New postal rates for air mail, special delivery, and third class mail are now in effect according to a notice received from the Postmaster General.

Air mail postal cards, which cost five cents, are now down to four cents. A new four-cent stamp will be issued January 10 for the benefit of those

Highway 6 near Bryan, open-counter stools.

BLIZZARD HITS PANHANDLE ZERO WEATHER EXPECTED

er is expected there tonight.

A near blizzard stormed into the prefering to use air mail postals.

Special delivery rates were increased from 13 to 15 cents.

Regular air mail rates were increased from five to six cents. The six-cent air mail rate was used between 1934 and 1944, and was reduced during marking the six-cent are mail rates were increased from five to six cents. The six-cent air mail rates were increased from five to six cents. The six-cent air mail rates were increased from five to six cents. The six-cent air mail rates were increased from five to six cents. The six-cent air mail rates were increased from five to six cents. The six-cent air mail rates were increased from five to six cents. The six-cent air mail rates were increased from five to six cents. The six-cent air mail rate was used between 1934 and 1944, and was reduced from five to six cents. The six-cent air mail rate was used between 1934 and 1944, and was reduced from five to six cents. duced during wartime when so many letters were being sent over seas.

On Highway 6

seas.

The three-cent first class stamp and one-cent postals will continue to be used and no changes are re-corded for second class rates covering newspapers and magazines of general circulation.

Ingliway 6 hear Bryan, opening newspapers and magazines of der new management and under new

The following third class changes were announced: Piece rate, circulars and merchandise except seeds, plants, from one and one half cents for each two ounces to a new rate of two cents for the first two ounces and one cent for each additional ounce. Books and catalogs of 24 pages or more, seeds, plants, from one cent each for each two ounces to a new rate of one and one-half cents each two ounces.

Bulk rate, circulars and mer-chandise (not less than 20 pounds or 200 pieces), 12 cents per pound, minimum of one cent each to 14 cents per pound, minimum of one

Books and catalogs of 24 pages or more, seeds, plants (20 pounds or 200 pieces), eight cents a pound minimum of one cent each to new rate of 10 cents per pound, minimum of one cent each.

Minimum Third Class charge for pieces of odd size or form: Boosted from no extra charge to m. Clark's is closed each Wednesa new rate of three cents.

Annual fee for mailing of third class matter at bulk rate: Boosted from no charge to rate of $10 a calendar year.

A&M '42 Grad Re-enters Army

Fred T. O'Keefe, a 1942 graduate of A&M, has entered the army as a first lieutenant according to Colonel Oscar B. Abbott, senior army instructor for the Organized Reserves in Texas.

He reported for duty with the Infantry at Camp Stoneman, Calif.

CAMPUS

"PIGSKIN HIGHLIGHTS"

RICE vs. SMU TEXAS vs. RICE SMU vs. TEXAS SMU vs. ARKANSAS BAYLOR vs. SMU A&M vs. TEXAS TCU vs. SMU

The Battalion CLASSIFIED ADS

Page 4

MONDAY, JANUARY 3, 1949

HAVE your themes, thesis, typed by experts. Phone 2-6705. THE SCRIBE SHOP, 1007 E. 23rd, or see our agent after 5:00 p.m., College View, C-13-A.

FOR SALE—Two desks, upholstered and wooden chairs, tables. Tom Dietz, Ag-gie Realty Co. 4-1245.

Bronco Inn, drive-in cafe on William N. Mosely

der new management and under a new name—"Clark's."
Roy and Edwin Clark of Burleson, both mechanical engineering graduates of A&M, took over operation of the drive-in, which is under lease from W. A. Boney.
Roy Rlanton is former owner-man-man speaking control of the drive-in which is under lease from W. A. Boney.
Roy Rlanton is former owner-man-man speaking control of the drive-in which is under lease from W. A. Boney. William N. Mosely, Aggie fourth year Petroleum - Geology major, won the annual speaking contest Roy Blanton is former owner-manager of Bronco Inn.
Edwin entered A&M in 1939, and Roy came here the following year. sponsored by the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers December 16 at Tex-as University.

After being discharged from the armed services, they reentered A &M to complete their education. Edwin received his diploma in August, 1947, and Roy was graduated in June, 1948.

A complete renovation and repainting program was carried on throughout the Christmas holidays in preparation for opening day in pre throughout the Christmas holidays in preparation for opening day, January 1. New leather upholstery has been placed on all chairs and morning of December 16 by TU President T. S. Painter. The meet-Service hours are from 8:30 a. ing was convened at the Texas m. to midnight, Monday through Thursday, and from 8:30 a. m. to Union Building.

