Flight 9, With 340 Points, Holds Narrow 'Mural Lead

By CHARLES SEBESTA

Flight 9 is still holding the lead in the four-team fight for the Annex intramural championship with a total of 340 points. Flight 12 is not on the heels of Flight 9 with a total of 335 points. Companies 2 and 3 are still in the race with 312.5 points and 300 points, respectively. The Veterans head a lagging field which is out of the race.

THE STANDINGS

1. Flight 9—340 points

2. Flight 12—335 points

Company 3 was the winner over the veterans, 15-4, 13-15, 15-7.

Flight 11 won the matches in two sets, 15-5 and 15-0 over Company 8. Company 7 defeated the Veterans, 15-2, 15-3, while also defeating Company 5, 15-9, 12-15, and 15-12. Company 4 blanked Company 2, 15-11 and 15-8.

Company 2, however, broke into

THE STANDINGS
Flight 9—340 points
Flight 12—335 points
Company 2—312.5 points
Company 3—300 points
Veterans—255 points
Company 5—210 points
Company 4—200 points
Company 1—190 points
Company 8—175 points
Company 6—150 points
Company 6—150 points
Flight 10—102.5 points
Flight 11—100 points
yolleyball competition. Company

Company 2, 15-11 and 15-8.

Company 2, however, broke into the win column with a three-game win over Company 6. Scores for this match were 15-10, 4-15, and 15-8. Company 4 turned back the stubborn Company 3 team, 15-9 and 15-13. Flight 12 gigged the championship hopes of Flight 9, intramural leader, by defeating them 15-9 and 15-2. Flight 11 took the measure of Flight 10, 15-3 and 15-9. Company 4 beat Company

P. D. TERRY and CECIL LEATHERWOOD, Annex freshmen, are shown smiling happily with the dates at the Freshman Ball.

Colonel H. L. Boatner, PMS&T and commandant, is between the two couples.

Company Removes

Money Scarce? Try Placement

Coke Machines In

Office for Summer Employmen volleyball competition, Com-7 and Flight 11 are training league-leading Company 4 sex-

Around the Annex

Night Life At Annex Shows Cold Water, Eavesdroppers

But what good is it? There's no light, so you can't see, because someone has borrowed the last light bulb which puts everything in the dark. Immediately you think of a bath by candlelight, but how far would a flame get under a running shower?

Darling of SMU

DALLAS —(P)— The Arkan player came to the scorer's ben There were two sports written and a woman sitting there. The propring shower? running shower?

You could go to the next show-er, but it is on down the road a er, but it is on down the road a piece, and inconvenience, as we all know, is bliss. And what is more blissful than, ice water when it first hits you, standing under the shower? The hotwater tank has gone out and you'll have to bathe in the arctic fashion tonight.

After refreshing beneath the soft, clear water, you return to your cozy quarters and there upyour cozy quarters and there upon find a message telling you of a long distance phone call home.
You dress hurriedly, and start for the Student Center. Opening the door, you hear a loud voice—so loud that it's almost a shout. You recognize that it is only a conversation between two lovers, miles apart. You didn't come to hear their sweet nothings, but the cooing has ventured from the doorless booth and found its way to every ear in the room. This, gentlemen, is a shame—nearly a crime. But it's almost a has-to-be, if she is to hear him on the other end of the line.

Knowing that you're next, you

end of the line.

Knowing that you're next, you impatiently strive for a lack of words, for everyone will bear what you, too, say, and will laugh accordingly. No one can help but say sweet things, and every person has his own way of putting them.—Even with a door, the booth offers little resistance to traveling bound. And no wonder, with its plywood walls in a silent room filled with nothing but responding ear.

But you hang the rice wer back on the hook, satisfied with the words that have come to you in so short a time, and start for the door. Then come the looks that make the tallest of men seem so short—those looks of overheard conversation.

Final Box Rent Payment Due

Box rent for the Annex post office may now be paid for the period beginning April 1, announced T. A. Cloud, postmaster at the Annex office, this

The amount of this payment, which is the last of the year, will be $1.00.

DALLAS —(P)— The Arkansas player came to the scorer's bench. There were two sports writers and a woman sitting there. The player gave his name to one of the men and started into the basketball game.

"Hey," the woman called. "Over

Pained at a female's intrusion into masculine business, the hus-ky athlete inquired indignantly of the sports writer: "Do I have to tell HER?"

The woman instantly fixed fiery eyes on the player and archly informed him of a fact he will never forget.

"Listen, Junior," she said in oversweet tones, "I'll have you know I'm official scorekeeper."

