January Graduation Exercises May Be Held If Enough Seniors Desire

Seniors graduating in January may have formal graduation exercises if enough of them desire to, Don Kaspar, president of the senior class announced today.

He said that a ballot box will be placed in the rotunda of the Academic Building Friday and Monday. The ballot printed below should be used by the January graduates to indicate their preference, Kaspar said.

Fish Protest Food With 'Air-Raids'

The first "air-raid" of the year occurred at the Annex mess-hall Wednesday at the noon meal, in protest of the food served then. A few minutes after this brief complaint, several signs sprang up and were posted on the walls of the mess hall.

The Wednesday evening meal improved considerably, according to the Annex reports, but a committee of nine has been appointed by Roland Zapata, freshman regimental commander, to investigate the situation. The committee will give findings to Annex officials.
