstanding lineman on the Baylor freshman squad are Ken Casner, 225 pound tackle of Waco, and Stanley Williams, 180 pound end from Cisco. An out-of-stater is starting for the Cubs at the other tackle position. He is James Welch, a 200 pounder from Dayton, Tennessee.

The Fish team might be in the best shape of the season with the possibility that fullback "Burr" Lawson of Wichita Falls might get into the game. Lawson has seen no service at all this year.

Karl Hollier, speed merchant of Port Arthur, injured his shoulder in practice Tuesday afternoon. He might be ready for the Baylor game, however. Hollier and Gary Anderson are probably the fastest backs to wear an A&M uniform in the past decade.

Hollier has been clocked at 9.7

GLENN LIPPMAN is the leading scorer on the freshman squad this year. Gallopin' Glenn scored twice against the Tarleton team and once against the TCU freshmen. A fourth touchdown he scored against the Polliwogs was called back.

seconds in the 100 yard dash, while Anderson won both dash events at the Big City track meet in Dallas last spring.

Put them into the same backfield with Robert "Buddy" Shaeffer at the fullback slot and an Fish team will have speed to burn. Shaeffer ran a 9.8 hundred last year for Austin of El Paso.

Hollier wasn't allowed to enter many widely publicized track meets last year due to the fact that he went to a Catholic high school in Port Arthur. He has not, therefore, raced against Anderson.

Of course the Fish have their slow boys, too, such as Glenn Lippman, Augie Saxe, Billy Tidwell, and Jim Dobbyn.

Crowds Small As Pro League In Close Race

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 (AP)—Although the pennant races in the All-America conference and the National Football League are extremely tight, attendance at the games continues to be disappointing.

Only 106,717 fans turned out for five national league scraps yesterday and 107,672 for four conference games.

The National's biggest crowd, 36,227 fans, showed up at Philadelphia and watched the Easts beat the Chicago Bears, 12-7. The victory was Philadelphia's first over the Bears in history and it dumped the Bears from the unbeaten ranks and into a first place Western division tie with the defending champion Chicago Cardinals. The Cards cruised the Boston Yanks, 49-27.

Cleveland's defending champion Browns drew the largest All-America gathering, 46,912. The Browns rewarded the home turnout by beating the New York Yankees, 35-7, to remain a half game behind the San Francisco 49ers in their Western division flag battle.

The 49ers nipped the Baltimore Colts, 21-10, to run their unbeaten streak to nine games.

The Brooklyn Dodgers humbled the lowly Chicago Rockets, 35-14 before the smallest crowd of the day, 5,964 fans at Chicago.

Buffalo's Bills pulled to within a game of Baltimore by beating the Dons, 35-21.

The Washington Redskins downed the Green Bay Packers, 23-7, to remain a half-game behind Philadelphia in the National's Eastern sector pennant scramble.

The New York Giants edged the Pittsburgh Steelers, 34-27, to tie the Steelers for third place, one game back of Washington.

Christensen Suffers Broken Back; Goff's Knee Rejured

The Aggie injury list was long yesterday after the gruelling game with the Bears Saturday but is expected to improve as the week goes by.

Besides the normal amount of sprains and bruises, one injury stands out as the worst that has happened to a player all season.

Hot Action In Intramurals Doesn't Let Up

A full complement of both basketball and Flag Football games rounded out intramural play Monday afternoon for Corps teams.

Senior Company romped over "D" Vets, 26 to 6 in a very one-sided Flag Football game. The scrimmage between "C" Infantry and "G" Field Artillery was a different matter as the paddles were edged out a victory on 40 yard penetrations.

"D" Flight and "B" Athletic had the same circumstances with the bidmen winning in 20 yard penetrations. Another close game saw the Day Students slip past "A" Flight by a 13 to 12 count.

Last moving "E" Field team ran wild over "A" Signal 33 to 6 as A&E Jackson led his team with two TD's.

On the hardball courts, "A" scored an easy win over "C" Air Force, 25 to 14. "F" Vets dusted off "D" Infantry 37 to 18. George Brown and Ted Copeland both scored 12 points for the vets.

"A" Field was just barely better than "B" Field in their basketball game, winning by a 13 to 11 score.

"A" Battery's Bob Miller led the scoring with seven points. QMC shaded "A" Transport 11 to 10. QMC's high man was Sammy Thompson with four points.

On the Tennis courts, "B" Vet were better than "B" Flight, winning in two to one match.

"D" Field won by the same margin over "A" Engineers. "E" Flight were not able to overcome "A" Infantry and lost, two games to one. "A" Ordnance topped "A" Cavalry in the same way.

"B" Engineers dropped "F" Air Force, two straight in Volleyball. "A" Chem Warfare set down "E" Infantry in two straight games to win their match.

John Christensen, the defensive halfback that broke into the Aggie lineup in the TCU game last week, will be unable to play any more this season because of back and kidney injuries received in the Baylor game.

Also injured in the Baylor game was fullback Bobby Goff who re-injured his knee. According to trainer Blaine Rideout, it will be later in the week before he can determine whether Goff will see service against Arkansas, but he said that it was probable he would.

Also expected to be in good shape for the Hog tilt this Saturday is Odet Stutzberger, tackle who went into the Baylor game Saturday with an injured ankle.