The young man gulped "Yes'm" and hurried off to help Arkansas wallop Southern Methodist.

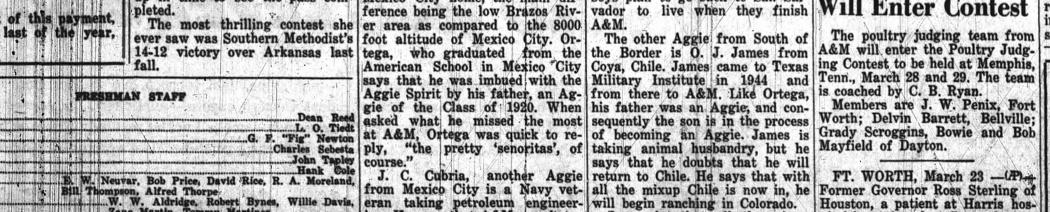

The lady in the case, Miss Aline Hamlett, is constantly running into such things. For several years now she has been official scorer at all Southern Methodist basketball games. She is the only woman filling that position in the Southwest and perhaps in the nation.

When Notre Dame played Southern Methodist recently the eyebrows of several Fighting Irish players and officials were raised when they spotted Miss Hamlett, pencil in hand. But when the game was over they had high praise for her efficiency. her efficiency.

Aline has seniority in the Sou-thern Methodist athletic department. She has been there longer than even Football Coach Matty Bell, who is athletic director. She joined the department in 1932. The only member outranking her is Pop Morgan, the stadium super-

Aline is the favorite of the athletes and her apartment across from the campus is visited frequently by the players and their dates. Aline feeds them hot chocolate, crackers and cheese while the youngsters are playing rummy, listening to records or trying to fathom jigsaw puzzles.

Her biggest disappointment came in 1935 when Southern Methodist beat Texas Christian 20-14 and went to the Rose Bowl. She didn't see the touchdown pass to Bobby Wilson that won the game. Just before Bobby caught the ball Aline's knees buckled from sheer excitement. She couldn't gat back up in time to see the pass com-pleted. excitement. She couldn't get back

The Freshman Page, newspaper of the Texas A. & M. Anner freshmen, is published such Thursday as an inside page of the BATTALION, and is sponsored by Sast Southwell, faculty advisor.

News contributions may be made at the Freshman BATTALION office in the Student Center at the Anner.

P. D. TERRY and CECIL LEATHERWOOD, Annex freshmen, are shown smiling happily with their

Office for Summer Employment Air Force Area

All Coca-Cola vending machines in the Third Squadron area were removed last week, said Luke Harrison, dean of men at the Annex This action followed the willful damaging of one of the machines, to the extent of $145.50, said Har-

"It is regrettable that all the men in that area have to suffer," he said, "for the faults of a few inconsiderate men." "If such an incident occurs again, the Coca-Cola Company will remove all machines from all barracks areas," he add-

NEW COMMANDING OFFI-

CER of the Freshman Regiment

at the Annex is ROY S. Le-

TOURNEAU, engineering stu-

WTAW Schedules

Classics Program

Earl Wild, classical planist and

ing to Mrs. Betty Jo Edwardson,

The concert will be heard from 7 to 8:30 a. m. on the regular

Sunday morning program from the American Broadcasting Company,

By BOB PRICE

'South of the Border' Well

Represented in Annex Class to Aggieland.

'Coffee Concerts."

four movements.

program director for the station.

dent from Longview.

end of the semester draws nearer and nearer, some of the more industrious freshmen at the Annex are beginning to think of summer employment. For what reason? Why, to stack up sufficient funds to return to A&M next fall, of course. Those Annexites on the+ lookout for these jobs might find to the Placement Office, Room it a profitable venture to read the 230, of the Administration Buildbulletin board in the Administration Building, just outside Dr. J. Horsley, who is in charge of the

Now that the sun is shining longer each day and the

Each night with the sounding of "Tattoo", silence is interrupted (?) by a fifteen minute intermission—the one between the books and the bed. You immediately take towel and washrag in hand and proceed to the little building behind the barracks for the weekly bath.

Part of the money realized the coke vending machines goes into the Freshman Class fund, said Harrison. It is estimated that the profit made this year will be considerably less than last year's, because of such incidents as the one in the Air Corps, and because of the large number of bottles that from a number of concerns who terests. Upon observance, you find that there is an absence of light, which necessitates groping and feeling a way along the walls until you find the spot you're looking for.

Cause of such incidents as the one in the Air Corps, and because of the large number of bottles that are being broken, said the Annex dean.

