Fall Grid Notes

Villanova, Aggies' First Foe, To Be Tough Again This Year

By BILL HAILE

September 17 isn't too far away, so let's take a look at what the Villanova Wildcats will have to offer when they tangle with the Aggies on Kyle Field under the lights.

They have a new head coach at Villanova who was a three-year letterman under the famed Knute Rockne at Notre Dame. He is James (Big Jim) Leonard.

While playing for Rockne, Leonard lettered in both the line and backfield. Besides this experience, he has played some pro ball with the Philadelphia Eagles in the National League. While with the Eagles, he played fullback, captain and called the signals.

He was one of the boys that gave little Davey O'Brien a lot of good blocking and protection.

As head coach of Villanova, Leonard succeeds Jordan Oliver and plans to continue using the T formation that was in use last year.

Big Jim is no doubt qualified to take over the coaching duties, but what we are interested in is what he will have in the way of a football team.

No doubt but what a lot of people have heard of a fellow by the name of Ralph Pasquariello.

He is that 225 pound fullback that did so much damage to the Aggie forward wall last year in Franklin Field. He stands 6'2" and moves his weight around with terrific speed.

Besides Pasquariello, there will be a few other familiar names on their roster: Joe Rogers, the nation's number one groundainer in 1946, Don Brown, 200 pound end, and John Sandusky, 208 pound tackle who had been called "the fastest big man in football."

Even though Villanova lost seven of its starting eleven, there will be a heavy infusion of soph to help handle the rugged schedule. There will be Pete D'Alonzo to help out in the fullback slot, John Geppi will share the halfback duties with Joe Rogers and a host of other second year men who have speed to spare.

Ralph Pasquariello will be the big gun in Villanova's offense and defense. Last year he proved this

NEW YORK—If your golf game was off over the week-end remember the fellow who shot a 19 on one hole of the chap who took an 18. Both happened in the National Open.

In the 1938 Open at Cherry Hills in Denver, Ray Ainsley required 19 strokes before he got down on the 16th hole during the second round of play. Going farther back, Willie Chisholm took an 18 on the short 17th in the 1919 Open at Brae Burn in West Newton, Mass.

Sammy Snead also looks to the Open when golfers talk about poor holes.

"They always say 'Snead took an 8 at Spring Mill,'" says Siammin' Sammy from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.

It happened in the 1939 Open at the Philadelphia Country Club's Spring Mill course.

"I needed a 5 to win and a 6 to finish in a three-way tie with Byron Nelson, Craig Wood and Denny Shute," says Snead. "I shot an 8 on the par 5 final hole that year and finished fifth."

Snead also had an 8 on the par five 18th hole at Hillcrest during the Los Angeles Open. His tee shot was fine but his second shot hit on the edge of the green and rolled down a slight hill about 40 yards from the pin.

His third shot rolled up the hill and back down. He took three more shots before he got the ball up and over. When he made the little embankment he overshot the green and was lying six. He finally chipped up and holed out for an 8.

Bobby Locke of South Africa, considered the top foreign golfer to play in America in the last decade, recalls a hole he once played like a duffer.

"It was in last year's Tam O'Shanter," says Locke, he of the knickers, white shoes, white cap and rusty 25-year-old wooden-shaft putter. "I needed a 4 to tie Lloyd Mangrum, took a 6 and finished second."

"It was a par 4 hole with a creek running through the fairway. My second shot hit a tree and came back into the water. I picked the ball out and was playing 4, I chipped up and two-putted for a 6."

The poor pros. They expect to play every shot perfectly. When they fail they often get as burned up as the lowly duffer.

Stewart Elected Coaches President

Beaumont, Tex., Aug. 4.—(AP)—Maco Stewart of Longview was elected president of the Texas High School Coaches Association today.

Joe Coleman was named to succeed Stewart as president of the association.

Grady Hester of Corpus Christi was elected vice president.

The meeting was held in connection with the Texas Coaching School.

Milner Wins 12-4 Over Law Hall

Law Hall fell victim to the Milner Tigers Wednesday afternoon 12-4.

Milner hitters collected six hits off the pitching of Nat Uchie and Hank Vornkahl. Five errors made the going easy for Werner Lindig and George Barclay of Milner.

Newt Butts lead the hitters with two for three, both of his hits driving in runs.

The game ended in the bottom of the sixth when Milner scored three runs. The eight run rule was invoked at that time.

