Question Gives Linguist Trouble

A local modern language professor tried out one of his students' ability to understand spoken Spanish by asking him a question in Spanish.
 "When do you and your girl take a bath?" he queried in finest Castilian.
 The student blushed.
 The professor asked the question again.
 Finally, in English and with a slightly indignant air, the student replied, "My girl and I don't bathe together, sir."

HOTARD'S CAFETERIA SCORES AGAIN!

We quote below a letter we just received from the publishers of "GOURMET'S GUIDE TO GOOD EATING":

Gentlemen:
 A little over two years ago, Gourmet Magazine introduced its first GUIDE TO GOOD EATING. Today it is recognized as the most reliable guide to good restaurants in this country; as you know, it represents the combined opinions of the Gourmet subscribers as to what are the best restaurants and hotels serving the best available food.

Your restaurant has been suggested for the 1949 edition of the GUIDE. We would, therefore, appreciate receiving from you, information as to the meals served and the hours when they are served, and a typical menu showing current prices.

It is quite important that we have this information by March 10th 1949 so that we may bring out the newly revised edition of the guide in the spring of 1949. In addition to these vital statistics, if you have any comments or suggestions that will help us publish the best guide to the best eating places, let us have them.

An itemized blank for your convenience in answering our questions is on the reverse of this letter. Fill it out, and send it right away to make sure there won't be a single bum steer in the GOURMET'S GUIDE.

Sincerely yours,
 E. R. Macausland, Publisher
 GOURMET'S GUIDE TO GOOD EATING

We consider it a signal honor to be listed in GOURMET'S GUIDE, and we take this means of expressing our appreciation of the confidence of those who sent our name in to GOURMET, and our assurance that we will continue to strive to merit this honor. Those of you who are familiar with GOURMET MAGAZINE will recognize this honor, and perhaps forgive us for a little bragging. Thanks a million folks, and remember . . .