Cause of such incidents as the one in the Air Corps, and because of the large number of bottles that are being broken, said the Annex dean.

office, will have each student fill Placed here are notifications out a card, on which he will give the usual information, plus his in-

"It is the desire of those in the Placement Office," said Mr. Horsley, "to learn enough about each applicant so as to be able to give him the job for which he is best suited and which will interest him most. The student will find that the experience gained will make it easier to obtain desirable professional employment on graduation."

James Farmer, Fish Cadet On Winning Debate Team

By V. Z. MARTIN

nex when he and senior Larry Goodwyn defeated the United States Military Academy debating team. This uniformed "Bryant" is James R. Farmer, of College Sta-

The two Aggies met the West Point cadets in debate Saturday at the main campus at 11 a,m, Coached by H. E. Hierth, English professor at the Annex, they defended the negative side of the subject, "Resolved: that the Federal government should adopt a policy of equalizing educational opportunities in tax-supported schools by means of Annual

Farmer and Goodwyn were selected to represent A&M at the debate by a tryout held among memconductor-composer, will perform Paul Creston's Six Preludes Sunbers of the Aggie debating club. day morning over WTAW, accord-

A member of the freshman band, Farmer has been literally hiding behind a trumpet for a semester, and few of his band mates knew of his debating abilities. A business major, he was recently appointed as one of the two band drum majors.

In addition to Creston's "Six Preludes" Mrs. Edwardson announ-Starting his speaking work as a ced, Wild will play Clementi's sophomore at Adamson High "Sonata," Opus 40, Number 3, in School of Dallas, Farmer was pres-Ment of the high school debating club and a member of the National Honor Society. His debating team A local freshman brought a bit won the Texas Interscholastic academic recognition to the An- League championship in both 1947 and 1948.

On "Boys' State Day" in 1947, Farmer served as adjutant-general of the state of Texas, where he was assigned to inspect Camp Mabry National Guard Post at

Although his family and his stepfather, R. M. Wingren, who is Little Southwest Livestock Show To eligibility in a letter, revealed to-day be TCU Athletic Director Howard Grubbs, in reply to a TCU re-Be Held May 6-7

the Saddle and Sirloin Club.

The professors' pig roping contest, an annual event, will be held Stewart ruled that these two half both nights. Professors in the Ani- seasons constituted Schmidt's "Home was never like this," ex-claim a few Fish at the A&M an-dor came to A&M via the personal freshmen and sophomores of the nex. They don't mean the school, touch. G. A. and M. A. Sol from will judge swine, horses, cat however, they mean the United El Salvador, San Salvador in Central America met Dean E. J. Kyle Quarterhorse breeders from some of our good neighbors from in Guatemala. They were all on a parts of the state have been in-the South who are now staunch deer hunting trip with Dean Kyle vited to take part in the cutting undefeated freshman team.

Aggies. A. M. Leon-Ortega, business major, admits the A&M annex is a good bit different from his native Mexico City home, the main difference being the low Brazos Riv-eran taking petroleum engineering. He says that A&M wasn't too much of a change for him because he lived in McAllen, Texas, for some time. Cubria says that a friend talked him into coming to A&M. He readily adds that he has Showing Great Promise . . .

Postmaster At Annex. 79. Says 'I'll Never Get Old'

Outbreak Of Measles Here
Not Alarming

The recent outbreak of measles at the Annex is nothing to be alarmed over, said officials of the college's medical department Tuesday afternoon. The number of cases here are only a part of a state-wide epidemic.

Living as close together as the students at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex in the Students at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Students at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Students at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Students at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Bryan Post-office.

Born in a ruffil area near in the Bryan post-office and serve of the students at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Students at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. H. Arenburg, nurse at the Annex do, said Mrs. D. M. Cloud and Mrs. D. M. Cloud Scient Science and Mrs. D. M. Cloud Scient Science and Mrs. D. M. Cloud Scient Science and Mrs. D. Cloud Science and J. M. Cloud Science and J. M. Cloud Science and J. M. C

Biology Club Will

Most of the jobs call for engi- that this will be the final night for Dr. Warwick, who is leader of Students interested in working for any of these companies or others that will be listed soon may receive applications and take them club treasurer, Thompson said.

TCU Cager Due To Be First Five Year Letterman

FORT WORTH, (Spl) — Gene Schmidt, veteran guard and cap-tain of the TCU 1949 basketball team, will become the first fiveyear varsity letterman in Southwest Conference history a year

In a ruling handed down by the Conference's executive secretary, James H. Stewart, Schmidt has been declared eligible to play for a mechanical engineering instructhe Frogs again next season. Altor, live on the campus, Farmer ready a four-year letterman, Schlives at the Annex in Barracks midt becomes eligible for next year under a conference ruling covering athletes whose participation was interrupted by military service.