North All-Star Cagers Win Over South

BEAUMONT, Aug. 5.—(AP)—Playing the first double bill of the series, the North cage squad, coached by Adolph Rupp, Kentucky's producer of champions, stormed to triumphs of 33-23 and 42-36 yesterday afternoon and last night.

It brought the North's margin in the four-year series to four wins against one defeat.

The South squad, tutored by Henry Ba of Oklahoma A&M, led its foes half-way in each game but couldn't match the basket-shooting of big O'Neal Weaver of Martin's Mill and Derrell Murphy of Shallowater in the stretch run.

Weaver made nine points in the first game and 10 in the second to be leading scorer of the two games but he beat out Freddie Whitlock of Cayuga by one point. Whitlock rammed in 16 points in the night game and earned a tie with Weaver for designation as outstanding player.

The selection was made by sports writers covering the games. Both boys will receive trophies from the Texas Sports Writers Association.

The afternoon game was a dull affair. It was steamy hot inside the gymnasium which seats only 1,000 persons. It was jammed to the ceiling in the afternoon but at night only about 500 fans turned out.

The evening tilt was a good one and was very close until the final period. The North broke a 24-24 tie in the last minute of the third quarter and never was headed after that.

South Squad Favored Tonight In Beaumont All-Star Game

BEAUMONT, Aug. 5.—(AP)—Texas schoolboy football squads clash Friday night in the 15th annual all-star game of the Texas Coaching School with a South aggregation, tutored by Don Faurot, the split T master of Missouri, favored to defeat the North hosts of Carl Snavely of North Carolina, the single-wingback professor.

Both squads wound up training Thursday with Snavely sending his charges through two practice sessions and Faurot holding only an afternoon workout.

The forecast of a South victory was based largely on the fact that the North youngsters, most of them accustomed to the T formation, have had trouble mastering the wingback style in the short practice period—four days. On the other hand, the South boys responded quickly to Faurot's T style.

A scoring game was forecast by the coaches. Faurot said he figured his team would get at least three touchdowns. The attack is geared around Claude Kinnannon, the Waco passer, the running of Powerhouse Tom Stolhandske of Baytown and the fleetness of Marshall's Glenn Dinkie.

The North has the bigger, stronger-running backfield and its Ted Jones of Childress, Mal Fowler of Van, Ray Graves of Stephenville and Wild Waldo Young of Monahans, coupled with big Darrow Hooper, the North side (Fort Worth) line crusher, may give Snavely's crew the advantage in the ground game.

Sport Roundup

Los Angeles, Aug. 4.—(AP)—This corner makes one more final bow to Big Jawa Kimbrough, the Los Angeles Dons' fullback who has decided to hang up the grid gear for a combination of reasons, mainly a bad knee, his wife's poor health and his own financial interests. He owns a 1,900-acre ranch and is a big oil distributor in Haskell County, Texas.

Big Jawa was a whale of a competitor for the local All-American Conference Club. He carried the ball-packing load for the Dons under both T and single-wing conditions. The Dons may be hard-pressed to find a replacement for the former Texas Aggie All-American, even if he was a step and a half slower.

SW Coaches Pick SMU to Repeat

Beaumont, Tex., Aug. 5.—(AP)—The Southwest Conference football race this year will be one of the best-balanced in history but Southern Methodist will repeat with the championship.

That was the consensus of coaches from the seven schools in a radio interview here Wednesday night.

The coaches were interviewed by Harold V. Ratliff, sports editor of the Associated Press, as a feature of the Texas Coaching School.

Appearing on the program were Blair Cherry, head coach at Texas; Harry Stiteler, head coach of Texas A. and M.; Bob Woodruff, head coach at Baylor, and assistant coaches Duke Brackett of Arkansas, Rusty Russell of Southern Methodist, and Joe Davis of Rice.

Only four perfect baseball games have been pitched in the major leagues since 1900.

Mitchell Defeated By Hart Hall 8-5

Mitchell fell before the bats of Hart Hall Wednesday when Harry Miller pitched six hit ball to chalk up his second win in three tries. Hart jumped into the lead in the sixth and seventh innings when two runs were scored in each.

Rex Fox, the losing pitcher, was relieved in the sixth by Von Rosenberg, who had little success in curbing the Hart bats.

Billie Mitchell lead the hitters with two for four at the plate.
