

ASA, A Inf, A Ord Lead Boxing Card

By NICK MANITZAS

R. L. Layton of ASA drubbed Chuck Massey of D Field Artillery in the 140-pound class yesterday, and the ASA team marked up its sixth victory in as many ring starts. Holding the best record of any team to date they are easily leading the field, while A Infantry and A Ordnance are the nearest contenders.

Sammy Aboud of A Quartermaster gained his second win of the year yesterday in the 160-pound class downing Al Sexton of H Air Force in three rounds of hard fighting. Aboud was definitely the attacker all the way in the first round, as he felt out his opponent who towered almost five inches above him. In the final two rounds the Quartermaster pugilist pounded Sexton all over the ring.

In the 140-pound division one of the top contenders for the chamionship is Tom Royder of C Field Artillery, who last year advanced to the semi-finals of the 139-pound class. Royder outboxed Jack Turcotte of A Infantry all over the ring using a very potent left jab. During the final round Royder floored his opponent in the latter part of the bout.

Jean Lambert of the 139-pound division fairly blasted Bill Lockridge of C-Infantry in their bout yesterday with Lambert climaxing the fight with a powerful final round. A series of lefts and rights to the face of Lockridge by the winner almost brought about a technical knockout as Lockridge's nose began bleeding excessively. Results of yesterday's matches:

139-pound division: Bob DeVonport (K-Inf) beat John Pope (W-Band), Smyth (B-CAC) gained a forfeit win over K. D. Bishop (A-Sig), H. H. Scheulke (D-Inf) defeated Melvin Mitchell (B-Eng), and Jean Lambert (A-Comp) downed Bill Lockridge (C-Inf).

140-pound division: Tom Royder (C-PA) drubbed Jack Turcotte (A-Inf), R. L. Layton (ASA) dominated Chuck Massey (D-PA), Wayne Hoskins (A-Inf) defeated Creed Ray (D-Inf), J. Holland (K-Inf) beat Owen Davis (B-Inf), J. D. Jackson (D-Vet) took a forfeit win over V. E. Thealkeld (E-Eng), and Bernie Parkey (A-Ord) downed Albert Dennis (C-Inf).

160-pound division: Joe Stede (H-Inf) defeated C. E. Davis (A-FA), and Sammy Aboud (A-QM) trounced Al Sexton (H-AF).

Hall, Kadera Are Stars of The Week

Two of Aggieland's top senior track stars, Bob Hall and George Kadera share "Star of the Week" honors for their recent record breaking feats in last Saturday's Border Olympics.

Kadera heaved the discus 165 feet, to break the oldest record recorded on the books of the Laredo classic. The old record, of century in the dual competition with North Texas two weeks ago with a time of 10 flat. The talented sprinter and hurler will probably be back in the hurdles competition in preparation for the conference meet held this year in the capital city.

Last season, in the conference track meet in Arkansas, Hall set

George Kadera

157 5" set by Jess Petty of Rice, was recorded in 1935.

Hall Barely Beats Soph

Bob Hall, barely beating his teammate, soph Bill Bliss, in the 220 low hurdles, cut 5/10 of a second off the previous record set by Kadera the previous year by a half inch. The Aggie trackster finished fourth in this event with a heave of 44' 11 1/2".

a new low hurdles mark. He will be back this season striving to better his previous mark.

Both cindersmen are counted on heavily to garner from two to four first place votes for the Ags in almost every meet.

Both men will wind up their college track eligibility this season.

CCNY Overwhelms Favored Wildcats

New York, March 14—(AP)—Aroused City College of New York, getting an all-America performance from Big Ed Warner, showed heavily favored Kentucky to the sidelines Tuesday night, 89 to 50, in a stunning quarter-finals of the National Invitation Basketball Tournament.

The other semifinal game Thursday sends top-seeded Bradley against St. John's of Brooklyn. Both advanced Monday night.

Aggie Baseballers Set For Rugged UH Nine

By HAROLD GANN

A&M's hit-happy baseball team will play host to the untried University of Houston nine on Kyle Field tomorrow. Gametime is 3:00 p. m.

