

Methodist Church Ladies Observe Prayer Meetings

As a part of the observance of World Week of Prayer, Oct. 25 through the 29th, the women of the Council of Church Women, A&M Methodist Church of College Station, held prayer meetings during the week in various member's homes.

The College Hills group met in the home of Mrs. O. F. Allen, with Mrs. D. L. Belcher as program chairman. Miss LaVerne Hunt played the piano during the program.

The home of Mrs. Olla Miller was the meeting place for the Oakwood group. Mrs. J. S. Mogford presented the program.

Mrs. Alf Buchanan was hostess for the College Park group. Mrs. Robert Henry was leader for the program.

Chief event of the prayer week was a covered dish luncheon held at the A&M Methodist church, Wednesday, in the Educational building. Each member contributed a dish for the event.

Before the luncheon a program was held with Mrs. J. F. Jackson as director aided by Mrs. Jay Holt, Mrs. Don Davidson, Mrs. W. R. Horsley, Mrs. R. M. Pinkerton, and Mrs. Ferris Baker.

The special projects of the missionary society were discussed after luncheon the program was continued until 2:00 p.m. During pauses in the program, Mrs. Randall Thomas and Mrs. R. E. Leighton provided musical enjoyment.

Scout leaders who supervised the clothing drive are back row, left to right, Mrs. H. A. McClure, Mrs. Fred Hale, and Mrs. Roy C. Garrett. Front row, Ann Schlesselman and Nancy Hale, scouts.

Day of Prayer To Be Held at St. Thomas Chapel

Women of College Station are invited to attend the World Community Day observance which will be held by the Associated Council of Church Women, 3 p.m., Nov. 5, at the parish house of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, College.

Officers will be elected for the council and they will be installed by Vicar Orin G. Helvey.

A prayer service will be held and Mrs. Dallas Belcher will speak on the subject, "Peace Is My Responsibility."

The World Community Project of the council, "Pak-A-Towel," will be a part of the program. Much-needed items such as soap, toothpaste, tooth brushes, etc., will be wrapped in a towel and fastened with a number of safety pins. These towel bundles will be labeled for boy or girl and brought to the meeting to be dedicated. They will then be sent to the young people of Europe.

Harvest Festival Bazaar Slated

The members of St. Thomas' Episcopal Chapel, Jersey Street, College Station, are all working for their Harvest Festival Bazaar to be held on Wednesday, November 3, at 6:30 p.m. There will be a Cafeteria in the smaller Parish Hall and supper will be served from 6:00 p.m. Everyone is invited to come along; there will be lots of useful articles for sale suitable for Christmas gifts, a children's corner with fun and competitions, and a magic show. Visit the sale! You are assured of a warm welcome.

Hallowe'en Party Held for Beginner Sunday School Class

Mrs. E. G. Smith and Mrs. Norman Anderson entertained the 24 members of the Beginner's Department of the A&M Presbyterian Sunday School with a Hallowe'en party at the Sunday School building, Friday afternoon from 5 to 6:30 p.m.

The Hallowe'en motif was emphasized throughout the party in the decorations, games, handwork, favors, and refreshments.

Highlight of the party was the pulling of Hallowe'en noise-making favors from the huge "Jack Horn-o". Hallowe'en jigs just before the serving of ice cream, candies, and cup cakes iced with Hallowe'en faces.

Art Club Plans Tea, Exhibit November 5

At a meeting of the Bryan-College Art Club held last Tuesday afternoon, in the home of Mrs. J. B. Cadden, plans were made for the tea and exhibit to be held at the Woman's Club, Nov. 5. The event will be in observance of National Art Week.

Committees were appointed as follows: Mrs. J. S. Mogford and Mrs. W. M. Peters, decorations; Mrs. George Watson, music; Mrs. M. L. Downey, refreshments and kitchen; and Mrs. A. P. Hoyett and Mrs. H. H. Hanover, tea table.

