

Fish Top Slime Easily, 73-41; Stalter, Streleau Pace Scoring

By JIMMY CURTIS

Sweeping both places in three events while preventing the Rice Slimes from getting a sweep in a single event, the Aggie Fish decisively outpointed their opponents, 73-41, at Kyle Field Saturday. Cadet sweeps were engineered in the high hurdles, low hurdles, and the pole vault.

Absent during the meet was Big Darrow Hooper who was the only A&M entrant in the Ft. Worth Southwestern Recreation Track and Field Meet. Hooper set a new record in the discus, but was upset in the shot.

On the local scene the freshman division proved exciting as all of the Owlets' four first places, counting five points each, came in the first part of the meet, and the first-year Aggies had to come from behind with their 11 first places in the latter part of the competition. Rice got seven second places while the Aggies got six of the three-pointers.

Stalter, Streleau Tops
Bill Stalter and Conrad Streleau accounted for 10 points each. Stalter won the 100-yd. dash in 10 seconds flat and the 220-yd. dash in 21.8 seconds. Streleau won the high hurdles in 16 seconds flat and the low hurdles in 25.8 seconds.

Cadet Bob Ragsdale won the broad jump with a 22' 1/8" leap only to come back and anchor A&M's mile relay to another first place. Jim Dimmitt high jumped a winning six feet, which is outstanding in the freshman division. Malcolm Marks of the Aggies won the pole vault with a promising 12' 6" and Glenn Spradlin was second. Bob Beyer, who is from New York where the javelin is thrown in high school, won the javelin throw with a good distance of 158' 1/2".

Weight Events Strength

The Aggie Fish were stronger in the weight events, winning firsts in all three, the shot put, discus, and javelin, while allowing Rice to have only the second places. The Slimes took advantage of the distance races, winning the mile and half mile, with A&M taking

Fort Worth Wants A&M, Texas Back

Fort Worth, Tex., March 20.—(AP)—The Southwestern Recreation Track and Field meet got along pretty well without Texas and Texas A&M but you can bet your bottom dollar every effort will be made to get them back.

Texas and A&M skipped the big cinder path carnival last week-end because they were disgruntled over the condition of the track last year. The track was fixed but Texas A&M already had made plans for other meets.

Seven records were put into the books in this year's meet and that helped a lot. In fact, it was a very good meet and the times and distances compared favorably with those of other years.

The absence of Texas and A&M made it possible for Baylor to win the university division championship. It was the first time in many years that any team other than the Longhorns or Aggies had won the title. Baylor made 48 5/6 points. Arkansas was second with 33.

North Texas State swept up the college division with 70 points—almost 50 points better than runner-up McMurray. Schreiner took the junior college title with 44 1/3 points to 29 5/6 for Texas South-most of Brownsville. Oklahoma A. and M. captured the college freshman title with 50 points to 20 for Texas Christian.

Odessa won its second major championship in two weeks in the high school class. Winner at the Border Olympics, Odessa swept up the title here with 22 points. Sunset of Dallas was second with 10.

the second places. The two teams split the relays: Rice taking the sprint relay and A&M the mile.

In Fort Worth Hooper surpassed the records in both events he entered in the freshman division. He broke the 12-year-old discus mark set by Jack Hughes of Texas at 134' 8" by hurling the discus 145' 5".

Earlier in the meet the former North Sider put the shot 47' 2 1/2" to break the standard set in this event in 1949 by Reed Quinn of Texas at 45' 2". However, Bill Forrester of SMU beat Hooper out of the record later in the event by surpassing him by three inches.

Gerald P. Monks, fencing team letterman, won third place in an open men's novice foil meet held this weekend in Houston.

Owen Holzheuer, of the Galveston Buccaneers, came in first in the two hour blade clashing tournament. Leopold French, Rice Owl two year letterman, came in second in the fray, barely beating out Monks.

There were 22 men entered in the meet of which ten were Aggies. An individual team made up of freshmen from the annex went down to the journey under the direction of Dick Jones.

Members of the Varsity Team who entered the meet were Monks, E. T. Gennis, Chuck Massey, Carroll Bell, Aden Magee, and Frank Ragusa.

time and place with Ohio State slated for Tuesday and Wednesday, Oklahoma for Thursday, and Minnesota for Friday and Saturday.

A&M's baseball team added its second and third victories Friday and Saturday with a twin killing of the Houston Cougars.

The Aggies won their second game in as many starts Friday on Kyle Field, downing the Cougars, 7-4, before 2,000 fans.

The game started as if a race track would be made of the base paths with eight of the 11 runs being scored in the first two innings.

But it then settled down to a tight pitching duel between winner Sam Blanton and Sid Goodloe of the Aggies and Cougar slingers' Bobby Hollman and Jack Heartsell.

Moon Homers
Aggie left fielder Wally Moon accounted for the first five Farmer runs. He homered with one on in the first to give his team an early lead, and forced two more in on a triple in the second to pull the Ags back into command after a wild bit of Cadet defensive play enabled Houston to take a short 3-2 lead. After reaching third, Moon rushed home with another score after the pitcher had balked.

