Election Deadline Saturday; 21 File

Twenty-one students had filed applications by 5. p. m. yesterday afternoon for 18 offices to be filled in the spring campus elections scheduled for this month.

Filing for non-corps editor of The Battalion are: Sid Abernathy, junior ag journalism, Rusk; Ken Bernhardt, senior, accounting, Port Arthur; Ray Williams, junior, CE, Fort Worth; and Jerry Zuber, senior, journalism, Bellville.

Dave Coslett, junior, journalism, Miles; and Clayton Selph, junior, journalism, Houston, have filed for corps editor of The Batalion.

Magnatine Bilitam

Magazine Editors

Six students have filed for the four editorships open on student magazines. George Charlton, jun-ior, journalism, Dallas; and Her-man Gollob, junior, English, Hous-ton, have filed for editor of The Commentator.

Filing for editor of The Agriculturist are Alfred Hardin, junior, ag eco, Amarillo; and Jim House, junior, ag ed, Goldthwaite.

Homer Finch, junior, ME, Dallas; and Jim Kadel, Junior, ME Houstone have filed for editor of The Engineer.

No candidates have yet filed for editor of The Southwestern Veterinarian.
Editors of student magazines are selected by the Councils of the individual schools sponsoring the publications. Entertainment Manager

Four students have filed for Student Entertainment Manager (formerly Town Hall Manager). They are James Boyles, junior, ME, El Paso; Albert Demis, junior, ag eco, Lampasas; Douglas Hearne, junior, prelaw, Blanco; and Dick Kelly, junior, pre-law, Next year's senior class elects

the Entertainment Manager.
Only three men have thus far filed for five yell leader positions.
Bill Richey, junior, GE, San Antonio, has filed for senior yell leader I. F. Laboratory and the senior yell leader y leader. L. E. Jobe, sophomore, economics, Amarillo, has filed for

Oilman, Ag Ex Slated to Talk of '30, former Longhorn editor and founder of the Scholarship Honor Society, will speak to members of the Petroleum Club tomorrow night at 7:30 in the Petroleum Lecture Owl's Tobin Rote threw the jave-line 204, to crack Rob Goode's old

A consulting geologist and inde pendent oil operator, Halbouty has given four fellowships to students doing graduate study in geology and petroleum engineering at A Halbouty formerly was chief petroleum engineer and a vice pres-ident in Glenn McCarthy Enterpris-es. He is listed in Who's Who Among Young Men of America, Who's Who in Engineering, and Who's Who Among Men of Achievment in Texas.

During his enrollment at A&M the Houston ex was active in many campus organizations. He was a first lieutenant on the Corps Staff, member of the Executive Cabinet, a four-year member of the Geol-ogical Society, and a student associate of the AIMME.

He was also a member of the Society of American Military Engineers and the National Scholastic Press Association. He was active in both varsity and intramural Halbouty will beca guest of the 440 up. Cadet Corps tomorrow evening in Duncan Hall for dinner.

and non-corps editor of The Ag-gleland 1951. At five yesterday afternoon, no candidates had filed for either post.

Deadline for all applications is noon, Saturday, April 15. None of the election dates have been set, according to Student Senate President Keith Allsup.

Judy Munroe Judy, a senior at Jefferson High School in San Antonio, will rep-resent the Battalion as their duchess in the Cotton Pageant and Ball. Her escort will be George Charlton, junior jour-nalism major from Dallas.

Cadet Trackmen Win Over Rice and Texas

The fightin' Aggie track team came from behind with a terrific finish and caught Texas U. in the last event to win the annual Quarterback Relays by two points on 39 1/3.

points on the basis of the after- and fourth. noon broad jump and javeling suddy Davis tied with Vern Mc-events as the night meet began; Grew of Rice and Bob Walters of the Aggies had not gained a single Texas in the high jump at 6'4". point in these events. At the worst through with the runner-up points as Rice won in 3:18 for a new

It looked as if the Aggies might edge the Owls in the last event with Don Cardon and Buddy Shaeffer bringing in about an eight-yard lead. However, Red Brown of the Owls overtook Bernard Place and Michael T. Halbouty, Class Don Mitchell which he held easily.

Cadets Crack Records Seven records were broken Satlin 204' to crack Bob Goode's old

Charley Parker ran the 220 in 21.0 for a new record and anchored the 440 relay to a new standard of 42.0. He had earlier won the 100 in 9.8 for a 11 1/4 point total and high point honors. George Kadera broke his old discus record with a 159' 31/2 toss. He also won the shot, putting it 46 2". Bob Hall continued his low hurdle monopoly, winning in record time of 23.0.