Aggie Wives' And Ruth Circle Meet In Joint Session

A joint meeting of the Aggie Wives' Circle and the Ruth Circle of the A&M Methodist Church was held last Monday night in the lounge of the church.

These circles are composed of the young women of the Women's Society of Christian Service.

Presiding over the meeting was Mrs. J. S. Mogford. The devotional was given by Mrs. Robert Henry.

Feature of the meeting was work on articles to be sold at the church bazaar to be held December 2 at the A&M Methodist Church. Proceeds from the bazaar will aid the work of the Women's Society for the coming year.

Hostesses for the social hour were Mrs. Cliff Maddox and Mrs. Don Davidson. Thirty members attended the meeting and were served refreshments by the hostesses.

A joint business session of the two circles was held Monday night, Nov. 1, with the Evening Circle also attending.

THE Women's Corner

Fourth District, DAR, To Meet in Navasota Nov. 4

On November 4th there will be a Regional meeting of the Fourth District, D. A. R., in Navasota. The Robert Raines Chapter of Navasota is the hostess chapter in charge of arrangements. This meeting is for the purpose of rendering greater service to the chapters in this district, and the members will have the opportunity of meeting a number of the state officers, state chairmen and vice-chairmen, as well as the State Regent. They also will have the opportunity of meeting each other and of sharing interests and problems.

The State Regent asks the cooperation of every chapter in order to make the meeting fulfill the purpose for which it is intended.

In response to the unanimous request from chapters which participated in the Division meetings last year to continue them again this year, a complete schedule has been prepared. Mrs. Edward Rowland Barrow of Houston, State Regent, will preside at the meeting; officers of the Texas Society will be present; and there will be much information of an interesting nature. State chairmen will give brief talks on the various phases of their work.

Following the morning meeting, there will be a luncheon, for which reservations should be made in advance so that the hostess chapter may make arrangements for the correct number.

Mrs. L. L. Fournier, Regent of the La Villita Chapter of College Station, urges all members to plan to attend this Regional meeting.

Bryan-College Fellowship Group Gives Silver Tea

A silver tea was given last Tuesday afternoon by members of the Fellowship Committee of the Bryan-College Station branch, American Association of University Women. The event was held in the home of Mrs. A. V. Moore, College Station.

Purpose of the event was to raise money for the Fellowship Fund of the Association and to aid the members in becoming better acquainted with each other.

Decorations were vivid fall flowers, Marigolds and zinnias tied with satin ribbons forming the centerpiece for the tea table.

Mrs. Omer E. Sperry presided at the tea table, and Mrs. J. H. Sorrels, Mrs. C. W. Burchard, Mrs. J. H. Quisenberry, Mrs. Ben Ferguson, and Mrs. Moore aided in serving the guests. These ladies, members of the Fellowship Committee, were in charge of the tea.

Money in the Fellowship Fund is used to enable deserving women to take advanced study in universities when they are unable to finance their own educations. The move to provide such fellowships is nationwide with all branches of the A.A.U.W. co-operating.

University Women Will Meet Here November 8

The Bryan-College Station branch of the American Association of University Women will hold its next meeting, Monday, Nov. 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the second floor lecture room of the Physics building, A&M Campus.

The program will be under the direction of the Fellowship committee with Mrs. J. H. Sorrels as chairman.

An extremely interesting program is planned consisting of slide pictures and talks on the lives and achievements of women who have studied on A.A.U.W. fellowships.

Following the showing of pictures, the meeting will be open to discussion by the group.

Other Fellowship committee members are Mrs. Ben Ferguson, Mrs. J. H. Quisenberry, Mrs. A. V. Moore, and Mrs. C. W. Burchard. Mrs. Harold Healy, publicity chairman, said that it is hoped that all members will be present at this very important meeting.

Directions were given for members unacquainted with the Campus. The Physics building is directly South of the Academic building. The Academic building can be identified by the dome on top and the U. S. flag in the yard.