Stewart announced Schmidt's quest for a ruling.

Prior to the last two seasons—1948-49 and 1947-48—Schmidt had played for TCU less than two half Pig roping, calf roping, and a seasons, previous to his entry into reining and cutting contest will military service and following his highlight the annual Little South- return to civilian status, respecwestern Livestock Show to be held tively. He played during the early here May 6 and 7, announced Don part of the 1944-45 season, until McInturff, general superintendent he withdrew from school to join the Army on Jan. 19, 1945. Fol-The show, planned for A&M lowing his discharge, he registered Open House Day, is sponsored by TCU on Jan. 27, 1947, for the second semester and played the man Husbandry Department will take part in the event, McInturff said.

Animal husbandry majors will take part in a calf roping contest Saturday, said McInturff.

Saturday, said McInturff.

Seasons constituted Schmidt's c One hundred and twenty-five all-state at Bosse High School, conference second team. He was Animal Husbandry Department this team won the Indiana state will judge swine, horses, cattle, and sheep in a contest, May 7.

Quarterhorse breeders from all lettermen instead of three, plus parts of the state have been in- the members of the past season's > Max Zaslofsky of the Chicago stags set a new Basketball Association of America foul-shooting record recently when he dropped in 35 straight free throws over a six-game span.

• RECORDS • RADIOS School & Office Supplies ALL YOUR NEEDS

The U.S. Bureau of Animal Industry has assigned Marian W. Biology Club Will Meet Here Tonight

The Annex Biology Club will meet tonight, announced Bill Thompson, vice president of the club. The meeting will be held in the Biology Lecture Room and will begin at 6:15 p.m.

dustry has assigned Marian W. Hazen, long time research animal husbandman, to work with Dr. Bruce L. Warwick and Superintendent Henry O. Miller at the Bluebonnet Farm near McGregor, Dr. J. C. Miller, head of the Animal Husbandry Department, announced today.

Two projects underway at Bluebonnet Farm are parts of the Felieral Research and Marketing Act program on the improvement of begin at 6:15 p.m.

Featuring the program of the meeting will be a movie to be shown by T. M. Ferguson, club ment through tested sires. The shown by T. M. Ferguson, club sponsor and biology instructor at the Annex. The title is not yet known, but will be announced at the classroom meetings during the week, Ferguson said.

All members, or prospective members, are urged to attend. Thompson said, and are reminded that this will be the final night for Dr. Warwick, who is leader of the properties of the street of the schedule of movies to be shown at the Annex's Rivoli the shown at the Annex's Rivoli the shown at the Annex's Rivoli the street has been completed. Bruct Ingram, student manager, said The schedule of movies to be shown at the Annex's Rivoli the attribute the shown at the Annex's Rivoli the attribute the street has been completed. Bruct Ingram, student manager, said The schedule of movies to be shown at the Annex's Rivoli the attribute the street has been completed. Bruct Ingram, student manager, said The schedule of movies to be shown at the Annex's Rivoli the attribute the street has been completed. Bruct Ingram, student manager, said The schedule of movies to be shown at the Annex's Rivoli the attribute the street has been completed. Bruct Ingram, student manager, said The schedule of movies to be shown at the Annex's Rivoli the attribute the street has been completed. Bruct has been in the beef cattle research as been in the beef cattle research. Bruct has been in the beef cattle research as been in the beef cattle research as been in the beef cattle research. Bruct has been completed, Bruct has been completed, Bruct has been completed. Bruct has been completed has been completed. Bruct has been completed has been completed. Bruct has been complet

If you haven't taken time to drop a few friendly words of conversation to this aged postman, you have missed a great chance to receive a little more pleasure in life. Once you talk to him, you'll never forget it; at least, I won't.

Although seventy-nine, Mr. Cloud claims that "I'll never grow old." Ingram Announces the Pink Herse. Admission price to the theater is twenty-five cents.

Young man with good connections

IN a Bell telephone central office, this Western . Electric installer is connecting thousands of wires to new equipment to provide more and better service

He's one of 18,000 trained Western Electric installers who do this job for Bell Telephone companies. Crews are working in some 1,600 central offices to connect new equipment which, like your telephone, is made by Western Electric.

• Western Electric is part of the Bell System-has been since 1882. This assures closest cooperation between people who design telephone equipment, people who make it and people who operate it. Their teamwork has given this country the best telephone service on earth.

