Aggies to Tangle With Baylor Bears in Waco Saturday Night

By TRAVIS BROCK

Saturday night in Waco the Aggies will tangle with the Baylor Bears in a Southwest Conference basketball game.

The Bears will be fighting to hold their present standing in the conference, while the Aggies in turn, will be trying to knock off one of the top contenders, which is very typical in the Southwest Conference.

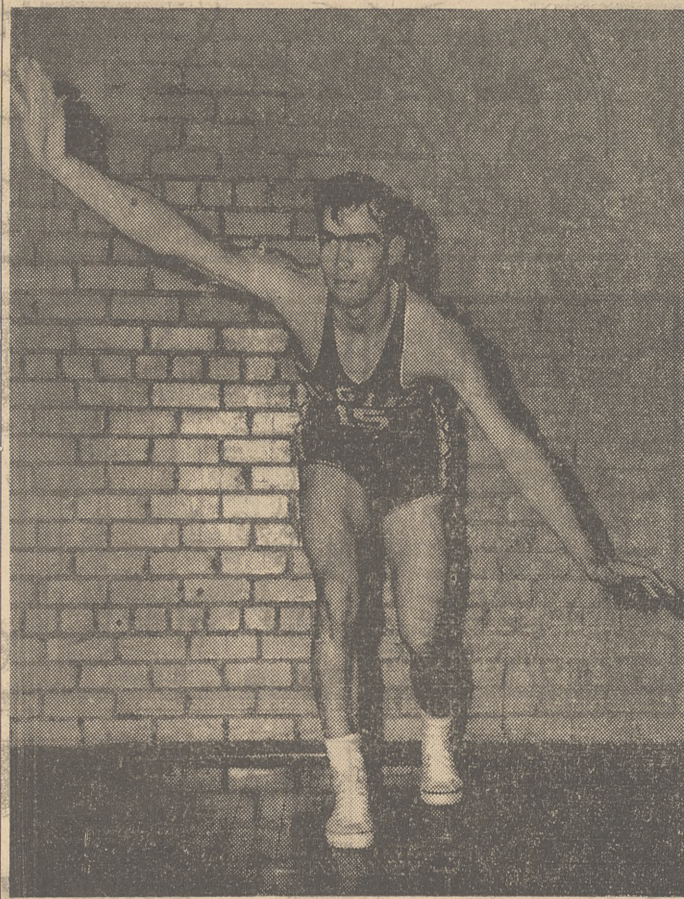

Baylor is tied for second place with the Rice Owls at the present time, each having a record of seven wins and three losses in conference play. Arkansas is in first place with eight wins against only two losses.

Bill Johnson a returning member of Baylor's championship team of last season, will not be at his regular guard position Saturday night. He suffered injuries in an automobile accident since these two teams last met and is out of the Bear lineup for the remainder of the season.

Finding a suitable replacement for Johnson was overcome when Bill Hickman, number six man of the Bears, stepped into the starting five to give the Baylor fans revived title hopes.

Coach Marty Karow's Aggies will be in top form for the game with forward Bill Turnbow having fully recovered from an ankle injury he suffered in the Texas game. Turnbow scored 15 points in the Aggies last game against the Longhorns and will be counted on to help the Aggie offense again Saturday night in Waco against the Bears.

This game will also feature a return engagement between John and Bill DeWitt. John has consistently been top scorer for the Aggies all season while playing the center post. Bill, who was a regular last season for the Bears, stands out with his great defensive WALLACE MOON, stellar guard on the Aggie basketball team hails from Bay, Arkansas. One of the speediest members on the Aggie cage squad, he has two year of eligibility left.

The first meeting of these two brothers resulted in John collecting more points than his older brother, but the Bears walked off the court with a 53-47 victory over the Aggies.

Probable starting line-ups for Coach Bill Henderson's Bears will be Hickman and Heathington at the guards, DeWitt and Owens at forwards, and Odell Preston at center.

Coach Marty Karow will probably send to the court as his starting five, Bill Turnbow and Jim Kirkland at the forward posts, Jewell McDowell and Gene Schrickel at guards, and John DeWitt to hold down the center slot.

Game time is eight p. m. The place of the contest is McLean Gym on the Baylor Campus.

In the opener at six p. m., the Aggie Fish will take on the Baylor Cubs. The Fish won over the Cubs in the teams' first meeting and they are expected to repeat.

Second Annual JC Tourney To Be Held Here March 1-3

Texas A&M's second annual Junior College Basketball tournament will begin in DeWare Field House 9 a. m. Tuesday, March 1 and run through Thursday, March 3rd.

Tyler Junior College is heavily favored to repeat as tournament champions. The Apaches have won their second Junior College State Championship and with such an array of high school all-stars there is little doubt that will have much trouble repeating.

The tournament will officially begin Tuesday morning when the Phillips and Tyler Junior Colleges start off the action. Lon Morris and Laredo will clash at 1 p. m. Tuesday with Blinn JC and San Angelo taking to the hardwoods that night at six.

J. E. Roberts will act as general chairman for the tournament with Flop Colson in charge of tickets. The housing of players will come under the heading of Harry Boyer. Newt Hielscher will direct the issuing of awards, trophies and prizes.