Simpson Sets Mark

Jack Simpson again showed the way in the pole vault for the Ag-gies by going 13' 6" and topping the old record by a foot. He barely missed at 14', but will be after that mark again every week and should get it before the season is double winner, taking the mile and two-mile though not approaching his mile mark due to a strong wind that slowed all races from the fourth in the two-mile. Leming Wins Again

The Aggies showed their distance curities representing 46 strength with Julian Herring and Southwestern industries.

Paul Leming won the high hurin Corpus Christi last Saturday dles in 14.7 with Billy Bless fourth, night. A&M had 66 1/3 points to but these two boys were surprised 64 1/3 for TU, with Rice trailing by Persons of Texas in the lows, n 39 1/3.
Texas was leading by 16 Bless and Leming finished third Texas in the high jump at 6' 4". Bob Hall came in a surprising third in the 100 and Dave Yiengst point TU was leading by 21 points before the powerful Gadets began whittling at the lead.

The situation looked hopeless and fourth in the 220. and fourth in the 220.

the expected duel as he faded on and the Maroon relay came the last turn. Don Sparks took the through with the runner-up points 880 for TU as the Aggies failed to Don Graves tied for second in the pole vault to complete the scoring for the maroon and white.

Investor's Talk Due in YMCA

dent and director of Texas Fund, Inc., will speak on investment funds tomorrow night at 7:30 in the YMCA Chapel, D. R. Fitch, associate pro-fessor in the Department of Business and Accounting, said today. Dykes is one of the founders of Texas Fund, a Houston fund research and management firm.

A graduate of Lehigh University, Class of 1925, Dykes has been in the investment business since 1931. From that year until 1946 he was a partner in the Boston firm of Enderson and Cromwell and was one of a group of men who formed the Fidelity Fund in the early '30's.

During the war Dykes served for three years as a combat intelli-gence officer with the Army Air Forces in the South Pacific. From 1946 until 1949 he was with another Boston firm, Rusver.

J. D. Hampton was the only other served as an investment counselor and managed a mutual fund.

Early in 1949 he joined a group of Houston business men and established the Texas Fund, Inc.

Texas Fund currently holds sections are the veteran companies, ath-

Tau Beta Phi Sets Mrs. Cashion Selected Banquet, Initiation Aggie 'Mother of Year'

7 p. m.

Regular officers will conduct the initiation. These officers include President Don Jarvis, Recording Secretary Bill Wise, Vice President Douglas Sewell, treasurer Tom Reynolds, and corresponding Secretary Otto Kunze.

Chevalier to Speak

The A&M Pistol Team just completed firing in

Col. Willard Chevalier, executive vice president of McGraw-Hill Publishing Co, and a member of "Who's Who in Engineering," will be guest speaker. Col Chevalier, a civil engineer and prominent in the world of technical publications, will speak on the topic, "Are En-gineers Human?"

Following Col. Chevalier will be Miss Doris Turek, playing the ac-cordion, and a vocal group from the Singing Cadets. President Jarvis will be

John Garmany taking second and charge of the program, and Dean third in the mile and Herring and of Engineering Howard W. Barlow, Jerry Bonnes garnering third and faculty sponsor of the chapter, faculty sponsor of the chapter. will welcome the guests. The local chapter of Tau Beta Phi, a nationally recognized honor society for engineers, was organized in 1948. The first initiation was held in October of that year, with three subsequent ini-

Present membership in the local

Four Debaters

at first, but with only the mile relay remaining, the Sippers led by a single point. Since only the first two places counted in the relays, A&M needed only a second to win the expected duel as he faded on Spring Forensic Tournament. Spring Forensic Tournament to be held in Austin, April 13-15, according to Harry Heirth, acting

Those making the trip will be Douglas Hearne of Blanco and Joe Perry of Ozona, who compose the affirmative team; and James Farmer of College Station and Dan Davis of Lubbock, who com-

Victor Dykes, vice president and director of Texas

speaking contest, Heirth said.
The question to be debated is "Resolved, That the Nations Which Signed the Atlantic Pact Should Form a Federal Union Within the Framework of the United Nations." The program calls for eight rounds of debate, with each team debating the same side of the question in each round.

6th Regiment Ball Planned Saturday

The second annual Sixth Regiment Ball will be held Saturday night in Sbisa Hall, Willy Bohlmann, cadet colonel, said today. Bill Turner and the Aggieland Orchestra will provide the music for dancing.

