

Cindermen Win Again; Drop Bengals in Beaumont, 72-45

By RAY HOLBROOK

A&M's cinder stars continued their winning ways for their fourth straight victory of the season by swamping the LSU Tigers, 72-45, in a dual meet held Saturday night in Beaumont.

The Aggies completely outclassed the bayou boys, winning nine firsts to six and sweeping six events. They were shut out in only the 880 and 220.

Aided by a 15 to 20 mile wind, Paul Leming ran a fast 14.5 high hurdles to gain nose out Alvin Allen of LSU in one of the meet's feature races. Leming, performing before a home town crowd, also pushed Bob Hall in the low, taking a close second.

Kadere Stars

George Kadere, Cadet weight star, and Joe Preston, Bengal sprinter, shared the spotlight as the meet's only double winners. George sailed the discus 165' 6" and achieved his best put of the year in the shot, heaving the ball 48' 3". Harold Voss, Tiger shot putter, did not compete.

Preston, running the 100 with the wind on a hard track, hung up a 9.5, beating out Bob Hall by a yard. He came back, running the 220 around the curve to register a poor 22.3 with Tiger teammate Breathwit second.

The distance races were considerably hampered by the wind and a very hard track and went in slow times with the Aggies' Julian Bonnen and Jim McMahon in that order in the two mile. Herring was timed at 4:32.3 and Bonned at 10:13.6.

Conference champion J. D. Hampton contented himself with a mild workout at third in the mile, looking forward to a busy weekend at the Texas Relays next week.

Tigers Dominated Half

LSU half-milers led by Dan Newsome with a 2:10.5 time ran away from the maroon and white in what stacked up to be a feature race. Don "Jose" Mitchell whipped Tiger Frank Sullwold down the stretch in taking the 440 in 49.2.

Glenn Lippman, performing on a very poor runway and pit, salvaged A&M's first broad jump points of the year in taking second with 21' 8" and at that leaping from far behind the improvised take-off board. Avery of LSU took first at 22' 1/4".

Leading the pole vault sweep was Jack Simpson, jumping 13' 4" from a loose runway into a poor pit. Don Graves was second with 13' and also teamed with Buddy Davis to sweep the high jump. Davis won at 6' 1" and was continually bothered by a loose take-off and the strong wind.

The low hurdles, run 100 yards on a short straightway, went to the Cadets' Bob Hall in a very fast 19.5.

LSU Takes Mile Relay

The Aggies ran a close second to LSU in the mile relay, without the aid of Mitchell and Bernard Place, until the anchor lap when Sullwold ran away from B. U. Terry to win by 10 to 15 yards. With Simpson not throwing, Ed Hooker took second in the javelin as well as garnering runner-up honors in the discus.

LSU's relay (Breathwit, Covington, Newsome, and Sullwold) was timed at 3:23 as it topped the A&M foursome (Shaefter, Ingelhart, Cardon, and Terry).

Steel of LSU won the javelin with a throw of 172' 5".

Bearcats Meet Cadets Tuesday

Sam Houston State of Huntsville will provide the opposition for the Aggie baseballers in a contest scheduled for 2:30 tomorrow afternoon.

Rice nudged the Bearcats, 3-2, in a tilt last Monday and on the basis of this performance the Huntsville crew can be expected to give the Cadets a good fight.

Cadets Split Gopher Series; Win First, 13-9; Drop Second

Pitching a no-hit ball game for 5 2/3 innings, George Brown lead the Cadet nine to its seventh win of the season in downing the Minnesota Gophers 13-9, Friday afternoon on the Kyle Field diamond.

After walking the Gophers' lead off man, Brown settled down, and with the support of the Aggie infield retired the following 17 batters in order: Brown was relieved in the eighth by Sid Goodloe after allowing the visitors five hits and three runs in the seventh inning. Goodloe was in turn replaced by Pat Hubert in the ninth after the visitors clouted him for four hits and six runs.

Wally Moon, Brown, and little Joe Savarino paced the Aggie hitters, with Yale Larry clouting the Cadets' only home run of the game in the lower part of the eighth inning.

The travel-weary Gophers gained only eight hits in 3 1/2 trips to the plate while at home they had 13 hits for 35 trips to the box.

Minnesota's Golden Gopher baseball team salvaged one victory from a disastrous Southwest Conference invasion Saturday, outdistanced A&M, 10-9, to hand the Aggies their second defeat in eight 1950 starts.

In a game that featured six home runs, A&M out hit Minnesota, collecting four circuit clouts and gaining nine base blows to the Gopher total of seven. But seven costly Cadet infield errors gave the invaders their first seasonal victory.

Aggie homeruns were collected by Henry Candelari, who swatted two, Lester Lackey and Wally Moon. For the winners Dick Mykelbust and winning pitcher Lloyd Hubert, p.

Fish Baseball Team On Top

Jack Brinkley hurled the Cadet Freshman baseball squad to its second straight victory in downing the Wharton Junior College Pioneers 14-2 in Wharton Friday afternoon. Brinkley gave up only five hits in pitching the entire game.

Copying the heavy hitting of their seniors, the Fish knocked three Wharton pitchers for 18 hits, two of which were home runs by Jerry Lastitch and Charley Russell. Lastitch homered in the second inning with none aboard while Russell's fourbagger drove in Aggie catcher Don Heft.