Aggie cage mentor, Marty Karow will again act as tournament director with Mike Barron handling the program duties.

The tournament will be run in a double elimination manner with teams dropping out of the real race having a chance to redeem themselves in the consolation division.

Other teams participating in the JC tournament include: Amarillo Junior College, John Tarleton, Allen Academy, Schriener, Henderson, Wharton JC, Howard County Junior College and Lamar JC of Beaumont.

Tourney teams are due in some time Monday afternoon. They will first report to the housing office to receive room assignments, linen and room keys. The squads will be guests of the A&M athletic department for the Aggie-Arkansas tilt to be held Monday night.

Dorms 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 11, and 14 will be used to house the cagers. A committee of two boys from each home town will greet the cagers upon their arrival but any Aggies who would like to greet his home town friends of the JC teams are cordially invited to join the welcoming committee.

Charley Gehringer Headed For Berth In Hall Of Fame

NEW YORK — Sometime early in March, Charley Gehringer, former Detroit Tiger second baseman, will be elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N. Y.

That Charley will get the honor by an elimination process is hard to understand. He may not have hit in a class first ballot.

The votes here go to Gehringer: Mel Ott, who hit 511 homers and batted .304 in 22 years with the New York Giants; Bill Dickey, who hit .314 in 17 years with the New York Yankees; Harry Heilmann, four-time American League batting champion, and Hack Wilson, whose 56 homers in 1930 for the Chicago Cubs are tops in National League history.

We'd probably vote for the entire group of 20 nominees but rules are rules.

Gehringer and Ott look like certain additions to Cooperstown.

This time a year ago we said Heilmann, now a Detroit Tiger broadcaster, looked like he deserved the honor.

When Harry led the American League in hitting back in the twenties his competition came from Ty Cobb, Babe Ruth, and George Sisler, all Hall of Famers. His top batting marks were .394, .403, .393 and .398.

And it makes you stop to wonder. How can they leave a hitter like Heilmann out of the Hall of Fame? But the baseball writers—those with 10 or more years' membership—have been doing it.

The poll is restricted to these 20 nominated players:

- C. Gehringer, 102; Mel Ott, 94;
  - A. Simmons, 89; Dizzy Dean, 88;
  - Jimmy Fox, 85; Bill Terry, 81;
  - Paul Waner, 79; Hank Greenberg, 67;
  - Bill Dickey, 65; Harry Heilmann, 59; Rabbit Maranville, 58;
  - Gabby Hartnett, 35; Joe Cronin, 33;
  - Dazzy Vance, 33; Ted Lyons, 29;
  - Hack Wilson, 24; Ray Schalk, 24;
  - Charley Ruffing, 22; Ross Youngs, 20; and Tony Lazzeri, 20.

Adamson Shifts Team, But Wins Over Bruins Easily

By SCOTTY SWINNEY

Coach Art Adamson received his fourth ducking of the season yesterday, when his tankmen defeated Baylor University 40-35, in a meet held at Waco. This was the Aggies second win over the Bruins this year.

A&M won the 300 medley relay to give them an early lead of 5 points. The race was started for the Aggies by backstroke swimmer Ed Kruse, who gave the Farmers a lead of five feet. Aggie breaststroke man "Tiger" Moye took over from Kruse and ran the lead up to 20 feet when he handed it over to Jim Flowers, who swam freestyle. Jim then ran away from Jud Williams to give the Aggies a 50 foot lead at the finish line.

Sam Sorrell whipped out on an error by Gilbert McKenzie to take first in the 220 yard freestyle. Gilbert led Sorrell all the way to the 200 yard mark where he thought he had finished. When he discovered his error, it was too late to catch Sam, but he made a good effort, finishing a close second, Jerry Fisher gave the Aggies a third place in the event.

In the 50 yard freestyle, Baylor's Gene McCoy and Tom Wynn swept the first two places, with Gene Summers of A&M coming in third.

The diving was similar to that of the first meet between the two teams, with "Bullet" Manale again showing very good form to take first place away from the Farmers. Scotty Potter came in second in points, but was diving unofficially. Second place, therefore, went to Bill Strait with the next most points. Third place went to "Earpy" Johnson.

Danny Green gave the Aggies their second first place of the meet, when he swept to win in the 100 yard freestyle closely followed by his teammate Bernard Syfan. Third place was taken by Gene McCoy, who touched the bank immediately after Bernie.

Baylor took its fourth first place of the meet when Andy Odom outdistanced Ed Kruse of the Aggie squad to win the 150 yard breaststroke event. It was anybody's race to the very end, with Ed coming in .2 second behind Andy. Paul Fleming of A&M captured third place in the event.

George Dieck put on the steam in the 200 yard breaststroke to take first place with a 45 foot lead over the nearest man, who was his teammate John Sheppard. Baylor's Wyatt Heard was 75 feet behind Dieck for a poor third.

The Aggie's last first place came when Dave Vardaman took the 440 yard freestyle. For the first 200 yards of the race, it looked as though Sam Sorrell of Baylor might have a chance to win, but then Dave pulled away from him, and John Peters, also of A&M, pulled up to contest Sam for second. Peters came in third after barely being nosed out by Sorrell. When the last race came up,
