Memphis Naval Air Tankmen Face Aqs Saturday at 7:30

A&M's swimmers will meet a strong Memphis Naval Air Station in F. L. Downs Natatorium Saturday night. The dual meet will get underway at 7:30. After a narrow 38-37 victory over Northwestern Louisiana State last week, Coach Art Adamson will start his top tank men in tomorrow night's battle. Memphis will come to College Station holding a recent win over that same Louisiana team, having edged the bayou boys by the same margin as the Cadets. "That Northwestern team was pretty much a surprise, especially in backstroke and breaststroke," Adamson said. "We had to hustle in the last few events to beat 'em." Mainstays of the Aggie team are Bill Karow of College Station, sophomore breast-stroker; Van Adamson, of College Station, unbeaten this spring in freestyle competition; backstroker Bill Sargent of Fort Worth and Ralph Ellis of Dallas. Young Adamson, son of the Cadet tank coach, is considered one of the top swimming prospects in the Southwest. The 19-year-old, 6'3" soph competes in the 50 and 100-yard freestyle events and is also a key member of the Aggie relay team.

Texas Meet Out For Memphis Tea

The Daily Texan, official daily newspaper of Texas University, Wednesday carried a story on its sports page, an excerpt from which is reprinted. "Due to transportation difficulties, the Memphis Naval Air Station swimming team... will not meet the Texas University swimmers here... Saturday night as scheduled." A&M will meet the Memphis team here Saturday night. At press time, no word had been received on transportation possibilities of flying the mermen back and forth to Austin between events.

Football Game, Fancy Show Set For Sports Day

Football, baseball, track, swimming, tennis, and GIRLS! These are the attractions to be offered to Aggies on Sports Day, March 4, according to "IT" Association proxy Gene Schrickel. Schrickel heads the athletes' organization which sponsors the Sports Day activities for the purpose of filling its coffers for future social and recreational programs. Number one on the day's schedule will be the annual Maroon and White game-scrimmage which offers Cadet supporters a chance to see the '50 Farmer grid machine in action. With the same one dollar ticket a person can witness a spectacular half time performance planned by the famed Kilgore Junior College Rangerettes. Fifty-three strong and supported by the Kilgore band of half a hundred musicians, the Rangerettes should provide the crowd with one of the top intermission shows Kyle Field has ever seen.

WTAW -- 9:30 A. M. MONDAY THROUGH FRIDAY

Freestyler Van Adamson emerges dripping from the pool after completing the final lap in the medley relay's record-breaking performance last week. Adamson joined teammates Bill Karow and Bill Sargent in cracking a record held since 1947 by the Cadet trio of Howard Spencer, Jimmy Flowers, and Danny Green.

Swimster Trio Claims 'Star' Honors with Win

Star of the Week for athletic competition from Feb. 6 to Feb. 11 was not an individual, but a team—the 300-yd. medley relay swimming unit. The Battalion sports staff selected the trio of crack mermen, Bill Sargent, Bill Karow, and Van Adamson, because of the relay's feat of setting a new pool record of 3:06 in its event last Friday.

Clipping four-tenths of a second from the previous P. L. Downs, Jr., Natatorium mark, the three tankmen came within seven-tenths of a second of the Southwest Conference record of 3:05.3 set by Texas last spring. The earlier campus time had been held by a combine of backstroker Howard Spencer, breaststroker Jimmy Flowers, and freestyler Danny Green since 1947. The new time was established as the Cadet aquatic squad nipped the Northwestern Louisiana splashers 38-37, by winning the final event of the evening. All of the relay members contributed valuable points in their individual specialties as well as through relay wins. Karow tops Butterfly-strokers. Karow slapped the tiled-edge of the pool first in the 200-yd. breaststroke for five points. He was timed at 2:36 for the distance. Adamson annexed the number one spot in the 440 freestyle to pull the Farmers within six points of the Northwesterners. The lanky speedster did the distance in 5:25.

Breaststroker Bill Karow churns his way through the waters in another winning race. Young Karow, besides winning the 200-yd. breaststroke event last Friday, joined teammates Van Adamson and Bill Sargent in a record-setting 300-yd. medley relay performance. Sargent, a very capable performer, took second in his specialty at 100 yards to add to the Cadet point total. The Battalion photographers found Sargent's speed deceptive and failed to get a good shot of him, so there was no picture available for publication.

Fish Cagers, Slimes Tangle Tomorrow Night in Houston

Seasonal leading scorer Leroy Miksch will hold down the starting post assignment for the Fish. Miksch has led his Fish buddies in the marker race in all but two games. The Fish have dropped contests to Lon Morris, the Baylor Cubs, the TU Shortorns, and Allen Academy. Jumping over to the win column, the Hart Hall lads reigned victorious in frays against the Baylor Cubs, their latest rival; Wharton Junior College, twice; Slimes, and Allen Academy the Slimes.

By SKIP SIMMEN Saturday night will mark the second meeting of the freshman cage teams of Rice Institute and A&M when the two first-year aggregations square off in a preliminary contest at six in the Houston Public School Field House. In the two teams' first meeting on Jan. 17 the Fish handed the Slimes their third setback of the season, downing the Owl hoopers. This will mark the third appearance of a Gene Schrickel coached freshman team. In the last meeting of the Slime and Cadets the Fish were under the able tutelage of Les Peden. Peden has since left for the Chicago Cubs spring training camp in Georgia. It was Carl Jowell of the Slimes who paced the secreters in the last tussle of the two clubs, sinking seven field goals and five charities before fouling out in the third quarter. Horris Teague, ex-All City Houstonian meshed 11 points to finish in the Slime runner-up spot.

Scrimmage Time Is 'Afternoon'

A&M's first spring training game-scrimmage will be played on Kyle Field tomorrow afternoon, according to Coach Harry Stitler. When interviewed Thursday afternoon, Stitler said that he had no information available as to the starting time of the game or the personnel to be used on each squad.
