

Monday Soph Picture Deadline

Pictures may be entered in the Sophomore Sweetheart Ball contest until Monday, Feb. 27 at 5 p.m., the sweetheart committee decided early today.

With the deadline originally set for 5 this afternoon, the group, after many requests at last week's sophomore meeting for more time, extended the time for entries over the weekend.

Preliminary judging of the entries will be by a group of impartial students, who will eye the beauties immediately after the 5 p.m. deadline.

Six finalists will be chosen and will be announced in Tuesday's issue of The Battalion.

The six girls who are selected will appear at the Ball, Saturday night, March 4, before a group of judges composed of college dignitaries, faculty and staff members.

One of the six will be named "Sweetheart of the Sophomore Class." R. A. "Dick" Ingles class president will make the announcement of the selection of the winner and presents her with a gift from the class.

The ball, which will begin at 8:30, will have music furnished by the Aggieband Orchestra. Dress will be formal.

Invitations to the Ball may be obtained in each outfit, according to John Tapley, invitation committee chairman.

Plans are now in progress to set up operations whereby non-area corps students and day student sophomores can obtain their invitations from a more centrally located point. At present, however, they may obtain them from any unit salesman in the Corps of Cadets.

Included in the invitations, said Tapley, are all concessions at the Ball—hat checks, refreshments, souvenir programs.
