TU and NTAC Rifle Teams Will Meet Saturday

Rifle teams from Texas University and North Texas Agricultural College will be on the campus this weekend to fire matches with A&M's team, Philo Duval, team member, said today.

The matches are scheduled for Saturday morning and will be the first shoulder to shoulder matches fired on the campus this year. All matches up to now have been fired by mail, Duval said.

Competing for A&M will be Clyde Buchanan, Philo Duval, George Kent, James McCulley, Herbert Shelby, and Clifford Taylor.

Competition will be keen because NTAC has a very good team, but we expect to make a good showing, M/Sgt. W. R. Reese, head rifle team coach, said.

East Texas Club To Hold Elections
