ponent training institutions. A&M being the country's outstanding producer of army reserve officers and Texas having turned out many navy reserve officers makes these two schools outstanding rivals for the new academy.

Confirmation of the scheduling of the Aggies for the 1951 season has not yet been made by Athletic Director Bill Carmichael, but it is expected momentarily. Carmichael is absent from the campus at present as he is touring the West Texas area speaking at high school football banquets. Assistant Athletic Director "Doc" Dawson volunteered the suggestion that reserve trainees could help the plants off of those Air Force career men now or two years from now (1951).

Aggie Tennis Team To Meet SMU, Here

A&M's varsity tennis team meets SMU's tennis team in the conference opener for the Aggies, here, Saturday at one o'clock.

The Aggie tennis team will consist of Rodney Sellers, James Wallis, Allan Aaronson, and Price Metcalfe. Sellers and Wallis will form the number one doubles team while Aaronson and Metcalfe comprise the other doubles team.

Playing for the Mustangs will be George Martin, Raymond Rude, James Owen, and Herbie Karren. Karren was runner-up to Dixie Osburn in the 1947 state finals and should prove to be one of the best players in the meeting between the two schools.

In the Aggies last meeting with the Ponies A&M came through with a win of four matches to two.

AGGIE FISH

The Aggie defensive game immensely,

Charlie Operstony, Fish third baseman, started off the last of the fifth inning when he grabbed a walk of pitcher Walt Deakin. Less Lackey then sacrificed and Mills walked to put runners on first and third. Ogletree then scored Operstony on a Rice infield error. Farmer then hit into a double play to retire the side.

Owl shortstop, Doyle Beard, ex-Lamar High (Houston) product, seemed badly confused on his field play. The young star, who is playing with a plate in his right heel from an old baseball injury, muffed the easy ones but turned two good hits into outs.

The Fish will next play in Waco this Saturday when they meet a strong squad from Baylor. The Bear Freshmen are reported to have a tough team and should be real competition for the Aggies.
