

INFLATION HITS PANHANDLING
CHICAGO (UP)—Inflation has raised its bubble head in the pan-handling business. A middle-aged, neat, dignified fellow working the loop now asks the folks for the loan of a dollar so he can eat.

The Aggies
 Texas A. & M.
 College Station, Texas

Dear Aggie:

Herb Shaffer knows enough about college stationery to write a book. If he sat down with a box of fine paper and me with a crisp new $50 bill, we would each get the same bang out of a careful examination of the feel, and the fine engraving on each.

The other day Herb says to me, "Callahan, I need a new kind of stationery, some that will appeal to the average Aggie as just the thing to represent the A. & M. student, in short I want an Aggie stationery!"

"Well Herb," I says, "You've sold stationery by the thousands of boxes to army camps and colleges all over the country; and now you've bought stationery for our stock that smells like the deep East Texas Piney Woods, stationery with colorful emblems, special economy boxes, exclusive "thank you note" stationery and you've also got Rags Ragsdale, Aggie '49, printing names, monograms in gold, silver, and colors in six kinds of type and giving 4 hour service. If you ask me, what the average Aggie really wants is a small size blue stationery with an emblem on it." "But," Herb says, "Do they want a 100% rag vellum, ripple finish or just plain paper? Do they want a flying "T" or a plain "T" emblem? Just what do they want?"

Well fellows, we decided that the best answer to our problem would come to you, the people we want to please with a stationery designed exclusively for you

So,—get out your slide rules, paint brushes, pencils or pens and get busy and draw up a design for an Aggie stationery. You needn't be an artist, just sketch a layout or write a letter. Herb will pay $10 for the best idea—and to make it interesting I'll give $5 to the 100th letter received just for trying. The contest opens 8 a.m. Monday, November 1, and closes 12 noon, Saturday, Nov. 13.