End Wray Whittaker, who was met even in uniform for the Bear tilt Saturday, has recovered from the brain concussion he received week before last and will definitely play, according to Rideout.

The Aggie squad came out of the Baylor game in much better shape physically than was first expected and, excluding the loss of Christensen, will be in good shape for the Razorback game Saturday.

Ralph Daniel, who was knocked out in the game, has reported back for action none the worse for wear.

Bobby Dew, Aggie halfback, saw his first action Saturday without ill effects on his injured knee. Dew is expected to see a lot of action in the next few games if his knee holds up.

Secret practice will be held today and tomorrow, according to Coach Harry Stidler, and all students are requested to cooperate with the team managers and refrain from attempting to enter Kyle Field.

All students interested in forming a handball club are requested to meet with Herman Segrest at 5 p.m. in the northeast room of the gym Wednesday, October 27.

The weight lifting club will hold its first meeting and workout tomorrow night at 7:30 in the workout room of the gym.

Oklahoma Aggies Tie Cadets In Soccer Match Sunday

Texas A&M and Oklahoma A&M ayed to a 1-1 tie Sunday afternoon in the first intercollegiate soccer game ever played in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas. This game was one of two played Sunday. In the first game a group of Texas All-stars downed Oklahoma University to 0.

The Cadets took an early lead when James Mamarche, center forward from Bulgaria, scored when he shot from a jam-up in the goal mouth for the lone Texas Aggie score.

For the remainder of the first half the game rocked back and forth with neither team being able to put across another tally. Fine defensive play by Owen Armbruster, the Oklahoma right fullback, kept his team out of trouble in the first half as the Texans had control of the ball the majority of the time.

Oklahoma tied the score in the second half as Alex Sivas, center forward from Egypt, scored with a lob shot from 15 yards out directly in front of the goal.

Helping spark Oklahoma's team play was Eladio Laredo, right half from Bolivia, who was shifted to the forward line in the second half and turned in a fine game for the Oklahoma team both on offense and defense. Also playing a fine game were the Armbruster brothers, Owen and John.

Showing outstanding play for the Texans was Mario Hidaiza, outside left from Costa Rica, who was robbed of several goals on crosses by the Oklahoma goalie, Oscar Alcedo.

The intercollegiate game between the two Aggie teams showed the differences in soccer as played by persons where the game is native and where it is played American style.

SWISS FIND A LIVE BOMB

SCHAFFHAUSEN, Switz. — (AP) An unexploded bomb believed to be of American origin was found embedded in the bank of the Rhine river here recently. Swiss army engineers believed the bomb was dropped during the American air attack on Schaffhausen on April 1, 1944, during which more than 30 persons were killed. The Schaffhausen raid, caused by a navigational error, was the heaviest suffered by neutral Switzerland during the war.

Flowers Named As Outstanding Lineman Against Baylor Bears

Tackle Jimmy Flowers was rated as the most outstanding lineman against Baylor by the Batt Sports staff, while Bob Goode was again the unanimous choice in the backfield.

Much of the credit for stopping the Bear's ground offensive was due to the blond-headed Flowers. He was credited with eight tackles and several assists.

Early in the game he stopped Lyle Blackwood on a center plunge when the Bears were threatening from our 32 yard line. That tackle forced Baylor to try to pass for a first down, and when the toss fell incomplete, they had to kick.

Flowers also tackled Blackwood twice on the Bear 40, stopping the Bear's ground offensive. He helped to set up the final Aggie threat by stopping the Baylor star, George Sims, twice on the line of scrimmage.

Center Hub Ellis and Tackle Jim Winkler also played a good game for A&M. Ellis took a great while to stop both ends and sweeps and center thrusts. Winkler set up the second Aggie touchdown when he recovered a fumble deep in Baylor's territory, and he was also in on several tackles.

It is hard to describe what Bob Goode did for A&M Saturday. He kicked, ran, and passed the Aggies out of several holes. With ramrod Bobby Goff out of the game, most of the heavy work fell to Goode. He carried the ball 18 times, and kicked seven more for a 38-yard average.

His one kick to the Baylor one-inch line put the Bears in a hole for most of the third quarter and set up an Aggie drive which passed out only a yard penetrating to the Baylor seven.

The Big Bastrop player also kept the Aggies in the game with six minutes to go in the game when he ran instead of kicking on the fourth down, with six yards to go, and made over enough for a first down.

BLITZ TRAGEDY STILL ECHOES

LONDON, — (AP)— One of the worst bombing disasters of the London blitz was recalled when the St. Paneras borough coroner, W. Bentley Purchase, held four inquests without bodies.

A direct hit killed 154 persons in a public shelter in 1940. Ten of the victims were unidentified. When preparations for a memorial were six weeks daily relatives sent in the names of four presumed victims. Some of the office ordered an investigation. The coroner ruled that the bodies in the wreckage.

Two things every college man should know!

1. This is a philosopher. Spends time trying to prove he doesn't exist. He might as well not, without a "Manhattan" tie.

2. This is a "Manhattan" tie. Rich foulard pattern with solid-color knot and border. Benefits from our philosophy of taking extra pains and care with everything we make.