In a return match, A&M again beat Houston, 8-4, at the Bayou city, winning pitcher Pat Hubert stayed longer on the mound than any Aggie this season, going until the eighth inning and allowing three runs.

Joe Ecrette, who broke in at shortstop Friday for the Aggies, lead the hitters, getting three hits of four trips to the plate. Only one extra base blow was knocked in the contest.

Cougar starting pitcher John Boon and Hubert engaged in a tight pitching duel until Don Wilhelm replaced Boon in the sixth with AM ahead, 2-1.

The Aggies' big inning came in the seventh in three hits, an error, and a theft of home plate by Henry Candelari which netted A&M four runs.

Varsity Tops Fish In Weekend Match

The Aggie varsity golf team defeated the Freshman links quartet 6-6 Saturday afternoon on the Bryan Country Club course, according to A&M golf coach Gathorn Nowell.

Scores were higher than usual because of the high winds and fast greens. Complete results in the singles events of Saturday's match were J. C. Fletcher defeating Johnny Barrett, 2-1; Tom Aitken dropping Malcolm Douglas, 1 up; Monte Currie over Miller Barber, 4-3; and Gene Darby, 3-2 victor over Billie Baker.

In the doubles division the Aitken-Darby partnership won over the Barrett-Douglas combination, and Currie and Darby downed Barber and Baker.

Steers Take Title, Ags Slide to Third

By FRANK MANITZAS

Tex Robertson's Longhorns won their 18th straight SWC swimming championship last weekend in Waco with the SMU Mustangs edging out the Aggies for second place.

Van Adamson, sophomore swimming sensation of the Cadet squad, finished his first year in conference competition by knocking 5 seconds off the old record in the 200-yard individual medley; Adamson's time was 2:18.1.

The Steer mermen captured eight first places and amassed 128 points, the Mustangs finished with four firsts and 51 points, while the Cadets won only one first place in the entire meet and garnered 47 points. Baylor finished on the bottom with 21 points.

This is the first year since the forming of the first Aggie swimming team that the Cadets have finished lower than second place. The difference in A&M's being second or third came about when the Aggie foursome of Adamson, Billy Karow, Tommy Butler, and Ralph Ellis was disqualified in the 400-yard relay, although they finished a third of the length of the pool ahead of their nearest competitor—SMU.

Official judge Bob Tarleton of Texas disqualified the Aggie team in this race by ruling that anchor man Adamson left the box too soon on the final lap of the race. Coach Art Adamson vigorously protested the decision, which placed the Aggies in third place in the meet with the Mustangs cinching a second place. Had the Cadets held their win of the 400-yard relay, which was in record-surpassing time, they would have finished 16 points ahead of second place SMU.

Steers Dominate Meet
As far as the actual winner of the meet was concerned, the Longhorns had the swim fest sewed up and led all the way during the three-day meet.

Toby Westervelt finished in third place for the Aggie squad in the 50-yard freestyle. Bill Sargent and Don Blundell took second and third places, respectively, in the 150-yard backstroke, and Adamson and Ralph Ellis took second and fourth places, respectively, in the 220-yard freestyle.

Karow was third in the 220-yard breaststroke. Howell Johnson turned in a third place performance off the one-meter board, and Sargent grabbed the third spot in the 100-yard backstroke. Karow also took third in the 100-yard breaststroke, while Ellis finished in the same position in the 100-yard freestyle, and Sargent repeated his third place finish in 200-yard individual medley.

CCNY Risking No Loss Title

New York, March 20.—(AP)—City College of New York national invitation giant killer, today is eagerly looking forward to the NCAA tournament—and the chance of completing an unprecedented basketball "grand slam."

No team has ever won the two championships in one season. But the whirlwind Beavers from CCNY could be the first to turn the elusive trick. Certainly they must be rated a good possibility of their sensational showing in the NIT.

Nat Holman's unseeded, but un-daunted, sophomores won the NIT title like a true champion, too, by beating champions. The Beavers captured the 13th annual extravaganza Saturday with a 69 to 61 upset victory over top-seeded Bradley, the Nation's No. 1 team, before 18,000 bug-eyed fans at Madison Square Garden.

Prior to the final round upset, City rolled past San Francisco, defending NIT titlist, Kentucky, the nation's No. 3 team and Southwestern Conference kingpin; and Duquesne of Pittsburgh, ranked sixth in the final Associated Press poll.

Confronting the Beavers in the opening round of NCAA play Thursday at Madison Square Garden will be Ohio State, ranked No. 2 nationally and champions of the Western Conference.

And should City get past the Buckeyes, there'll be either Holy Cross or North Carolina State to contend with. Holy Cross, ranked fourth, and North Carolina State ranked fifth, will tangle in the other half of Thursday's double-header.

Meanwhile, Bradley, hardly disgraced by its defeat, may have another crack at CCNY. The Peoria, Ill., Braves will be at Kansas City tomorrow night for a joust with Kansas for the right to represent District Five in the NCAA Western Regional playoffs.
