Future Aggies And Tessies Will Shine In Baby Contest

Proud mothers and fathers are invited to get out the best pictures of junior and little sis in preparation for a new event on the A&M Campus—the woman's page baby contest!

Anyone connected with the College may present an entry—student, employee, or professor. The contest will begin with the next issue of the woman's page, Tuesday, March 14, and the deadline for sending in pictures will be announced later.

Many prizes will be given, and they will be listed during the course of the contest. Judges will be named at the close of the contest.

The rules of the contest are simple. Just send a glossy print of your baby's picture. A head view will make the best showing. Kodak pictures are acceptable, but will not make as good an appearance in the paper as a regular photograph. Age limit for the contest is 2½ years.

All pictures which conform with the rules will be published each week as they are received. At the end of the contest, they will be submitted to the judging committee for the awarding of prizes. Decision of the judges will be final.

Send in your baby's picture today so that he will be eligible for a number of prizes suitable for his age and sex.

Mail it to The Battalion, Woman's Page, Goodwin Hall, A&M Campus.
