

Where Jobs and the Jobless Meet - The Placement Office

By GEORGE CHARLTON

"You say you want a job? Then I'll tell you what I'm going to do."

This could easily be the motto of the A&M Placement Office which acts as a "middle grounds" between employers and job-seeking seniors and alumnae.

his decision will be against them if they are wrong, and with them if they are right.

The attitude of students is that, right or wrong, they are sure of a stiff penalty anytime they go on the panel. Therefore they have confidence neither in the fairness of the men serving on that panel, nor in the panel itself as a means of justice. I wish to point out here that I have nothing against the men on the panel personally, but only believe that someone other than deans should serve.

William M. Menger

(Editor's Note: The Battalion would like to commend the writer of this letter. It shows constructive criticism without malice or bitterness. More letters of this type can help correct unsatisfactory conditions quicker than those that complain without offering a remedy.)

STILL WAITING

Editor, The Battalion:

"Spell it out" for Seelke and Brown. Their suggestion to republish the old "Battalion" magazine is the best we have read in your "red rag" this year. We understand that the "Commentator" was created to replace it. If it was it has failed miserably.

There may be some who think that lewd literature is bad for "growing young minds." But we feel that such a publication will better all concerned. It would be better for students to buy the "Battalion" magazine than "Esquire," "Sunshine and Health," or some of the other magazines now on sale at our newsstands. At least, the money would be going to school funds rather than to some distant publisher.

We are hopefully waiting for the first edition of the post-war "Battalion" magazine.

Naval Aviation Cadet Details Listed by Recruiting Office

Details of the Naval Aviation Cadet program, which has been reactivated recently, have been listed by the Navy Recruiting Station at Corpus Christi in a letter to W. L. Penberthy, Dean of Men.

Details of the program, as furnished by the Navy, are as follows.

Candidates enlist in the Naval Reserve and agree to serve a total of four years on active duty, including 18 months of indoctrination and flight training, and a period of service in the operating forces. At the completion of flight training, the cadets are commissioned either as Ensigns in the Naval Reserve or as Second Lieutenants in the Marine Corps Reserve.

Currently, applicants are required to have had two or more years of college.

Former Naval aviation cadets and student pilots who were separated from the program due to quota restrictions, or who were released to inactive duty at the end of the war, are eligible to apply provided they meet all other qualifications.

Applicants must be between the ages of 18 and 25, be unmarried and physically, mentally and psychologically fit for military flying.

Further information may be obtained from the Naval Aviation Cadet Procurement Office, Naval Air Station, Corpus Christi, Texas, or any Navy Recruiting Station.

Aggie-Ex Will Be Buried in Waco

The body of Langdon Paul Kinder, who was drowned in the Colorado River, will be returned for burial in Waco Saturday.

Kinder was a wildlife management graduate, class of '45. At the time of his death he was employed as an assistant refuge manager on the Imperial Waterfowl Refuge on the Colorado River in Arizona.

According to information received by the Former Students Association, Kinder had found four men illegally hunting on a game preserve in his territory. He was accompanying the men back across the Colorado River when their boat overturned. One of the men could not swim. In his attempt to rescue the hunter, Kinder was drowned. The body was not recovered until a few days ago.

New Radio Show Starts Tomorrow

A new radio program "Saturday Date" will be inaugurated tomorrow night from 10 to 11 p. m. by Bill Thomas, master of ceremonies of KORA's "On the Beam."

The new program will be broadcast over KORA from the College Inn Cafe in Bryan and will feature interviews with cafe patrons, playing of request numbers, and quiz program skits at which prizes will be awarded.

Thomas said that anyone who is in the cafe at those hours has a chance to appear on the program.

Church Women On College Council Organize Program

The Executive Committee of the College Station Council of Church Women met Wednesday with their president, Mrs. F. L. Thomas, and made plans for the Council's 1949 program. The following committee assignments were made for the coming year by Mrs. Thomas.

Spiritual Life - Mrs. W. E. Schenk, chairman

Religious Education - Mrs. D. W. Williams, chairman

Social Welfare - Mrs. E. B. Middleton, chairman

State Projects - Mrs. F. I. Dahlberg, chairman

Social and Finance - Mrs. Manning Smith, chairman

Radio - Mrs. Dallas Belcher, chairman

Community Recreation - Mrs. Gordon Gay, chairman

An article telling of the radio program sponsored by the local council was sent for publication to the "Church Woman," the national organ for the United Council of Church Women. The program, heard each Thursday afternoon at 4:15 over WTAW, was started by Mrs. Thomas and for some years has presented local church news, news of community projects, and spiritual messages to the community.

Reports were made at the meeting on the Christian Rural Overseas Program. Through this program known as CROP, a shipload of grains and wool was contributed by farmers in Kansas, Colorado, and Texas. The cargo cleared Galveston on December 31 for Antwerp, Belgium.
