BY BOB ALLEN

The A Quartermaster football eleven, last year's champions and one of the strongest contenders for the title again this year, showed E Air Force its power in a terrific 7-0 win yesterday.

Both teams came on the field undefeated, untied and barely scored on in previous play.

QMC won the toss and chose to receive the kickoff. After running three plays for no gain, the Quartermaster team kicked only to have the punt blocked on the three-yard line. It looked like the Air Force team had six points cinched.

After running four plays, however, they failed to make the TD and the ball went over on downs to the QMC. This time the kick was good and the game settled down to a hard struggle in mid-field.

QMC Intercepts

The decisive break came when the Air Force tried a screen pass. Alert Bob Schubert figured this play out, intercepted the aerial, and ran it inside the five-yard line where he was caught from behind.

From that point QMC made the TD in two plays. They had to make the extra point twice; once it was called back for an off sides penalty.

Another of the strong football teams, B Infantry, which has had but six points scored on it all year, continued on their championship march by downing C Cavalry, 6-0. B Infantry has one of the best offensive records of the year as well as the best defensive record.

Only Three Undecided

All but three of the football leagues have been completed. The strongest teams from last year seem to be well on the road to repeating this year. The old champions, A Quartermaster, appears to be in the same position again due to the win-loss record.

Other strong repeaters are A Infantry, C Infantry, and Senior Company. New teams in the choice positions are League F winners, B Transportation, and a big fast team from A Army Security.

Last Friday afternoon, the strong ASA footballers powered over E Field in a decisive 18-0 victory.

ASA Starts Fast

The ASA took the offensive early in the game and held it the remainder of the time. E Field won the toss and chose to receive the kickoff. After attempting three running plays for no gain, a fourth down kick was blocked by Carl Scudder, big guard from Yorktown.

ASA took over well down in the Field Artillery territory, and in three plays they scored the first TD, but failed to tally the extra point.

Constantly outstanding in the line for the ASA were Scudder and Leonard Hillebrandt, while the best backs were Mel Moncrief and Denby Hudson.

SWC Championship Harriers Will Run in Texas AAU Meet

Texas A&M's Southwest Conference championship cross country team will participate in the Bill Williams cross country run on Saturday, December 17, at Houston. This championship meet is for the Texas AAU title and is sponsored by the Gulf AAU Association.

Having won the Gulf AAU title last year, the Aggies are expected to repeat Saturday. Julian Herring, who placed first in the conference meet, should pace the expected 100 entrants.

Colonel Anderson, A&M track coach, announced that he would take an eight-man team but added that he didn't know which men would do the running for the Cadets. In all probability the rules for the meet will be the same as the conference rules that allow each team to enter seven runners. The first five to finish for the

Table Tennis Meet Set for Cowtown

The Texas Open Table Tennis tournament is slated to be held the 29 and 30 of this month at the YMCA Gym in Fort Worth. The meet is sanctioned by the U. S. Table Tennis Association, according to Barney Welch, director of Intramural Athletics, who announced the meet.

According to Welch, there will be men's and junior's (under 18) singles and doubles.

Welch stated that entry blanks could be obtained by writing Maurice C. Neale, YMCA, Fifth and Lamar, Fort Worth, Texas.

In conclusion Welch said that all interested persons should contact Neale in Fort Worth as soon as possible.

Aggie Water Polo Team Sinks Baylor Bears 6-0 Yesterday

BY FRANK SIMMEN, JR.

Playing like a hungry bunch of sharks stalking their prey, the Aggie water polo team scored three points in each half of a match in P. L. Downs Natatorium yesterday afternoon to completely devour a scrappy Baylor aqua squad, 6-0.

Ralph Ellis revealed the Ag tactics early by grabbing a quick handoff from Paul Fleming, turning in a circular motion, and heaving the ball into the net on a beautiful backhand shot. Unfortunately the whistle had blown beforehand, nullifying the goal.

A&M's slick offensive machine clicked throughout the game, making it unnecessary for Aggie goalie Tommie Comstock to display his defensive ability. Only eight attempts were knocked down by Comstock as most Baylor scoring threats were stopped short by the alert pair of Cadet guards.

No Stopping Ags

Once the Aggies started sinking shots there was no stopping them. Only three and a half minutes had elapsed in the first half before the Farmer team had racked up two tallies, and two minutes later another score was slipped through the net.

McKenzie on a free throw pitched out to Ellis in the far right corner. Ellis slipped the ball into the net for the first score after taking the toss.

Ellis scored again a few moments later from about mid-court. Finding himself surrounded by Baylor players, he spotted a hole and jumping high into the air, heaved the sphere past Bee Ware, Baylor goalie, who made a vain attempt to block the shot.

With only two minutes left in the first half Van Adamson whipped around Bruin right forward Andy Odum to bounce the ball into the mesh for the third one-pointer.

One minute after the whistle sounded to start the second half, Bill Sargent took a quick handoff from McKenzie and threw the ball towards the goal. After glancing off the hands of Baylor goalie Ware, the ball sailed on into the net.

A minute later Sargent again scored, this time with two Baylor men guarding him closely. The slim swimmer faked the two Bruins out of position, found a quick opening, and sailed the ball into the basket for the fifth Aggie score for the night.

Fleming Climaxes Career

Playing in his last collegiate game, team captain Paul Fleming figured in two Cadet scores and turned in rugged defensive ball to contribute greatly to the team's victory.

The final Ag marker came with only two minutes and 30 seconds remaining in the fray when Sargent shot a quick pass to McKenzie, who fired a throw past Ware for the point.

Despite desperate long tosses in the closing minutes, the Bears were unable to close the gap in the score.

Both teams were engaging in rather rugged play when the officials whistle ended the contest. In a curtain raiser, the College Station aquatic team (Aggie B team) took an easy victory over the Bear B's.
