

Undefeated Baylor Pounds TCU, 40-14

Waco, Tex., Oct. 31 (AP)—Baylor rode high in the ranks of the nation's undefeated teams smothering Texas Christian 40 to 14 with a potent offense and a tight defense at Municipal Stadium Saturday.

Texas Christian's Lindy Berry had a bad off day. Baylor's Adrian Burk and his pass-snatching mates were at their best, and that was the ball game.

Baylor counted with one touchdown in the first period, three in a big second quarter, one each in the third fourth, plus a safety in the second to give the Horned Frogs second setback in Southwest Conference play.

A Christian fumble early in the game and a recovery by Tackle Wesley Roberts led to Baylor's first touchdown. Big Frank Bodystun rammed through from the nine to score. Frank Dickerson's placement was wide.

Berk Pass Sparks

Baylor drove 67 yards to score the next touchdown. It was touched off by a 27-yard pass from Burk to Dudley Parker, standing clear in the end zone, gave the surging Bruins another tally. Burk then passed 42 yards to James Jeffrey on TCU's three and Bodystun again powered over for the score. Both tries for extra point failed.

Tackle Rupert Wright tackled Otis McKelvey of TCU in the end zone for a safety and two more points. A pass from Burk to Ison and a missed conversion attempt ran the Baylor total to 33.

Bears Hold Margin

That 33 to 0 margin held through the third period. Baylor was using many reserves and the Frogs surged back for two touchdowns in the last quarter. The first was a 46-yard drive climaxed by a scoring pass from Roy Ballinger to Bill Elliott; Homer Ludiker's place kick was good.

Baylor scored another touchdown in the final frame after recovering a TCU fumble on the 20. Louis Gajdosik plunged over and Dickerson's placement was good.

Then Froggie Marshall Alford blocked Larry Isbell's punt and Keith Flowers ran 34 yards for a TCU score, with Ludiker's placement again perfect for the extra point.

Berk completed 11 of 19 passes attempted for total yardage of 192. Only one of his passes was intercepted.

Berry Unsuccessful

Berry was able to connect only on two of 11 tries for 15 yards, but six interceptions of Berry's pitches were a tribute to a head-up pass defense that throttled the vaunted Christian attack.

But it wasn't all Burk for Baylor. The air-minded Bruins total yards gained by aid was 216, and they powered for 121 on the ground. TCU netted 61 yards by passes and a scant 25 on the ground.

The Christians threatened several times, but miscues and just-missed passes hurt badly. Early in the game a long heave from Dan Wilde to Snake Bailey was definitely off stride.

Bill Moorman blocked a Baylor kick early in the fourth period, TCU winding up with the ball on the Baylor three. The Baylor line refused to budge in four plays and that's the way the ball game went all afternoon.

Penn, Gophers, Tarheels Upset Over Weekend

New York, Oct. 31 (AP)—Pittsburgh, Purdue and Tennessee were rude guests today and dealt out shocking college football upsets to Pennsylvania, Minnesota and North Carolina.

Pitt, manhandled by a weak Indiana team last week, bounced the undefeated, 22 to 21, on a safety that was scored 38 seconds before the game ended.

Purdue crushed both Minnesota's big ten title and Rose Bowl hopes with a 13 to 7 victory.

North Carolina was subdued by Tennessee, 35 to 6. Halfback Charlie Justice was injured in the fray but he contributed mental and physical errors before he was hurt that helped the volunteers triumph.

Other Results Expected

At virtually all the other sites the football form held true.

Notre Dame, leader in the Associated Press' weekly poll, cruised easily past Navy, 40 to 0, with Ernie Zaleski the hero this time. Oklahoma was held scoreless for a period before it settled down to destroy Iowa State, 34 to 7, with five different Sooners scoring touchdowns.

Army had no difficulty at all with Virginia Military, 40 to 14, but Kentucky waited until almost the last minute to master little Cincinnati, 14 to 7. Southern Methodist just got by Texas, 7 to 6, with the convalescing Doak Walker the deciding point.

Fordham Wins Again

But there were some surprises. Fordham announced its return to the major ranks with a fourth straight victory, this one 42 to 0 over a good Georgetown aggregation. The Rams play equally unbeaten Army next Saturday.

Boston University continued its victory skein with a 46 to 6 conquest of Scranton.

Out in the Midlands there was excitement galore. Iowa was trailing Oregon, 24 to 6, with only seconds to go in the third period. The Hawkeyes unleashed a scoring attack that brought them to a 34 to 31 victory in the next nine minutes.

Michigan ruined an Illinois celebration honoring veteran Bob Zupke, 13 to 0, and Ohio State sailed smoothly over Northwestern, 24 to 7. By their triumph the Buckeyes moved into a big ten tie with Iowa. Wisconsin bounced Indiana, 30 to 14.

Missouri kept pace with Oklahoma for the big seven honors with a 21 to 20 verdict over Nebraska. The Huskers were ahead, 20 to 7, at the end of the third period.

Duke and Georgia Tech fought on almost even terms until Duke's Billy Cox found the passing range and then the Carolina eleven moved out in front, 27 to 14.

California's Golden Bears, fourth ranked nationally, moved a step nearer the Rose Bowl by overpowering UCLA, one of their principal Pacific Coast rivals, 35-21.

Ponies Edge Texas On Last Period TD

Dallas, Oct. 31 (AP)—All-American Doak Walker came off the bench for another golden moment Saturday, kicking the extra point that brought Southern Methodist a breath-taking 7-6 victory over Texas.

Appearing in only 11 plays and obviously a weak young man as the results of a seige of influenza, Walker was the man when the time came.

Kyle Rote, Southern Methodist halfback, had taken a pass and skipped to the touchdown that tied the score. It was 6-6. Only because Ralph Blakely, Southern Methodist wingman, had crashed through to block Randall Clay's try for point.

Then the hushed throng of 75,000 watched Walker as he stood there and aimed at the Texas goal posts. Back came the ball and Walker stepped into it. The oval sailed like a bird between the crossbars. That was the ball game although Texas had the crowd in hysterics with drive after drive that carried deep, deep into Southern Methodist territory.

Texas Threatens

Texas stormed and passed, getting to the Southern Methodist three yard line with six minutes to go, but Ray Borneman, key man in the Longhorn drive, fumbled and Grover Walker recovered for SMU.

Rote boomed a kick out to the Southern Methodist 34 and then Texas stymied in three tries, tried a field goal. It was a forlorn effort. On the 39th yard mark, Ben Tompkins but his foot into the ball but it didn't even reach the SMU goal line.

Southern Methodist was outplayed in everything except the score. Most of the breaks went its way and when Texas did get one it couldn't crack the SMU line or fozzled away its chance.

Procter Again Goat

With only two seconds to go, Ben Procter, Texas wingman, took a 38-yard pass from Paul Campbell across the goal line but dropped the ball.

The first half was scoreless—the first time this has occurred in the Southwest Conference this season. Texas scored deep in the third period when Fred Benners, SMU sophomore, back to pass from behind his goal line had the throw blocked by Bill Wilson.

The ball bounded into the air and into the arms of John Adams on the SMU two. Adams merely fell across the goal line.

Eight times Texas was in Southern Methodist territory and only once could it cash in.

Southern Methodist never got past midfield until late in the third period; erratic punting by Rote in the first half kept SMU in hot water. But Kyle was tops in other ways. On the SMU touchdown, which came on a 73-yard drive, Rote took a throw from Benners on the Texas 12 and stormed his way over a half-dozen Texas would-be tacklers.

Owls Beat Tech Without Strain In 28-0 Contest

Houston, Tex., Oct. 31 (AP)—Rice used but did not need some of its crippled players Saturday in taking an easy 28 to 0 victory over Texas Tech of the Border Conference.

The running of Fullback Bobby Lantrip and the passing of Tobin Rote and Vernon Glass made the Rice offense click at will. The Owl defense meanwhile was keeping the West Texas Red Raiders from crossing the Rice 20-yard line the entire game.

Lantrip climaxed early game drives of 77 and 70 yards by plunging over from the 1-yard line for a pair of touchdowns, while Rote tossed a 16-yard scoring pass to reserve Fullback George Glauser for another shortly before the half.

Glass, who engineered the Rice team to its thrilling victory over Texas last week, completed the scoring in the final period with a 48-yard toss to Sophomore Halfback Billy Burkhalter.

Williams Kicks Four

End James (Froggie) Williams, who kicked the winning field goal against Texas, protected a shoulder injury and entered the game only to kick the four extra points.

Tech entered Rice territory six times but its deepest penetrations were to the Rice 20, 21, and 22, where Rice held.

Rote, with a bad ankle, played very little, but he completed 8 out of 11 passes for 127 yards. Lantrip, however, was a day's big ground gainer, carrying the ball 19 times for 141 yards.

Panted Only Once

The Owls' smoothly functioning offense made it necessary for Rice to punt only one time. A 15-yard penalty late in the fourth quarter forced the kick. Tech stopped three Rice scoring threats and took over on its 2, 29 and 3.

Rice finished with 285 net yards and 248 through the air. Tech had 240 on the ground and completed 6 of 16 pass attempts for 79 yards.

The Red Raiders, paced by Calvin Steveson and J. W. Thompson, launched several long midfield drives but bogged down on passes after moving across the Rice 30.

Steveson carried the ball 11 times for a net of 86 yards, while Thompson had 51 on 9 tries.

Rice made 19 first downs to 17 for Tech.

The New York Giants, with 13 pennants since 1900, lead all other National League teams in that department.

Rinehart passed again and Butts gathered it in—but was hit hard and fumbled. Bobby Dew recovered for the Cadets on his own nine-yard line. A fumble by Yale Lary on an attempted punt by the Aggies, gave the Hogs the sphere on A&M's nine-yard line.

After a few bucks through the line, Mazzanti went over from the four. Thornton successfully added the extra point to make the score 20-to-0 with 10 minutes to play in the game.

Ags Come Back

Dick Gardemal got the Aggs rolling after Arkansas' kickoff. The Cadets were able to penetrate to the Hogs' 34 yard line before Gardemal was thrown for a long loss back to the Hog 49. Arkansas, after being unable to move the ball, punted out of bounds on the A&M 11-yard line.

Gardemal dropped back to pass on second down and shot one into the flats where Parker Billy Bass gathered it in and dashed 18 yards down the sidelines for the score. Thornton placed his third conveyer of the afternoon straight through the uprights to make the score 27 to 6.

Once again the Aggies advanced deep into Hog territory, getting as far as the 13-yard line on two passes from Gardemal to Whitaker and a 15-yard penalty. But again the Cadets couldn't take advantage of the situation as Gardemal's aerial was intercepted by Arkie, who snagged it in the end zone and raced back to the six.

Dugan Makes Run

From this point the longest run of the game took place as Hog Joe Dugan, fourth string right back, knifed his way off right tackle, picked up his interference, and raced 79 yards to the 16-yard line before Billy Tidwell came from behind to bring him to the turf.

After being unable to collect any points from ground and aerial attacks, Coach Barnhill sent Thornton in to try for a Hog field goal. The ball sailed far enough but barely missed being good as it sailed off to the left.

The Aggies then took over from their own 20 with only 40 seconds remaining in the game. Goff swept left end for 10 yards.

From this spot, they drew a 15 yard penalty for roughness. After two passes from the arm of Jimmy Cashion, one uncompleted long pass and a completed short pass over the line, the game ended.

Outstanding defensive performers for the Aggies were Dick Calender, Jim Fowler, Max Griener, Carl Molberg, Murry Holditch, Carl Hill, and safety Glenn Lippman. On offense, creditable performances were turned in by all the players although Wray Whitaker, Dick Gardemal, and Bob Smith carried most of the burden with center Hugh Meyer effectively anchoring the line at center.
