

Aggies Edged 7 to 6 By Ohio In Second Tilt As Rallies Fail

Tyler JC Beats Hutchinson To Take Title

HUTCHINSON, Kas., March 28 (AP)—Tyler, Texas, won the national junior college basketball championship Saturday by squeaking past Hutchinson 68 to 64 in the tournament finals.

Third place went to Compton, Calif., in a 61-47 triumph over Grant Tech, Calif.

Olympic Junior College, Bremerton, Wash., took fourth place by defeating Dodge City, Kas., 61 to 53.

The hard fought battle for first place saw the score tied six times, but Hutchinson never was able to move into the lead. Tyler led at half-time 34 to 29.

The tournament victory completes Tyler's season of play, giving the Texas team a record of 27 won and only one game lost. The Texans did not lose a game in regular junior college competition during the season.

After trying the new starting gate designed to prevent tracksters from taking false starts, sprinters in the East have expressed dissatisfaction in the device. According to the trackmen, it slowed their starts excessively.

Steer Bowlers Hand Aggies 15-3 Defeat

By ART HOWARD

Texas University's Bowling team turned on a barrage of pins in Austin yesterday to defeat the Aggies, 15-3 in a dual meet. All of the Cadet straight-ball throwers came away convinced of the superiority of the hook ball, for the Texans gave a thorough three-hour short course in its effectiveness.

The Aggie second team especially got an unpleasant taste of Longhorn tea. They thought it was luck when the hosts' second team averaged 178 in their first line, but when they averaged 187 and 182 in their next two games, the Aggies were convinced that they should have stayed at home.

Out of the nine team, doubles and singles matches, A&M took only two. And it took the third team to do it. Of the 24 lines bowled by each team, Texas had 16 scores above 500, while A&M had only seven.

Bill Andrews of TU took individual honors with a 610 total.

Hubert Goes Route On Mound; Rain Cancels Third Game

By BILL POTTS

Rallies in the sixth and seventh innings failed to push across enough runs for the Aggies Friday afternoon on Kyle Field as they were edged seven to six by the Ohio State Buckeyes. This was the second of a three game series. The third, scheduled for Saturday afternoon, was cancelled because of wet grounds.

Pat Hubert, sophomore right-hander from Bannock, went all the way for the Aggies on the mound. He gave up 11 hits to the Buckeyes, walked five, and struck out five.

Richard Hauck, southpaw pitcher from Cincinnati, stayed on the mound seven innings for the Buckeyes before he was relieved by another southpaw, Richard Hess. During that time, he gave up five runs off six hits, walked four, and struck out two. His relief, Hess, gave up one run off one hit, walked two, and struck out three.

Hauck had the Aggie batters going his way until the fourth inning when they began to wear him out. Rusty Mayes, third sacker, got the first Aggie hit with one straight through the box. Hauck, wary of Cotton Lindloff's power, walked him with four straight, then fanned Guy Wallace, shortstop, with a called third strike. Lanky John DeWitt then stepped up and surprised the stands with a single into left field, scoring Mayes for the Aggies first run.

Wally Moon flied out. Bob Fretz was walked, and Bill Warriner struck out to finish the inning.

After going scoreless again in the fifth, the Aggies came back in the sixth and had their biggest inning.

Wallace was walked on a 3-1 count and DeWitt ended up on second on an error by second sacker Carlton Parrill. Wallace was forced out on the play. After advancing to third, DeWitt scored when catcher Norbert Ranz let a pitch get by him.

Moon was walked by Hauck and then Bob Fretz lined one out to the center field fence for a double; Moon went to third. Warriner flied out to right field, then catcher Bob Graham singled to right field, scoring both Moon and Fretz. On the play, Graham was put out trying to center field after the throw in to the plate.

John DeWitt nearly evened the score in the seventh with a hit off the new pitcher, Hess. With Hauck still pitching, Hubert flied out to second, and Mayes placed one between third and short for a base hit. When that happened, the usual conference was held on the mound and Hauck was replaced. Hess walked the next two batters, Lindloff and Wallace. DeWitt then hit Hess' first pitch deep into center field for a double, scoring Lindloff and Wallace. If the ball had been a few feet higher, it would have gone over the fence.

That was all for the Cadets;

Open Tennis Set For This Week

Intramural action slowed down Thursday as Boxing left the picture and other sports have yet to become prominent.

Two Vet Softball games were played Thursday afternoon. Law Hall took an 8-4 contest from Trailer Camp-Vet Village. Steve Lindsey pitched the win for Law. Tony Sorenson was charged with the loss.

Puryear broke into the win column and trounced Leggett by an 8-0 score. Joe McLeod took credit for the shutout win. Puryear got all their runs off of Bill Phagens.

In the Club League, The Vet Med team held a track meet with Range and Forestry and won by a 15-2 margin.

Entries for Open Tennis were due Thursday. The Tennis action will start this week and schedules will be mailed to athletic officers in the next two days. The Intramural Swimming meet is still in the planning stage.

Aggies To Meet LIU In "Garden" Next December

The Athletic Department has announced that a basketball game with Long Island University has been scheduled for the Aggies in Madison Square Garden next December 1.

The Aggie's trip east will be earlier this year because of the earlier starting date of basketball practice made possible by the South west Conference committee ruling last fall.

As far as is known, this will be the first time that A&M basketball team has ever appeared in Madison Square Garden.

The Long Island U. Blackbirds are usually one of the powers in American basketball every year.

AP Training Camp Briefs

VERO BEACH, Fla., March 26 (AP)—Brooklyn Dodger Manager Burt Shotton has named 19 of the 27 players he plans to take on the club's forthcoming trip through Texas, Georgia and Oklahoma.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Joe Dimaggio, injured New York Yankee outfielder, is filling up quite a mark as a pinch hitter. Dimaggio singled in a pinch hit role to start a three run seventh inning rally against the Philadelphia Phillies in the Yankee's 6-0 triumph.

CLEARWATER, Fla.—The Philadelphia Phillies, their bats stilled by the New York Yankees, planned an extra batting drill today before tangling with the St. Louis Cardinals. The Phillis collected only two hits against the Yanks and bowed 6-0.

HOLLYWOOD.—Manager Billy Meyer of the Pittsburgh Pirates is busy denying reports the club is planning to trade Shortstop Stan Roket.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—St. Louis Cardinal pitchers have run up a string of 18 scoreless innings against the Detroit Tigers. Youngsters Gerry Stoney, Bill Reeder and Cloyd Boyer limited the Tigers to four hits yesterday in a 4-0 shutout.

BURBANK, Cal.—The good work of Rookie Ken Wood and Roy Sievers continues to be a bright spot in the St. Louis Browns exhibition play. Each hit a homer yesterday, although the Browns were beaten 12-7 by the Chicago Cubs at Los Angeles.
