

Five of America's Olympic Swim Stars Now In Europe

NEW YORK, July 13—(AP)—In meets in France and Sweden this month five of America's most talented swimmers and divers are demonstrating the ability that won them a collective total of eight national indoor titles recently.

Olympic Champions Allen Stack of Yale and Bruce Harlan of Ohio head the group, which includes Robert Gibe of the Detroit A. C., Zoe Ann Olsen of Oakland, Calif., and Barbara Jensen of San Francisco.

Stack won the 100-meter backstroke race at the London Olympics and Harlan was springboard diving champion.

Stack recently won the 150-yard backstroke title in the indoor championships, placed third in the 300-yard individual medley relay crown. Harlan won both the one and three-meter dives.

Gibe was nosed out in the 100-yard freestyle but captured the 220-yard freestyle race.

Barbara Jensen exhibited amazing versatility at the women's indoor championships when she won the 200-yard backstroke and the 300-yard medley, took second in the 100-yard backstroke and third in the 200-yard freestyle. Diving star Zoe Ann Olsen captured the one and three meter crowns.

The five aces will return on Aug. 1, after meeting the top European swimmers and divers.

Card Scouts To Cover Baseball Try-Out Camp

HOUSTON, July 13—(Spl.)—Del Wilber, Houston Buffs playing-manager, will supervise activities at a two-day baseball try-out camp July 22 and 23 at Buff Stadium here, it has been announced by Allen Russell, President of the Houston club.

Assisting Wilber will be St. Louis Cardinal scouts Fred Hawn and George H. Sisler, Jr. Hawn is a regular Cardinal scout in this area; Sisler is in charge of the entire summer try-out program for the St. Louis club.

Highlighting activities at the camp will be games between teams made up of players in attendance. They will be preceded by drills in running, hitting, fielding and throwing.

All boys 17 to 23 years of age who attend the camp will be given the opportunity to participate in each phase of the camp and prove to themselves and the scouts that they are ready for a chance in professional baseball.

In addition to an appraisal of his playing abilities by a professional scout, those players who work out at Buff Stadium will possibly be able to pick up some valuable playing tips from the men in charge, all of whom have had considerable professional playing experience.

Players interested in the camp are urged to attend. They are asked to bring their own baseball shoes and gloves, and uniforms if they have them.

Any boys signing contracts will be fully reimbursed for all expenses incident to attending the camp.

American League Stars Win From Nationals 11-7 Tuesday

BROOKLYN, July 13—(AP)—Joe DiMaggio carried his startling comeback through the 16th All-Star game Tuesday as the American League pummeled the National, 11-7.

While a sweltering crowd of 32,000 squirmed through three hours and four minutes of sloppy action and two rain showers, Manager Lou Boudreau's Americans boosted their game edge to 12-4 in the National's annual nightmare game. They now have won four in a row, a new high in the competition dating back to 1933.

Big Joe D., picked by Boudreau after he missed the first 65 games of the season with a sore heel, drove in three big runs that proved to be the clincher with a sixth-inning double and first-inning single.

Despite five errors by the Nationals in a poor performance that set an All-Star game record for blots, it was tough and go until Joe DiMaggio's double off the left-centerfield wall drove home two big runs in the sixth.

When Ralph Kiner's two-run homer regained those runs in the last of the sixth the Americans lashed away at Howie Pollet for a three-run spurge in the seventh that put the game beyond reach.

Manager Billy Southworth, who bossed the Nationals to their last All-Star success back in 1944, paraded seven of his eight pitchers to the hill after a leaky infield yielded four unearned runs off Warren Spahn in the first inning.

Only Ralph Branca, Brooklyn's ace, failed to see action among the pitchers.

The American League didn't quite hit its all-time high in run production. That was back in 1946 at Boston when they shut out the Nationals, 12-0. But the two teams, scoring 38 runs did break the old mark. Tops before this was the 9-7 score when the American League won in 1934.

Ft. Worth Cats Win Over TL All-Stars 2-1

FORT WORTH, July 13—(AP)—Tit for tat could be the slogan of the Fort Worth Cats.

Last night they came from behind to defeat the Texas League All-Stars 2-1, and match a feat the Class AA circuit's "dream team" performed in 1948.

Fort Worth didn't wait until the last inning to win the ninth All-Star game. Manager Bobby Bragan wrapped it up in the sixth with a single. The Cats' first run had come in the fifth inning, in charge of the fifth inning, the last All-Stars only tally in the first.

