Milk Dispenser Used in Corner

A new and improved type of sanitary milk dispenser is now in use at the Campus Corner. One of two types of such machines, it is also probably the only one of its kind in this area.

available to the A&B student, college employee, and faculty," relates Chris Gent, assistant director and business manager of the Memorial Student Center. The machine contains its own refrigeration unit which is regulated to hold the milk at about 35 degrees temperature. Space in the 4-foot machine accommodates four 5-gallon milk containers. There are two taps which can be operated at the same time permitting the milk to be served without ever touching any part of the sterilized surfaces.

League—the Class A and Class B; the Class AA, Class A, Class B and six-man football, and now the city conference, Class AA, Class A, Class B, and six-man football. But it hasn't solved the problem. Class AA football is stronger than city conference football. Competition inside Class AA is unequal. Schools like Waco, Amarillo, Corpus Christi, Austin, Highland Park, et al, continue to whom schools like Denton, Sulphur Springs, McKinney, Hillsboro, Cleburne.

The Texas high school coaches now are mulling over whether the age limit should be raised from 18 to 19 years since the eight-semester rule is in effect.

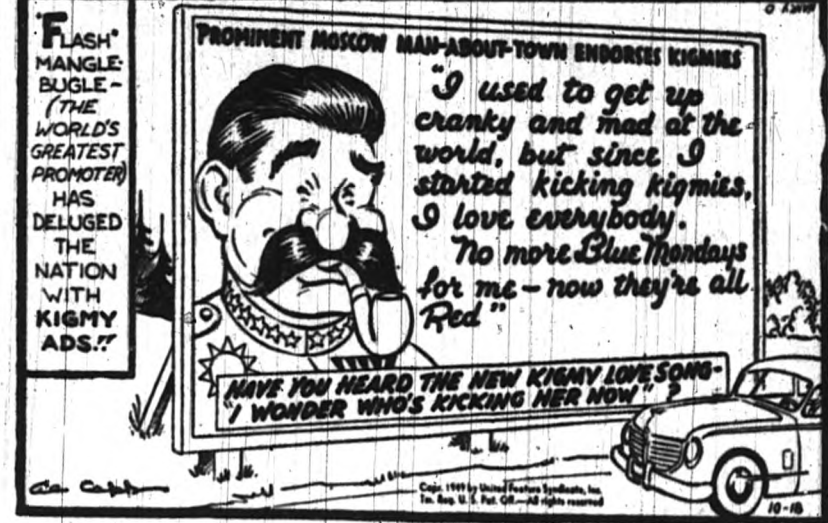

"For as long as teams in large towns are opposing smaller schools," he added, "the larger towns will win most of the time." John Clift, Denison Herald sports editor suggests that towns with populations exceeding 40,000 be put in the city conference. He thinks those 39,000 and down should be in Class AA. He would want a championship in each conference then a play-off between the two for the title of Texas.

A school in a town of from 9,000 to 20,000—as most of the Class AA schools are now—cannot be expected to compete on a year-in, year-out basis with the larger towns. Clift thinks. We agree and reaffirm a view often stated here: There should be one bona fide state champion by deciding it between the two big conferences, but that the Class AA division should not include the schools with 1,000 and under enrollment.

However, the Interscholastic League has stated emphatically that there will be no play-off between the City Conference and Class AA as it would make the season too long. But if Clift's plan or my plan were adopted it wouldn't make the season too long. The number of districts would be reduced and the play-off could be finished in Class AA in time for a state title game the last week in December.

We favor a 19-year age limit in view of the fact that there is an eight-semester rule that would prevent boys laying over when there was no scholastic reason. The reclassification plan—schools with 1,000 enrollment or more or towns 40,000 or more would be in Class AA—would remove any disadvantage of a bigger school having more older boys than the smaller methods will be announced either at the class meeting or at a later date according to Rowe. In the election, all academically classified sophomores will be eligible to run for office and to vote, Rowe emphasized. Ballots for the election will be printed and will be distributed shortly before the evening of the elections. All ballots will have a space for signing the voter's name, which must be done before the vote can be counted, Rowe concluded.
