squad who may see only limited action are backs Buddy Shaeffer, Mack Stoeltje, and Karl Hollier. Stoeltje is the leading punter and Shaeffer has been kicking the points after touchdown. Standing out in the Baylor freshman running game is 200 pound fullback Jackie Bearrow. Bearrow was injured in the Texas Shorthorn game and may not be able to start tonight.

The heaviest man on the Cub squad is tackle Ken Casner. Casner tips the scales at 225 and is the outstanding performer in the line. Aiding Casner will be center Dick Calhoun, 195, who should also prove to be troublesome to the Fish runners.

Freshman Teams Meet Tonight

The duel between the nation's top ground-gainers rates almost equal billing with the battle be-tween their respective teams the undefeated Orediggers and once beaten Ranchers from Abi-lene—in a crucial Border Con-

Coach Jack Curtice's Miners won their spurs as top title contenders when they walloped New Mexico University 27-13 last week in Albuquerque. It was also another field day for Wendt as he zoomed for 204 yards rushing, boosting his season total to 832 in 78 car-

Free of injuries, the entire Mines squad is determined that this will be the year to break the hex which Hardin-Simmons has held over the Orangemen. The series dates back to 1927 and the Miners held only three victories as compared to eight for the Baptists. Last time the Orediggers whipped Hardin-Simmons was in 1933.

Scrimmage in Preparation for Razorbacks

The Texas Aggies went through a light work-out yesterday afternoon on Kyle Field in preparation for tomorrow's game with the Arkansas Razorbacks. Coach. Harry Stiteler had the squad practicing Stiteler had the squad practicing in shorts in order to prevent adding any other players to the present Aggie injury list.

The Farmer's main hope of victory tomorrow lies in the stopping of Clyde Scott. Last year many of the present members of the maroon and white team will remember that the brilliant passing and end running of Scott was the deciding factor in Arkansas' gaining a 21-21 tie with A&M.

This week the Aggies worked on Arkansas plays and also on passing and pass defense which the Cadets have been rather weak in However, the team looked much better in both passing and pass defense against Baylor last Saturday and with a little more improvement they should be able to take the Razorbacks tomogrow.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29 (P)—Sandy Saddler's two-year chase of Willie Pep ends tonight when he meets the featherweight champ for the title at Madison Square Garden. The books will give you 3 to 1 that Sandy will be serry.

Willie, a strong favorite, has been chased by masters down through the years. In 136 fights only one has caught up with him. That was the old expert of the hit and clutch—Sammy Angott—away back in 1943. An obscure gent, Jimsmy McAllister, got away with a draw in his back yard at Baltimore in 1945.

The years may have slowed down Willie, now 26, but there is no proof. So far this year he has 15 for 15 and is still adding on a winning streak that numbers 44 since the McAllister draw.

Saddler's record, although im pressive, does not compare with Pep's, Sandy has knocked out 63 last June 30. Another was to Humberto Sierra, a Cuban who was starched by Pep at Miami last

Tigers Meet Weak Greiner Ellis Lion Team in Game Flowers Wright At Lott Tonight

After three straight wins the A&M Consol dated Tigers journey to Lott tonight to meet the Lions. The Tigers are heavy favorites and should win by a large margin.

According to Supt. Les Richardson and Coach Boot Simmons, Lott has a weak team. The Lions have a good runner and passer but he lacks good support from the rest of the players.

The Tigers will be in fairly good shape for tonight's game. Fullback Jim Prewit will not be able to play at all and guard Eddie McCulloch may see limited action. Taking Prewit's place in the backfield will be Gayle Klipple, and Homer LaMotte will probably fill McCulloch's guard

The probable Consolidated starting lineup will find Bates and Dowell at ends, McNew and Einman at tackles, Birdwell and McCulloch or LaMotte at guards, and Cooner at center. In the backfield the Tigers will have Cashion at quarter, Cooley and Killough at the halves and Klipple at fullback.