Invitations to the ball are available from all first sergeants in the regiment, Bohlmann said. He invited all former members of the Sixth Regiment to attend.

Plans for presenting the regi mental sweetheart are being com-

Texas Fund currently holds se-curities representing 46 Texas and letic companies, and day student Summit, Mich. companies.

Fifty-two undergraduate students, 11 staff members, and 31 alumni are to be initiated into the Texas Delta Chapter of Tau Beta Phi in a ceremony at 5 this afternoon in the Chemistry Lecture Room.

Following the initiation, a ban-quet will be held in Sbisa Hall at National Pistol Finished Here

The A&M Pistol Team has just completed firing in the National Intercollegiate Pistol Matches, Lt. Col. Frank Swoger, said this morning. Firing was done in competition with 50 other college teams from throughout the nation.

Final results for the matches will not be known until summertime, Swoger said. All score cards are sent to the National Rifle Association headquarters for tabulations and winners are announced when results are complete.

In addition to the team firing, Swoger continued, Team Captain A. W. Benefield and H. Q. Haile, both pistol team members, have completed individual firing for the National Intercollegiate Pistol Match. They are firing in competition with members of the collegiate teams in the nation.

The A&M team has fired in 43 matches this year, Swoger said, and has won 35 of them.

Matches Won During the last two weeks A&M has won matchés against the Coast Guard Academy, Princeton, U. of Mass, U. of Arizona, Ohio State, and Camp Hood.

A&M is the only Southwest Conference School with a pistol team. Four other matches remain on the Aggie schedule. They are with Utah State, U. of Wisconsin, U. of Illinois, and Michigan State. Members of the A&M team are, besides Benefield and Haile, J. E. Brown, B. P. Lowry, J. V. Aalto, N. M. Kenny, C. G. Hunt, F. F. Means, and H. D. Witcher. Top five team members are with 278 points out of a possible 300, Aalto, 274; Benefield, 277; Lowry, 268, and Means, 260.

Mrs.M. L. Cashion of College Station will be Honor Mother of the Year at the Open House Ceremonies Sunday, May 14. She was named for the honor recently by the State Federation of A&M Club.

The wife of YMCA secretary M. L. Cashion, she came to the A&M Mothers' Clubs.

Each year this organization chooses a parent they feel posing year was moved to the office of president.

In 1947, she served as state fifth vice president of the State Federation of A&M Mothers' Clubs. She became state treasurer in

During the war, she was patron-ess for the A&M Student Wives

Two Sons Here

Mrs. Cashion is the mother of two boys, both presently enrolled in the college. Jimmy, the eldest, graduates this June. A three-year football letterman, he was quarter-back on the 1949 Aggie team.

Mason Cashion entered A&M last fall as a freshman. Presently try-ing out for the baseball team, he was a football standout on the 1948 A&M. Consolidated High School

Much of Mrs. Cashion's contact with the student body has come through her long service on the hospital committee of the A&M Hospital. Describing this service, Mrs. Jane Wheeler Williams, chairman of the local Committee for Mother of the Day, says in her letter of nomination:

"When a boy is sick he wants his mother, and often because of low finances and great dis-tances, mothers have not been able to come to their boys sick in the hospital at A&M, but they did not need to worry, for Mrs. Cash-ion was always there with her-loving mother touch to fill the places vacated by them." Auxiliary Head

A member of the A&M Presbyterian Church, Mrs. Cashion is president of that church's ladies auxiliary.

She was born in Wills Point.

Texas and attended Baylor for two years. She met her husband while he was a student at Austin College. They were married in 1925.

Mrs. Cashion will be present as Honor Mother of the Day at a special ceremony in Guion Hall on Mother's Day. The ceremony will be part of a full day of ac-tivities dedicated to the parents of the men of A&M. Mrs. Randolph Lee Clark, Sr. of Cisco, Texas, was honored at last year's ceremonies. She is the mother of nine children and has two grandsons, both A&M men.

pose the negative team. Farmer is also entered in the impromptu speaking contest, Heirth said. The question to be debated is "Resolved, That the Nations Which Signed the Atlantic Pact Should Form a Federal Union Within the the winner will spend two weeks sailing, and sand dune climbing.

Mrs. M. L. Cashion

Mrs. Cashion, wife of YMCA Secretary M. L. Cashion, was recently chosen by the Federation of A&M Mothers' Clubs as the Honor Mother of the Year. She has been associated with activities on the A&M campus for the last quarter century and has two sons presently enrolled here.

