

Langford Re-elected Mayor As Ames, Orr, Gorzycki Win

By F. H. DONOVAN

Langford, Ames, Orr, and Gorzycki were re-elected in the College Station general election yesterday, while a run-off will be necessary to determine who will be councilman from Ward II for the next two years, according to City Manager Raymond Rogers.

Mayor Ernest Langford polled 180 votes of the 171 cast, returning to the office he has held since 1942. Two names were written in, J. C. Gaines, who received one vote, and Joe Motherall, who polled ten votes, Rogers said.

J. A. Orr took his office of councilman of Ward I unopposed, receiving 41 votes. Homer Adams received two write-in votes.

The hotly contested race for councilman of Ward II found the incumbent, Robert B. Halpin, leading his nearest rival, Charles J. Gorzycki, by one vote—36 to 35. Bill Mitchell and Lloyd G. Berryman received 15 and 14, respectively.

Rogers said a run-off election for Halpin and Keese will be held about May 4.

In the race for councilman of Ward III, E. E. Ames was re-elected over W. H. Freiberger by a vote of 16 to 11. Ames is owner of the Ames Travel Agency at the North Gate.

Charles J. Gorzycki, unopposed for re-election for recorder of corporation court, received all 178 votes cast at the polls.

returns," Rogers pointed out. "The city council will meet sometime late tomorrow and release official returns," he said.

Ernest Langford

Mayor of College Station once again is Ernest Langford who was elected to office for the fifth time yesterday. He won the election for mayor with little opposition. Only eleven write-in votes were cast against him.

Benefit Movie Will Aid CHS Students

The Kiwanis Club will sponsor a benefit movie, "Make Mine Laughs", starring Ray Bolger, in Quion Hall, April 10, at 7:30, announced Dixie Southern, chairman of the finance committee, today.

Proceeds from the show will be used by the club to provide better facilities for students in the Consolidated School System. Recently, the club completely paid for lighting the high school football field, Southern said.

Plans for the show are being made jointly by Southern and Dick Hervey, chairman of the entertainment and recreation committee.

Tickets can be purchased from Kiwanians or at the door Monday night. Admission will be 50 cents for adults and 15 cents for children through high school age. Aggies will be charged the regular 30 cents.

Church Talk Aired Thursday Morning

The first of two talks on "Mission at the Grass Roots" by Mrs. J. S. Mogford will be aired over WTAW Thursday at 10 a. m. under the sponsorship of the College Station Council of Church Women.

The talk will be based on the activities of rural churches. Mrs. Mogford was formally a home demonstration agent in church work.

Mrs. Dallas Belcher, radio chairman for the A&M Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service, will be in charge of the April programs. Messrs. Julian Hillman and Louis V. Hanna are others also scheduled for April talks.

Band Mothers Plan Square Dance Duet

Two square dances are planned to be held jointly at A&M Consolidated school April 21 by the Consolidated Band Mother's Club.

At a called committee meeting held at the home of the club's president, Mrs. D. W. Fleming, last Friday it was decided to provide two sets of callers—one for the children's group and one for the adult group.

In case of rain both dances will be held inside the building. Proceeds of the dance will go to the band.

Eaton-Hensel Vows Read in 'Y' Chapel

On Sunday afternoon in the chapel of the YMCA, Miss Francis Dorothy Eaton became the bride of Frederick W. Hensel. Rev. James Moudy, pastor of the A&M Christian Church, officiated.

The bride and groom are both from College Station and will make their home here following a wedding trip to New Orleans.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Iowa. The groom is a graduate of A&M, and is now employed at the college.

Koch Tells ASCE Of City Planning

Oscar Koch, city planning engineer from Dallas, spoke to the ASCE last night on the purpose and importance of city planning.

Every city and town should have a definite long range plan in developing its land resources so as to make it a more desirable place in which to live," he told the audience.

Koch, outlined a "logical plan that every city planner should follow" in laying the foundation and guiding the growth of a progressive city. The point was stressed that the future should be given careful consideration in any action taken.

"Every city builder should keep in mind this question: will this improvement contribute to making the city a more desirable place in which to live, work, and play?" said Koch.

that the whole state will end up in bloodshed."

Daniel insisted: "We don't have prejudice or hatred as some people would have you believe. Negroes and whites are pretty much against mixing socially—crossing the line. White men don't feel this a bit stronger than Negro men feel it. We ask to be allowed to take care of the situation as the need for segregation vanishes."

Election Committee Meets Today at 5

The Student Senate election committee will meet this afternoon at 5 p. m. in room 211 of Goodwin Hall, committee chairman Roy Nance said this morning.

The committee will make decisions on class elections and the general campus elections scheduled this month, Nance said.

Student Center Tour Set Today

This week's directed tour of the Memorial Student Center, conducted by J. Wayne Stark, director of the MSC, will be held today at 5 p. m., he said this morning.

The tour scheduled for Friday is cancelled because of the college's Easter holidays, Stark said. All people interested in the conducted tour are requested to meet at the Southwest entrance of the building, he added.

Mrs. Little is celebrating her third anniversary as a College Station business woman. She is proprietor of the Aggie Land Flower Shop located on Sulphur Springs Road.

Allen Helps Write Commission Ruling

Master Sergeant Truman Allen has returned to A&M from a two week tour of temporary duty at Mitchell Air Force Base, Long Island, New York.

Allen was ordered to the Continental Air Command at MAFB for the purpose of helping to re-write Air Force regulations pertaining to the commissioning process for both regular and reserve Air Force officers.

Allen is in charge of the commissioning section of the Military Department. A&M has the largest output of both regular and reserve Air Force officers in the nation. Two other Southwest Conference schools are also numbered among the top ten colleges insofar as number of Air Force commissions given each year is concerned. They are Southern Methodist University, which stands fifth, and the University of Texas which is sixth.
