The Brazos Valley Kennel Club presented its fifth annual all-breed dog show Tuesday in the Animal Husbandry Pavilion with dogs from a twenty-two state area entered. The dogs were from the American Kennel Club area enclosed by Division No. 2 West and South.

Forty classes of dogs were shown, sub-divided into six groups. Groups shown were sporting breeds, hound breeds, working breeds, terrier breeds, toy breeds, and non-sporting breeds.

Winner of the sporting breeds was a pointer, Champion Staber's Inspiration, owned by Grace C. Staber of Ingelwood, California. The hound breeds' winner was a Wirehaired Dachshund, Canadian and American Champion Brentwald Joshua W., owned by Herman G. Cox of Fort Worth.

Group Winners

Wirehaired Fox Terrier, Payoff's Son Jim won the trophy in the terrier breeds, entered by C. L. Davenport of Midland. The toy breeds was won by Champion Patzie Mill-Mass, a Miniature Pinscher owned by Mildred C. Mastin of Mobile, Alabama.

The Sunray Trophy for best in non-sporting breeds went to a Keeshonden, English Champion Waarborg of Wistonia, owned by Flakkee Kennels of Beverly Hills, California.

The "Best in Show" Trophy went to the winner of the hound breeds, Canadian and American Champion Brentwald Joshua W. This was the eleventh time this dog has won "best in show."

Judges for the show were C. J. Murphy of Nashville, Tenn., C. A. Plummer and Lewis G. Spenser of Dallas, and Mervin F. Rosenbaum of San Francisco, Cal. