QUARTERBACK CLUB

Six Top Aggies Of The Week

Wray Whittaker, senior end from Houston, took a pass from Gardemal on the eight and went across the Porker goal line for the only A&M score against the Arkansas Razorbacks in Fayetteville Saturday.

Dick Gardemal, sophomore quarterback from Fort Arthur, completed 14 of 23 passes that he threw in the Arkansas game last Saturday. His passes netted a total of 143 yards.

Bruin Bob Smith from Houston kept the number one spot in the conference in ground gaining by totaling 41 yards against the Hogs in the Ozarks.

Dick Callendar, the end who plays linebacker on defense for the Aggies, turned in a sterling game against the Porkers Saturday. His crashing tackles were one of the outstanding points in the game.

Junior tackle Murray Holditch did a great job Saturday in helping hold the Arkansas running game down. He weighs 205 pounds and hails from Blooming Grove.

Carl Molberg again made the QB page for his superb line play, both on offense and defense, against the Porkers. From Fredericksburg, Molberg is one of the most experienced linemen on the Aggie squad.

Speaker:

GORDON McLENDON

"The Old Scotchman" of movie and radio fame will do some predicting on this Saturday's results of Conference games. In addition to that, he's a man of a thousand stories; so expect to be entertained.

PARKER-ASTIN HARDWARE COMPANY

Of interest to the Aggies who plan to attend the Quarterback club are the Club sponsors shown above. As a result of their interest in A. & M., and it's student body, the Quarterback club will be able to offer better speakers and more prizes for it's contest. Those shown above are three of the ten sponsors responsible for the increased interest in the Quarterback club, the remaining seven will be pictured next week.
