

(Continued from Page 1) ment. It is up to the United States and we all know that the U. S. cannot keep out, he said. Her own personal safety and interest requires her entrance. Neither the sinking of a ship nor Pearl Harbor caused the U. S. to enter the past two wars and will not be needed to get her into future wars. The way to prevent another war is stay stronger than the Communist-dominated countries. History shows that a country has never attacked another country which was six or seven times stronger and Russia will be no exception. We are now six or seven times stronger than Russia and must stay that way to be safe.

Russia Has Men
All Russia has is a mass of men. She has no bases, no fleet, no strategic air force, and no highly trained men. She does not have the atomic bomb, he pointed out. The Marshall Plan and the North Atlantic Charter are the true path for the countries of the world to follow. If we follow this path and similar paths, we, our children and our children's children will be able to see 100 years of peace, he said.

When questioned about the United Nations, Churchill commented, "The United Nations has become a tower of Babel."
"The U. N. provides employment for otherwise unemployable persons. That is about the only function that it performs except to open the eyes of a few old women. The spectacle of Gromkyo getting up and making his absurd speeches causes the scales to fall from eyes."

Don't Trust Them
When questioned about the military future of Germany, Churchill said, "There are two categories of people that can't be trusted with firearms—children and Germans."

Army to Keep Forces in Japan Just in Case, Says Big Brass

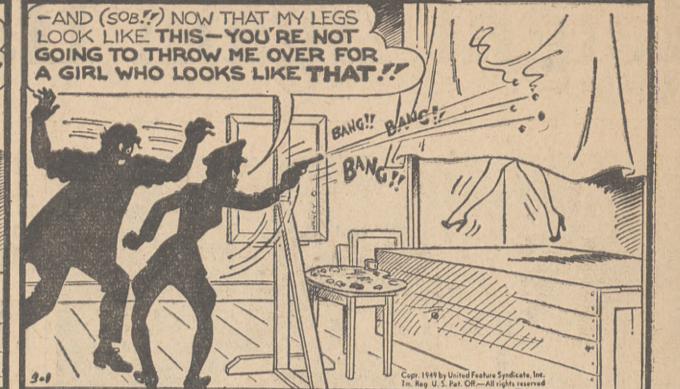

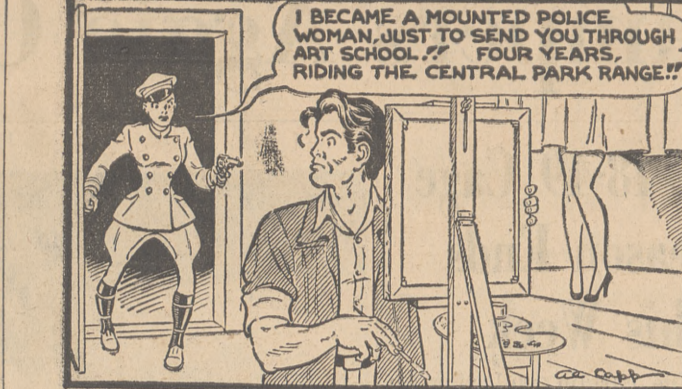

WASHINGTON, March 1—(P)—The Army intends to keep about 127,000 soldiers in Japan for the next year—mainly to keep peace, but ready to fight if the former enemy country is attacked. This is the number of soldiers the United States had there last year.

Plans for distributing the 677,000 men the Army would have under appropriations proposed for the year beginning next July 1 were announced yesterday. In a news conference which followed, Gen. J. Lawton Collins, Army vice chief of staff, made clear just what was meant by a reference to the "tactical mission" for Occupation Troops in Japan and Germany.

"If Japan were attacked and our troops were there," he told a questioning reporter, "they certainly would fight, I can assure you."

Secretary of Army Royall, who recently said American forces in Japan are prepared to meet all comers and would not be cut, went a step further last night.

Royall said in a radio program (Mutual's "Meet The Press") that he didn't think a Japanese peace treaty would be signed in the very near future "in view of the Soviet attitude."

Radio Club's Show Gives Timely Tips To Local Farmers

By CALVIN REESE
The Radio Club, a group of agricultural education majors, with Jack Donaldson as chairman, will broadcast a program of tips to farmers, "Today in Agriculture," every Friday afternoon over WTAW from 4:30 to 4:45.

"Today in Agriculture" is presented with the idea of reaching as many farmers in this area as possible. These tips and hints are of value to all who are interested in agriculture, and especially of great value to those who wish to take advantage of new ideas," said Donaldson.

"Material for this program is taken from experimental data, Extension Service and Soil Conservation Service publications, and also from many different departments of the college. This information is presented in a manner that all listeners may understand it clearly," Donaldson said.

Jefferson-Jackson Day Dinner Planned by Democratic Party

HOUSTON, March 1—(P)—Texas democrats plan to eat their $25 meals in harmony at the three Jefferson-Jackson Day dinners planned for the state.

One dinner will be held in Austin, another in Corpus Christi and a third in Lubbock.

State leaders met here yesterday with Wright Morrow, national democratic committeeman from Texas.

"We're going to ask for the support of democrats of all kinds so the party can be rebuilt," Morrow said.

Mayor Tom Miller of Austin said, "there is room in the party for all democrats." He is chairman of the dinner to be held in Austin March 24.

Warren B. Phillips, chairman of the March 31 Corpus Christi dinner, echoed these sentiments.

John C. Calhoun, Corsicana, chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, said his committee is supporting all three dinners.

Joe B. Davis, president of the Central Trades Council of Corpus Christi and a member of Phillips committee, invited union men to the Corpus Christi dinner.

National House Speaker Sam Rayburn will address the Austin gathering. Speakers for the other two dinners have not been named.

Proceeds from the dinners will go to the National Democratic Executive Committee.
