TL All-Stars Play Tonight

FORT WORTH, Tex., July 11.—Standout individual players in the Texas League band together tomorrow night to try and whip the Class AA circuit's top team—Fort Worth.

A capacity crowd of 8,147 is expected to jam La. Grave Field for the ninth all-star game.

Al Vincent, manager of the Tulsa Oilers, is managing the all-stars for the second straight year and has announced he'll start San Antonio's Tommy Fine on the mound.

Fort Worth manager Bobby Bragan has a number of chunkeys to use—in fact he has said he plans to use nine pitchers against the all-stars. But he'll use Eddie Chandler first.

Fort Worth won the right to act as host to the all-star game again this year by topping the standings after games of July 4. The Cats are still there.

Leggett Takes 16-6 Win Over Dorm 14

Leggett Hall made it a short game Friday afternoon as they beat Dorm 14 16-6 in four innings of play.

Leggett jumped on Dorm 14 hurler, Hoot Gibson, early in the game to produce three runs in the first frame; then added one more run in the second and added five more in third. A seven run fourth inning for the boys from Leggett caused the game to be called after four frames because of the ruling of the number of runs ahead.

Eyes was the winning pitcher as he gave up a total of eight hits and six runs in the four innings he hurled. Gibson was the losing hurler, giving up seven hits and 16 runs.

Score by innings: R H E
Leggett 315 7-16 0

JOHNNY'S REVENGE

Cincinnati—(AP)—The two clubs which fell victim to Johnny Vander Meer's two successive no-hit games in 1938 both owned his contract before Cincinnati acquired him.

The Brooklyn Dodgers lost him through a front office oversight when he was just breaking in and the Boston Braves sold his contract to Nashville in 1936.

The U. S. amateur golf championship has twice been won by foreign players—Harold H. Hilton of England in 1911 and C. Ross Somerville of Canada in 1932.

CASTOFF INFIELD

Pittsburgh—(AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates have six infielders who have played with other major league clubs.

Danny Murtaugh has been with the Phillies and Braves. Stan Kojek with the Yankees, Joe Bookman with the Yankees, Les Fleming with the Indians, Ed Stevens with Brooklyn and Bobby Rhawn with the Giants.

Monty Basgall, who plays some second base, once was the property of the Dodgers.

Football Ticket Orders Mounting

Howard Nelson, manager of football ticket sales, said Friday that applications for football tickets for games this fall amounted to 450 for season tickets, 1150 for individual tickets, and approximately 3000 for the annual Turkey Day game.

Midnight, July 23 will mark the end of the acceptance period for all season applications. After that date, a public drawing will be held to determine which of the season ticket buyers get the choice seats, according to Nelson.

The 1150 applications received for individual game tickets were sent in by the faculty, college employees, and former students. Requests for single game tickets will be considered after July 23 on a first come—first served basis, Nelson concluded.

Milner ended the game in the fourth inning when it pounded out 11 hits for seventeen runs.

Dave Martin was the winning pitcher, giving up four hits to the Walton team for one run.

Kontz drew the nod as the loser for Walton, although he was only the first of three pitchers the Walton manager put on the mound to stop the barrage of Milner hits.

Martin proved to be a hitting pitcher also, and set a mark for the season when he hit safely four times out of four at the plate.

The playoff to determine the intramural softball championship will be played as soon as the winner of the College View league has been determined.

Lou's Aggies Win One, Lose One

It was the first game for the college team this summer. The winning pitcher was Crow, a geology student from Texas U., and the losing pitcher was Martin of Milner Hall.