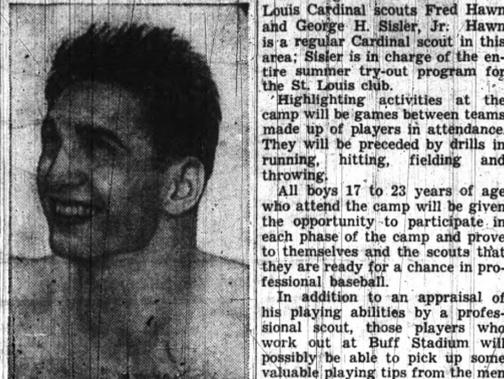

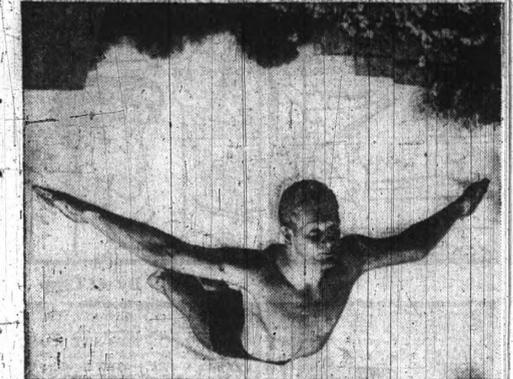

It was a slam-bang game, featured by some hard running on the base path. A crowd of 8,422 packed fire-gutted La Grave Field to see the show.

The All-Star game will be different next time. League directors in a meeting yesterday voted to have a team of stars from the north and south portions of the league meet in the mid-season classic.

Fort Worth won the right to act as host for a second straight year by leading the league after games of July 4. The team on top on this date in the future will merely be host site.

This was one of several steps taken by the directors. Another set the start of the 1950 season April 11 and the close Sept. 10. The start of the 154 game schedule being advanced one day. This was to give an off day following the All-Star game. Tonight, regular play starts again.

It was also decided after Aug. 1 there will be no intra-league games of any kind. Eligibility for the playoffs will be 30 days before the season ends, with only a (See CATS, Page 4)

Water Carnival To Be Held Thursday

The first water carnival to be sponsored by the College Station Recreational Council will be presented in P. L. Downs Natatorium on Thursday, July 14, at 7:30 p.m. The carnival will feature swimmers from all classes except those for low beginners.

Individual competitive events in the carnival will include a 67 yard breaststroke and 67 yard freestyle event for boys 13 and under, and a 67 yard backstroke event for girls 13 years old and under.

Boys 11 and under will swim a 33 yard backstroke race and girls 11 and under will swim a 33 yard freestyle.

Students in the high intermediate class will compete in a length of the pool freestyle relay. The A class of low intermediates will compete in a length of the pool backstroke relay and B class of low intermediates will compete in a width of the pool freestyle relay. The high beginners will compete in a width of the pool freestyle relay.

Another feature of the carnival will be demonstration of the development of various strokes in swimming. This can be called a history of swimming.

Exhibitions will be presented by the synchronized swimming class and by the diving classes. There will also be a comedy diving act.

The first group of classes will be completed this week, and registration for the second six-week period will be on Monday, July 18. Low beginners will register at 9:00; high beginners at 10:00 and all other classes at 11:00.

All entries for the individual events must be turned in by 9 Wednesday night, July 13.

Milner to Play B-Odd for Title

Wednesday afternoon on diamond 6, the Milner Tigers will meet the B-Odd softball team of College View for the championship of the first-half Intramural Softball League.

Milner won the right to the playoff game when they came out on top of the Campus League with seven wins against only two losses. The Tigers defeated Walton Hall last Friday by a score of 17-1 to eliminate the last contender in the Campus League.

B-Odd reached the playoff finals by defeating the D-Even boys of College View Monday afternoon. B-Odd had five wins against no losses for the first round play.

The championship game will be played on diamond 6 starting at 5:45 Wednesday afternoon.

Martin will probably be the starting hurler for Milner, since he has been the main workhorse on the Milner pitching staff all season.

Luke Harrison, director of Intramural Athletics, has requested that all members of the Intramural golf, tennis, volleyball, and ping pong teams should be present at this same time to have their picture taken. Group pictures of all these different teams will be taken before the softball game gets underway.

Tennis Bums On Way Out Says Allison

AUSTIN, Tex.—Take it from Wilmer Allison, the old Davis Cupper, the days of the "tennis bum" are about over.

Allison ought to know. He played the game with the world's best in the time of Tilden and other tennis immortals and has kept a close connection with the sport through the years.

The man who was national champion and was on the Davis Cup team for nine years, now sells airplanes. But he still gets in his hits on the court.

He was referee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association tournament in Austin and observed that while tennis players of today are probably no better than 25 years ago there are many more good players than there were then. The junior program is responsible, Allison says.

The rule that prohibits a player from taking part in more than eight tournaments with expenses paid has cut down materially on the "tennis bums," Allison declares. This doesn't include play abroad.