One of the Pioneer's two runs came in the second inning when the Wharton third baseman homered, while their second run of the afternoon came on two consecutive hits by the home team with the runner scoring from second.

Heft, who stayed behind the plate throughout the entire game, collected two hits in three times at bat; Bill Munnerlyn, first baseman, hit four for five trips to the plate; right fielder Russell hit a solid four for six; and the other hits were distributed among John Craiger and Gus McDonald, centerfielders, Jim Dishman, shortstop, Bill Bragg and Bill Hilton, third basemen, and Wes Parma, left fielder.

Both Boston Braves and the Cincinnati Reds this season will play only two day games in St. Louis. Each club has nine night games at Sportsman's Park.

Maroon pinch-hitter Hollis Baker slides safely into third base as the Gopher guardian, Bob Graumann, is pulled off the bag by the pen. Baker tried to start an Aggie rally, but the end of the inning found him still on third and Wally Moon on second with the Farmers trailing, 9-10.

Lundeen hit four baggers. Highlighting the contest were the consistent hitting and air-tight defensive play of Wally Moon, the effective relief pitching of Bruce Morrisse and Whitey Skogg, and numerous extra base blows.

Intramural Ring Finals Tonight at 7:30 in Gym

By NICK MANITZAS

Friday's semi-final bouts left A Ordinance in clear position for the boxing team championship with A Infantry and ASA tied for second place, while nine other teams are tied for third.

Finals in the eight divisions will be held tonight starting at 7:30 in the field house. Barney Welch will continue as referee with C. K. Easten, Leighton, Lomax and Burt Littlejohn repeating as judges.

In the sixteen bouts Friday night, all of the fighters put on a top show for all concerned especially the crowd of 1,500. With a large number of the bouts run off Friday, the opponents were so evenly matched that not all of the fans agreed with the decision handed down by the judges which, in a great number of cases, were split decisions.

Boxers Have It Rough

Both of the boxers to reach the final round in the 119-pound division had a hard time. Ed Fincias of ASA won over taller opponent Billy Holcomb of A Quartermaster with his continuous strong counter punching, although he was fighting from the defense more than from the offense. Fincias will meet Royce Brimberry of I Flight who barely edged Sonny Crowley of B Field in the other semi-final round.

The first round of the Crowley-Brimberry fight was a draw with both fighters throwing their usual punches. Crowley definitely held Brimberry at bay during the second round with his roundhouse punches which with his footwork kept his opponent on the retreat. In the climax of the final round Brimberry's aggressiveness seemed to pay off, although he too was much surprised at the outcome, as he took the final minute decision and the split decision as winner.

Curtis Favorite

D. S. Curtis of E Air Force definitely established himself as the man to beat for the 129-pound crown with the manner which he used in disposing of G. Pratt of D. Vet. Pratt never seemed to know what was going on from the starting ding to the final dog. Curtis will enter the ring tonight against Dwight Kemper of A Ordinance who's height and reach helped him to a three round decision over S. W. Thompson of the White Band.

Johnson Wins

Skippy Johnson of ASA, who could give anybody in his weight a good fight, ran into a lot of unexpected trouble when he met Lambert of A Composite last Friday. If Lambert had started the fight and worked his punches as he did in the final round where he completely whipped Johnson, the outcome of the bout might have been a different story, but Johnson's hustling and fast punching in the first two rounds advanced him to the finals. Johnson's opponent tonight will be Kidd of White Band who readily romped over Davenport of K Air Force in the semi-finals.

Only one bout was fought in the 149-pound class and it was won by Tom Royder of C Field Artillery who had quite a time trying to reach his opponent who towered 10 inches over him. Royder's systematic style of boxing that really batters his opponents worked the trick in downing Al Ringer of A QMC. Royder's opponent tonight will be Bernie Parkey of A Ordinance who won a forfeit bout over Bill "Knockout" Glover of E Field who was forced to default because of a sprained thumb which he had acquired in his last bout.

Marshall Surprise

Perhaps the top surprise of the evening was Curly Marshall's win over Bob Schubert of A QMC. Marshall of C Cavalry gave Schubert a tough time in the first round which together with the second round were draws. The determining factor for the final decision was Marshall's aggressiveness in the last minute.

Marshall will meet Ken Timmons of A Infantry for the championship of the 158-pound class tonight. Timmons won over Bo Dammuth of B Infantry by default.

Both of the semi-final bouts in the 169-pound class were of unequal interest although the fight between Sammy Aboud of A QMC and Oliver of CWS was a lighter fight. Aboud came out on top with a split decision, and will meet Don Brown of A Ordinance tonight for the title. Brown trounced Cusick of D Infantry in his last bout.

Pate Pounds Parr

In the first fight of the 179-pound division Joe Pate of F Air Force clobbered Charley Parr of E Air Force in all three rounds of their bout. Pate will enter the ring against Jones of E Infantry who scored an upset win over Pat Holmes of A Infantry last weekend.

Tom Ball of B Infantry edged pass Gottlieb of D Infantry in one of the semi-final bouts. Ball ran all over his opponent in the first two rounds but in the second round he was weakened by the losers continuous jabs to the midsection. Gottlieb ran away with the final round but Ball's aggressiveness in the first two rounds spelled the difference.

Ball will meet Don Hickman of A Infantry for the heavyweight championship. Hickman thoroughly battered Seibeth of C Infantry to win his berth in the final round.