By L. O. TEIDT

Four juniors in the School of Agriculture will face a six-man selection committee tomorrow at 3 p. m., which will give the nod to one of the four to reserve the month of August for important doings.
This committee is the faculty selection committee for the Dan-forth Summer Fellowships to be awarded to the most outstanding junior in the School of Agriculture. Before the committee for consideration for this honor will be Burt H. Gibbs, animal husbandry major from Justin; Layton L. Lomax, agricultural engineering major from Ft. Worth, John M. Oglesby, agricultural education major from Goldthwaite; and Jack McCarley, dairy husbandry major from Denison.

Expenses Paid

One of these men will receive an all-expense paid trip, both educa-tional and entertaining, to St. Louis, the Ralston-Purina Mills, After two weeks in St. Louis, at Camp Miniwanca, American Youth Foundation Leadership camp on Lake Michigan.

will tour and inspect the breed ing, feeding, management, and sanitation phases at the experiment station near the city with agriculture students from the other 47 states. Time will also be spent inspecting the research laboratories and mills of the Ralston-Purina Company.

Extra-curricular Activity Night life for the group has not been neglected for the trip win-

According to Bobby Bland, winner of the trip last year, "They (the Danforth Planning Committee) plan your entire day, including the nights, and you don't miss. a thing."

Mornings at camp Miniwanca are spent in class, but the afternoons Bland, "It's the best thing that are devoted to swimming, diving, can happen to you."

Harold Vance, Petroleum Department—"You can't get crude oil with a French curve."

The two freshmen winners also to be selected tomorrow will join the junior winners for the two During the course of his stay week encampment at Camp Mini-at St. Louis, the selected junior wanca.

No Freshman Applicants

At 5 p. m. yesterday, no fresh-men had applied for the award. One of the freshmen winners must be studying Preparatory Veter-inary Medicine, while the other of only for the laughs. can be a major in any of the agricultural courses.

professors Price Hobgood, H. E. Hampton, A. V. Moore, O. E. keep constant check on the pro-Sperry, J. M. Schrum, and J. gress of his ulcers. Wheeler Barger, chairman of the portation from here to St. Louis latches on heads to permit easy will be reimbursed for trip expen- sisted on playing handball inside After St. Louis, there is the encampment on Lake Michigan.

All in all, the trip can be supported by the cranium after an brass rail calesthenics.

All in all, the trip can be supported by the cranium after an brass rail calesthenics.

Take a Break

Listening in on a casual conversation between two well-known campus elbow benders we heard leycorn said he was considering having an observation trap door installed on his person so he might

The junior winner must be ing the anatomy of indulgers. He added a second thought on alterprepared to provide his own trans- recommended the use of hinges and and from Michigan back home, but removal of the "little men" who inses. The freshman winners must the cranium after an evening of

FAMOUS CAMPUS QUOTES:

Tina Goegory

Tina, a student at Sam Houston State Teachers College and hall-ing from Mexia, will represent the Institute of Aeronautical Sciences as their duchess in the Cotton Pageant and Ball. Her escort will be Jim Kelleher, aero major from New rland, Pa.

Patsy Brown

Miss Brown, sophomore at NT-SC, has been chosen as the duchess for the Discussion and Debate Society in the Cotton Pageant and Ball. Her escort will be Bill Stephenson, senio CE major. Both are from Sherman. Texas.

Tiney Sessums

Tiney, a graduate from East Texas Baptist College and from Dallas, will represent the Cass County Club in the Cotton Pageant and Ball as their duchess. She will be escorted by Donald Ayers, senior Ag Ed major from Linden, Texas.

Frances Smith

Frances, whose home is Guntersville, Alabama, will represent the A&M Creative Writing Club at the Cotton Pageant and Ball. Her escort will be Bob Lane, senior petroleum engineering major from Lima, Peru.

Jeane Kernodle

Mrs. Kernodle will represent the Aggie Players as their duchess in the Cotton Pageant and Ball. She will be escorted by her husband, John, graduate chemistry student.

Mildred Klesel

Miss Klesel, a freshman journalism major at TU, will represent the ASCE as their duchess in the Cotton Pageant and Ball. She will be escorted by Willy F. Bohlman, senior CE major. Both hail from Schulenburg,

Marilyn Muldowney

Mrs. Muldowney will represent the Entomology Society as their duchess in the Cotton Pageant and Ball. She will be escorted by her husband T. J. Muldowney, senior entomology student from

Geneva Elliott

Geneva will represent the Bell County A&M Club in the Cotton Pageant and Ball as their duchess. Her escort will be her husband Carl L. Elliott, senior agriculture major. Both are from Temple, Texas.