After beating the Brooke Army Medics of San Antonio, 9-6, in their initial outing of the season, everyone is in playing condition with the exception of first base candidate Tim Tunnel, who was spiked in the foot Tuesday, and all-conference shortstop Guy Wallace who hasn't sufficiently recovered from an sprained ankle.

Hubert Likely Starter

Coach Marty Karow said last night that Wallace was probably able for light workouts, and added, "It's just a case of making sure it's well. We don't want to take any chances."

Karow hasn't named a definite starter, but hinted it would be Pat Hubert, Sam Blanton, or George Brown. Brown, a 6-4 veteran right-hander from Irving, pitched the first three innings of last week's game and showed remarkable control, allowing one hit.

Hubert, a short starboard slinger from Kingville, is the likely starter with Blanton, a 6-3 sophomore from Beaumont in the on-deck circle.

Ogletree Has Best Mark

Slated to see action behind the plate are Al Ogletree, Jim Calvert, and Martin Hamilton. Ogletree had a perfect day at the plate last week, pounding out a homer and triple his two times up.

Calvert, with three letters to his credit, is the only seasoned backstopper. Hamilton gives the catching crew added impetus. Lately he has been looking good in practice, showing ability that placed him on the American Legion All-American team in '47 while playing for Little Rock.

Herschel Malts will start at first base, Joe Savarino will be at second, and Henry Candelari, who slapped one out of the park last week, will hold down the hot corner.

Filling in Wallace's place at short stop will be either Lester Lackey or Joe Ercota of San Antonio. Both boys are sophomores.

John DeWitt, Wallace Moon, and "Shug" McPherson will patrol the gardens. McPherson accounted for the first three Farmer runs in last week's game when he hit a line-drive homer over the center field fence with two men on.

Maneuver for Southpaw

Karow also has McPherson slated for the first base position and the 165 pounder from Fort Worth will cover the sack when a left-handed pitcher opposes the Ags then another right hander will be inserted in right. Karow said, "This maneuver is to give A&M more punch at the plate against left-handers since Malts hasn't fared so well against southpaws." He added, "And the Southwest Conference has plenty of southpaws."

Last year the Aggies met the Cougar's twice, shutting them out on both occasions. The Houston club, under the tutorage of Lovette Hill for the first time, has been working out since March 6, but according to Hill, bad weather has curtailed any full scale operations. The squad this week has been holding intra-squad games, its final pre-season meeting, the Aggies is scheduled for this afternoon.

Cougar Infield in Fine Shape

Except for a proven third baseman, the Cougar infield seems to be in fair shape. Classy Felix Fraga will be at first, veteran Rolan Walton is at second, Curtis Braden will be the short fielder. Third base position will be held by either Jake Woods, a letterman, or Jack Reed.

Cougar catchers Glenn Bond and Herby Boon have the necessary experience. The outfield includes four lettermen and, like the Aggie fielding extremists, has a flock of newcomers who show a lot of promise.

As his likely starters, Hill named pitchers Bobby Holtmann, 3-2 in 1949; Tommy Bush, 2-0 last season, and Bill Crosby, a recent addition to the mound staff. The Aggies will face the Cougars in a return match Saturday in Houston.

A&M's Tennis Ace Set For SWC Race

By HAROLD GANN

When Raymond G. DeBerry, the sandy-haired mainstay of the Aggie tennis team, downed highly favored Jason Morton of the University of Houston Saturday in DeWare Field House, he added another achievement to his long seven-year-old list of tennis laurels.

The 23-year-old court-savvy Morton, who was seeded third in the state last year by the Texas Tennis Association, literally blasted DeBerry off the courts last fall in Corpus Christi, winning 6-2, 6-1.

But it took the Court Whirlwind and hour and a half to get revenge over a player who has a library stocked to the hilt with many commendable awards, including a trophy he had taken for winning the state high school championship in '46.

Definite SWC Threat

And, in the process, DeBerry established himself as a definite threat to the Southwest Conference title holder — Chick Harris of Rice.

His two main weapons were a timely attack at the net, and a forceful and unique two-fisted backhand—a colorful shot patterned similarly to Pancho Segura's forehand.

However, DeBerry's court ability didn't appear overnight. He was 12 years old when he first held a racket, and he was nearly as good as now.