"In my day, a player could make it a year-round proposition al-

Braves' Baby Battery

BOSTON—Statisticians are thumbing back box scores these days to find a teen-age battery that compares with southpaw pitcher Johnny Antonelli and catcher Del Crandall of the Boston Braves. Both 19-year-olds have looked impressive. Antonelli, the $75,000 bonus kid from Rochester, N.Y., turned in two brilliant wins in June. He blanked the Cubs on June 12 with four hits, 2-0, and seven days later turned back the Reds, 3-2, on eight hits. Crandall, a 175-pound six-foot-one redhead, drove out nine hits in his first seven games to hit .333. Crandall was brought up from Evansville, Ind., in the Three I League where he was leading the class B team in home runs and runs batted in.

Booking Games for 1950-51 Is Problem for Irvin to Solve

Booking a football season opener for 1950 and adding two more games to the eight already carded for 1951 will be two of the problems confronting Barlow (Bones) Irvin, who assumed duties this week as Texas A & M's athletic director.

IRVIN

The 1949 schedule is full. Addition of a Sept. 21 opener will complete the 1950 slate. Oklahoma University, Texas Tech and Virginia Military Institute are on the 1950 schedule. UCLA and Oklahoma University are the only non-conference teams definitely scheduled for 1951.

Irvin has made plans to double as fresh football coach and athletic director. However a new freshman grid mentor may be named before the first-year athletes draw their equipment the middle of September.

Irvin spent much of Monday, his first day on the new job, answering congratulatory telegrams and letters which poured in from all over the state.

A check-up showed that Bill Carmichael, who left the post now occupied by Irvin to become superintendent of schools in Bryan, hired most of the present members of the athletic staff. Irvin and assistant football coaches Dick Todd and J. T. King were hired by Carmichael. So was trainer Blaine Rideout. Harry Stittler was elevated to the head football coaching job after Carmichael was made athletic director.

Under Carmichael's guidance, Texas A&M established direct contact with Aggie alumni clubs all over the state, which is expected to help the school land better high school athletes.

While Carmichael was here, the state junior college basketball tournament and track meet were inaugurated as were plans for lighting Kyle Field.

Carmichael was Texas A&M's first full-time athletic director.

Winners of the summer intramural Ping Pong tournament were determined Monday in DeWare Field House. The winner of the singles was Bob McAdams and the doubles was won by McAdams and O. K. Murphy.

Of the 20 students entering the tournament, only three singles contestants and three doubles partners were left for Monday's semi-finals. In the singles semi-final contest to determine who would play McAdams in the finals were Bob Lowe and Murphy. Lowe won from Murphy in two straight games, 21-10 and 21-15. McAdams then played Lowe, who had previously beaten in the winners bracket elimination, and won in two straight games, 21-18 and 21-16.

In the doubles semi-finals were D. R. McCoy—Bob Lowe and Fred Krause—Tony Larroca. Krause and Larroca won 2 out of 3 from McCoy and Murphy for the finals. McAdams and Murphy won this finals match in a close two out of three, thus copping the championship.

Intramural medals will be awarded the winners in a presentation ceremony Wednesday, 6:30 p.m., at DeWare Field House. At the ceremony pictures will be made of all the contestants.

Those competing in the tournament were: Monroe Neff, Bennie Stanford, R. Sanders, Fred Krause, Bob McAdams, L. Graza, Grady Gilder, A. L. Von Rosenberg, O. K. Murphy, R. D. Jones, J. D. Hoy, E. W. Lowe, D. R. McCoy, Chuck Bogin, C. T. Davis, C. E. Hink, T. Larroca and R. C. Brenner.

though the expense money he got did not meet the actual cost," Allison observes. "That was the reason for the 'tennis bum.' He chiseled on the side—played exhibitions and in unsanctioned tournaments, took money for this and that. He was supplied all the equipment he wanted and would sell it. I remember one instance of a man offering a player $100 if he could sink a six-inch putt on the golf course and told him if he missed 'I'll give you another chance.'"

Not many of the players did such things but there were some who made tennis a profession although classed as amateurs.

"It actually cost me $5,000 to play tennis 12 years," he commented. "But I think it was a good investment. That's pretty cheap to get to go all over the world. I visited 20 countries. In Allison's day the players were allowed a maximum of $8 a day to live on, plus traveling expenses. Now they are allowed $12 a day. Even that, Allison says, will not meet the actual expense but it won't cost nearly as much from a fellow's own pocket as it did when the stars could play as many tournaments as they wanted during a year.

"In other words, the incentive to be a tennis bum has been removed," Allison says. "The United States Lawn Tennis Association doesn't want a player to come out ahead on expenses or equipment. It doesn't want to make the game financially attractive. It wants everybody to play for the love of the game.

Allison recalls the first year he made a tennis tour. He borrowed $300 and played in nine tournaments, winning only one set. When he started home he had a nickel, plus his railroad ticket which he had bought in advance.
