

Templeton Slated For Matinee And Concert in Guion

Alec Templeton, blind piano-virtuoso, will tackle a double assignment upon his arrival at College Station Monday, February 21. He will first appear in a 3:30 matinee at Guion Hall Monday afternoon, giving an hour and a half concert for those who do not have Town Hall tickets. Admission will be 50¢ for students and $1.20 for non-students. Town Hall tickets not being acceptable at the matinee.

At eight that evening he will be presented in Guion Hall once again, this time as Town Hall's fourth attraction of the year. Templeton has received nationwide acclaim from audiences and critics for his interpretations of the classics, his impressions, and his improvisations.

ballers made nearly every one ending up with a better than 90% average.

The Fish squad will have a chance to make a better showing against the strong Tyler bunch when the two teams meet again in Tyler February 18.

Davis, who had a bad ankle, injured it even more in the fray last night. Coach Taylor Wilkins stated that he might have to start Bybee in the game against Wharton Junior College. Wilkins said he would have to see first if the Nederlander cager was at all able to participate and expects little or no action from him in tonight's contest.

areas be set up at the locations previously described as strategic areas for students.

B. That appropriate signs be placed in all places necessary to constantly remind the car owner of his limitations and privileges. Caution signs to be placed at locations inhabited by children where they do not now exist.

C. That the area west of Guion Hall be made into a parking lot available to all students.

"6. . . . that a probation period of two to three months be set up for students violating 'parking regulations.' After a student has been fined the second time and goes a certain length of time without getting a ticket, his record will be wiped clean and started over again. Such a time period would be definite and for parking offenses only.

"7. That once this new Traffic Committee has drawn up and made public these new rules that they be strictly complied with both from the standpoint of the student driver and officials alike, thereby assuring equal justice to all."

Committee members were Geo. Edwards, James D. Whitley, C. E. Christie, George Marble, R. D. Hodges, M. L. Stone, Weldon Williams, and Paul H. Landry. Fred Hambricht of the Executive Committee presented proposals of that group concerning identification cards for students. After much discussion the Senate voted to return the matter to the committee for further investigation.

Ben Wyatt of the Welcoming Committee reported that his committee had aided Dick Hervey of the Association of Former Students in welcoming ex-students on the campus for the weekend of the "T" Association banquet.

A list of appropriations made by the Exchange Store Committee was given by Harry Raney. These allocations were made from $65,680 profit. The Exchange Store received 50 per cent, or $32,840 for operations and improvements. One-fourth of the total, or $16,420, was given to the Memorial Student Center. Of the remaining $16,420, $3,000 went to the band and $2,000 to the Library. The remainder will be allocated by the Student Life Committee. All of the above expenditure of funds is subject to approval of the Board of Directors.

Bob Weyand reported that a Mess Committee survey on where the money for meals is spent is being prepared for the next session. Keith Allsup of the Election Committee reviewed the past election of the yearbook name. A discussion was held in which it was decided to hold elections to replace three vacancies in the Senate caused by changing of residences by former area representatives.

The Senate endorsed a letter to President Bolton which requested that action be taken immediately to appoint a committee with the authority to decide on the government and organization of the Student Memorial Union. Bubba Scrimgeour of the World Student Service Fund Committee announced several items being considered by the group. He said that a drive was contemplated for the first week in March with the Student Senators acting as dorm captains and Senators-at-large supervising larger areas. Methods of conducting the drive by advertising and personal solicitations are being planned he said.

Marvin Rice announced tentative plans for the Aggie Muster on the campus, April 21, and received several suggestions concerning the program from individual Senators. The members of the Mother's Day Committee were given by chairman James Whatley as Tom Benefield, Aubrey Sprawls, Julius Blum, and Jug Leatherwood as an advisor.

Robert Ransom presented information concerning the housing situation for married students at A&M. Ransom's figures showed that 2 out of 9 Aggies are married and that the College can house about 10% of the students in the school in family apartments. He explained that rates of $25, $30, and $37.50 are charged for main campus apartments and that rates at the Annex are $6.50 cheaper. These figures are for apartments with utilities provided. The methods of ascertaining priority for housing were explained by Ransom.

Secretary Bob Smith read a letter from Charles Kirkham, Senate President, to Tyree Bell of the Cotton Bowl Association Committee in which was presented the recommendations of the Senate for apportioning some Cotton Bowl tickets to all Southwest Conference schools. Bell's answer was read also.

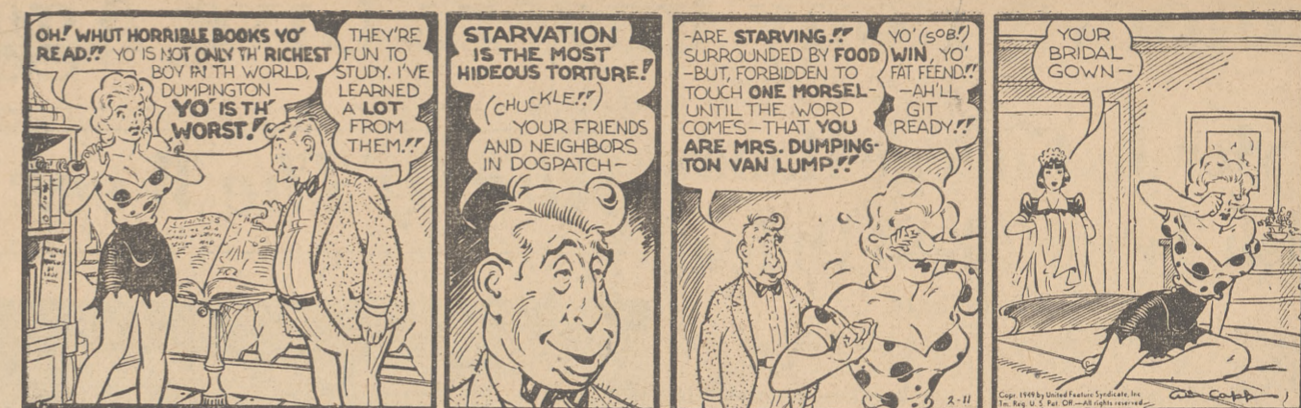

Final business of the session was a talk by Cadet Jack Happy explaining his attempts to have a commemorative stamp issue printed to mark the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of Texas A&M. The Senate voted to commend Happy for his fine idea and efforts and recommended that the stamp issue be printed. Full aid of the Senate to promote the plan was pledged.

Areas not represented were Dorms 2, 4, 6, 8, Law, and Walton Halls. Three Senators-at-large were not present.