Mosely is the first A&M student to win the contest since competi-

2 a. m. on Friday and Saturday nights. Curb service begins at 4 p. tion began. Charles W. Hancock, who represented TU, spoke on "Methods in Determining Connate Waters."

FIFTEEN JAPANESE DRAW HEAVY PRISON SENTENCES

Panhandle this morning, bringing snow and severe cold. Zero weath-TOKYO, Jan. 3 (P) — Fifteen Japanese, including the war time military police chief and several former generals, drew heavy prison sentences today for killing 45 centived American files. The temperatures at 7:30 a.m. were as low as 12 degrees in the Panhandle and still were dropping. captured American fliers. Snow fell over the area and high winds added to the misery.

Twelve others were acquitted by a U.S. Eighth Army Commission. The trial lasted five months. The weather bureau reported at 7:30 a.m. that snow was falling in Amarillo, Clarenedon, El Paso, Salt Flats, Guadalupe Pass and Wink. Borger reported a light snow and high winds. Among those who drew the heaviest sentences—life in prison—were: Lt. Gen. Sanji Okida, commander of the military police head-quarters; Lt. Gen. Michio Kuni-take, chief of staff of the 15th district army; Maj. Gen. Tsugia Nagatomo, commander of the cen-tral district military. Police, I.I. Low temperatures reported to the weather bureau at 7:30 included Dalhart 12 degrees, Amarillo 17, Borger 18, Guadalupe Pass 22, Clarendon 24, Salt Flats 28, and Wink 35. At 6:30 a.m., the temperature was 27 at El Paso. At all those points, the mercury had dropped from two to five degrees in an hour. Nagatomo, commander of the central district military police; Lt. Col. Hideo Fujioka, chief of police affairs for the central army district and Mrj. Shuichi Ikoma, chief of the foreign affairs division of the centeral district.

What's Cooking

The weather bureau said that lows of zero to 8 above were expected tonight in the Panhandle and South Plains. In the upper por-A&M LUTHERAN STUDENT ASSOCIATION, Lutheran Student tion of the ecos and eastward, temperatures of 10-20 degrees were expected. Elsewhere in west Texas, 20-30 minimums were fore-Center, North Gate, Wednesday, Jan. 5, 7:30 p.m. Discussion topic: "A Plan For Living."

ASCE, 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, Civil Engineering Lecture Room. NEWCOMERS CLUB, 2 p. m., Wednesday, YMCA.

> —Open Daily 7:30 a.m.-Last Wash Received— Mon. 7:30 P.M.—Sat. 3:30 P.M.
> Other Days 5:30 P.M.
> STARCHING & DRYING
> FACILITIES AVAILABLE

Geo. W. Buchanan, D.C.

COLONIC X-RAY 305 E. 28th St.

SEAT COVERS Plastic or Straw JOHNSON'S UPHOLSTERY SHOP Back of "Eagle" Office Bryan, Texas

EXPERT SHOE REPAIRS While You Wait Cowboy boots made to order JONES BOOT SHOP Southside

McCULLOCH-DANSBY APPLIANCE STORE Bryan

W.S.D. CLOTHIERS College Station

OLD FURNITURE MADE NEW We Specialize in Refinishing Antiques and Venetian Blinds F. L. SUMMERS Furniture Refinishing Painting Contractor 3200 Highway 6, S. Ph Ph. 4-4682 LI'L ABNER Happy New Year !!

LI'L ABNER

LI'L ABNER

By Al Capp

By Al Capp

By Al Capp

Going My Way!!

Three Little Words!!

Forecasters expected the cold wave to reach Wichita Falls and San Angelo this morning.

I would like to submit the following name or names for the name of the A&M Annual provided the majority of the Student Body votes for a name change.

All suggested names turned in by the Student Body will be included on the General Election Ballot. Suggested names may be turned in to the Longhorn Office, Goodwin Hall, or mailed postage free in Faculty Exchange. Deadline for submitting names has been set for 5 p.m. January 4.

Suggested Names for A&M Annual LAUNDER IN

LEISURE ... Laundromat Equipped ONE-HALF HOUR LAUNDRY

CLEARANCE SALE

45% Slash

ON ALL GIFT STOCK

All Sales Final

No Exchanges, Returns

or Refunds

The Decorator Shop

Phone 4-1269

East Gate — College

