Availing Ourselves to a Bargain . . .

Now, it's a basic assumption that all around the world for a complete world atlas selling at the same price? Of course not. Yet, if you're among the majority of college students, you're passing up just as big a bargain.

Young editors and young preachers tote the world on their shoulders and labor under the belief that they are destined to influence a sudden change in the bad habits of mankind.

No religious heretic was ever so condemned, persecuted, and destroyed as was the late General William (Billy) Mitchell.

In 1925 Mitchell wrote: "The menace of submarines from below and aircraft from above constitutes such a condition that the surface ship as an element of war is disappearing."