College Station Community Drive Is Launched

The College Station Community Chest drive will get underway Monday morning, Joe Sorrels, chairman of the committee, announced. The goal is $9,843.

A short campaign is in the making, the chairman points out. "I think we will meet the quota within a short time as pre-campaign work indicates that the response will be more than gratifying," he said.

The Red Cross will not participate in the drive, Sorrels says. "We invited them in but they decided not to come in," he pointed out.

Chest committee members are besides Sorrels, G. W. Black, C. A. Anderson, W. N. Colson, M. L. Cashion, Col. Joe E. Davis, R. L. Elkins, S. L. Loveless, Dr. J. C. Miller, J. E. Roberts, Raymond Rogers, T. R. Timm, Dr. R. D. Turk and W. T. Wilkins.

Serve canned baked beans with a cheese sauce for a Sunday night supper dish. Add a green salad, hot rolls and a fruit-and-cocky dessert for a well-rounded menu.

Newcomers Club Meets Wednesday

The Newcomers Club will meet Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the second floor parlors of the Y.M.C.A. on the Campus.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Joe Benish, Mrs. Robert Chenoweth, Mrs. D. L. Farrar, Ray Wingren, and Mrs. P. D. Ledbetter.

After the social hour the group will divide. Bridge will be the diversion for those who wish to play.

Mrs. Robert Fletcher and Mrs. Richard Patrick will direct activities for those who do not wish to play bridge. A door prize will be awarded in this group.

Mrs. Bond Entertains Sewing Circle Group

The Vet Village Sewing Circle held its weekly meeting in the home of Mrs. Lucille Bond Thursday afternoon.

After sewing suggestions and patterns were discussed, coffee and cup-cakes were served to Alice Steyer, Dorothy Beckman, Jean Collins, Lou Coker, Eloise Hunt, Dean Cox, Billie Birdwell, Lena Miller, Fannie Hewitt, Hilda Bramhart and Lucille Bond.

Pictured are members of Troop 15, College Station Girl Scouts who sponsored clothing drive for European children at Campus Theatre last week. On the left is their leader, Mrs. Roy C. Garrett.

A&M Mothers' Club Holds First Meeting of Semester

College Social Club Holds Reception for Newcomers

The College Women's Social Club was hostess to the newcomers to A&M at a reception and tea held Friday afternoon in Shisa Hall. Guests were received by Mrs. Gibb Gilchrist, Mrs. H. L. Boatner, Mrs. Ide Trotter, Mrs. W. L. Penberthy, Mrs. W. R. Carmichael, Mrs. J. B. Johnson and the officers of the club.

Mrs. M. T. Harrington, president of the Social Club, welcomed all of the newcomers and explained to them that the purpose of the Social Club is to enable members to meet and become better acquainted. She then introduced Mrs. Gilchrist and the officers of the club. Mrs. Frank Bolton, honorary president; Mrs. J. E. Roberts, general chairman; Mrs. M. C. Hughes, vice president; Mrs. Fred Jones, treasurer; Mrs. Bryant Holland, secretary; Mrs. E. B. Reynolds, parliamentarian; and Mrs. J. G. Patter, reporter.

Mrs. Hughes, chairman of the interest groups, introduced the leader of each group: Mrs. H. W. Barrow, swimming; Mrs. John Hill, books; Mrs. R. E. Callender, handicraft; Mrs. A. Cecil Wamble, foods; Mrs. Johnson, newcomers; and Mrs. E. R. Alexander, art.

Mrs. Ralph Steen asked the support of the members of the Social Club in the Christmas sale of the Anti-Tuberculosis League.

Mrs. Roberts, general chairman, expressed her appreciation to the committee of hostesses for the occasion and invited those present to tea which consisted of frosted coffee, devil's food squares with orange icing, and cheese chips.

Mrs. Gilchrist, Mrs. Orin G. Helvey, Mrs. Elam Eckles of Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas, Mrs. Harry Stiteler, and Mrs. Carmichael poured.

The tea tables, placed at each end of the room, were covered with lace cloths. One table featured an artistic bouquet of tulle, golden dawn, and Heinrich Goethe roses, and the other table was centered with pyracantha and marigolds. Bouquets of marigolds and pyracantha were used elsewhere in the room.

The A&M Mothers' Club held its first meeting of the year Thursday afternoon in the lounge of the YMCA on the Campus.

A short business session was conducted by Mrs. Bassett Orr, president, at which time Mrs. E. M. Sherwood, extension chairman, told of plans to organize A&M Mother's Clubs in nearby counties.

Decorations throughout the rooms were in autumn shades. Mrs. F. C. Bolton presided at the tea table which was covered with a colorful cloth and centered with a pottery container filled with red pyracantha berries and green and gray leaves.

Honorees for the day were mothers who, for the first time, have a son attending A&M. The executive board members were hostesses for the occasion with Mrs. E. B. Reynolds as hostess chairman in charge of arrangements.

The next meeting of the club will be on the third Thursday in January.

Tessies '68

Mr. and Mrs. William Paul Tapp of College Station, a daughter, Cleo Paultette, born Oct. 26 at Bryan Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Jones of College Station, a daughter, Verna Lorene, born Oct. 25 at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Prater, of College Station, a daughter, Karen, born Oct. 25 at St. Joseph's.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Mathis, a daughter, Rosalind Ann, born Oct. 30 at St. Joseph's.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Collins, a daughter, Anna Marie, born Oct. 28 at St. Joseph's.

Mr. and Mrs. Velvan Melson, a daughter, Teresa Annette, born Oct. 26 at St. Joseph's.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Wilson Jr., a daughter, born Nov. 1 at St. Joseph's.

Cooking School Opens in Bryan

The McCulloch-Dansby Furniture Co. of Bryan has announced a cooking school to be held on Nov. 3 at 2:00 p.m. at the store.

A home economist from Houston will be present to demonstrate cooking on Chamber's gas ranges. Drawings for prizes will be held.

J. E. Bethancourt, the manager, extends a cordial invitation for all ladies of College Station and Bryan to attend.

Aggies '68

Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Standley, twin boys, born Nov. 1 at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfred H. Naudiver, a son, David H., born Oct. 30 at St. Joseph's.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Sledge, a son David Stephen, born Oct. 29 at St. Joseph's.

CLEANING — PRESSING
ALTERATIONS
AT THEIR BEST — AT CAMPUS CLEANERS
Over The Exchange Store

The Crowning Touch to Any Meal... is Mello Kream
— MADE BY —
LILLY ICE CREAM CO.

made-to-order
face powder by Charles of the Ritz
Hand-blended right before your eyes to match...
to highlight your very own skintone...
based on a formula created exclusively for you.
$2, 3, 5 the box (plus tax). Introductory box $1

Lester's
Smart Shop

WHY PAY MORE?
Call today about our...
20% RATE REDUCTION
Billie Mitchell, '42
STATE FARM INSURANCE COMPANIES
Phone 4-7269
Above Aggeland Pharmacy
AUTO — LIFE — FIRE

SPECIAL!!
Little Girls' Jeans
Zipper side closing... Adjustable removable suspenders... 8 oz. sanforized denim... Nipped in waist.
Sizes — 3 - 6
$1.95
Joyce's Togs 'n Toys
608 So. College Phone 2-2864

LADIES, DON'T FORGET!
Prizes! Prizes! Prizes!
AT
Chamber's Cooking School

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 3, AT 2:00 P.M.

See Miss Chambers demonstrate the famous CHAMBER'S GAS RANGE which "cooks with the gas turned off."

Cooking Authorities Agree on Its Remarkable Efficiency. Designers Laud Its Beauty.
EVERYBODY INVITED
— SPONSORED BY —
MCCULLOCH-DANSBY
Bryan, Texas