

Marital Mixup Dissolved In "That Wonderful Urge"

By ANDY DAVIS

That Wonderful Urge (20th Century Fox) starring Tyrone Power, and Gene Tierney. (Campus)

Two people impersonating as man and wife may lead to serious consequences, but on the other hand, it has its points.

Vacationing in Sun Valley, Sara Farley, Gene Tierney, meets a young newspaperman, Tyrone Power. Unknown to her this certain, Thomas Tyler has been "lambasting" her in a series of articles for quite some time.

To get even with him, Sara tells the world that she and Tom Tyler are married, and also that a million dollars has been put at his disposal. No one will believe Tom is not married to Sara, so he decides to play it his wife's way.

Tom invades Sara's home, and even her bedroom, but being the smart little girl that she is, Sara decides to call it quits.

After Sara starts a riot in a cafe, the two are thrown in jail for disturbing the peace, and a quiet evening is spent by the three, Tom, Sara, and some Flea.

Before Sara can make her statement to the press, Tom's newspaper brings suit against her for a million dollars.

Another riot almost takes place at the trial, and the Judge throws the case out of court, convincing the two of one thing. Tom invades Sara's bedroom again, only this time he comes out winner. (They plan to marry.) Tom and Sara provide plenty of laughs, some interesting scenery, and a situation that could only happen in the movies.

Aggies to Attend Wildlife Meeting

Several members of the Wildlife Management Department and a group of wildlife students will attend the 14th North American Wildlife Conference in Washington, D. C., March 7-9.

Dr. W. B. Davis, head of the Wildlife Management Department, Dr. G. A. Petrides, head of the Cooperative Wildlife Unit, and R. E. Callender, wildlife specialist for the Extension Service, will attend the conference.

Students who will attend the conference are J. R. Fielding, B. F. Conger, D. L. Taylor, L. H. Blankenship, H. W. Sundberg, and B. D. Oliver.

Dr. Petrides will read a paper entitled "Viewpoints on the Analysis of Open Season Sex and Age Ratio" at the conference. He and Dr. Davis will also attend a conference of the 15 Cooperative Wildlife Units March 3-5.

PROHIBITING THE OPERATION OF ANY DEVICE, MACHINE, APPARATUS OR INSTRUMENT TO INTENSIFY OR AMPLIFY OR REPRODUCE THE HUMAN VOICE OR ANY OTHER SOUND ON ANY PUBLIC STREET OR IN ANY BUILDING WHEREBY THE SOUND THEREFROM IS CAST DIRECTLY UPON THE PUBLIC STREETS IN THE CITY OF COLLEGE STATION TO PRESERVE THE QUIET AND GOOD ORDER OF THE CITY AND TO PREVENT THE DISTURBANCE OF PERSONS OWNING, USING, OR OCCUPYING PROPERTY ADJACENT TO THE PUBLIC STREETS; PROVIDING A PENALTY FOR THE VIOLATION THEREOF. BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS: Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person to use or operate, or cause to be used or operated, any mechanical or electrical device, machine, apparatus or instrument to intensify or to amplify or to reproduce the human voice, or any other sound, on any public street within the corporate limits of the City of College Station. Section 2. That it shall be unlawful for any person to use or operate, or cause to be used or operated, any mechanical or electrical device, machine, apparatus or instrument to intensify or to amplify or to reproduce the human voice, or to produce, reproduce, intensify or amplify any other sound, in any building or on any premises in the City of College Station, whereby the sound therefrom is cast directly upon the public streets or places where such device is maintained and operated for advertising purposes or for the purpose of attracting the attention of the passing public, or which is so placed or operated that the sounds coming therefrom can be heard to the annoyance or inconvenience of travellers upon any street or public place, or of persons in neighboring premises. Section 3. The purpose of this ordinance is to prevent any noise in, on or near any public street which is reasonably calculated to disturb the peace and good order of the neighborhood or of persons owning, using or occupying property adjacent to such public streets. Section 4. That every person convicted of the violation of this ordinance shall be punished by a fine of not more than $100.00. Section 5. Each day on which such violation of this ordinance occurs shall constitute a separate offense, punishable as herein prescribed. Section 6. Since the peace and good order within the city is now disturbed by the amplification of sound from equipment on trucks operating on city streets, and since no measures are available to stop such disturbance, an emergency exists and is hereby declared to exist, and the rule requiring that ordinances be read at three successive meetings is hereby suspended, and this ordinance shall be in full force and effect beginning March 1, 1949. Passed, approved and ordered published on this the 18th day of February A. D. 1949. ERNEST LANGFORD Mayor ATTEST: N. M. McGINNIS City Secretary.
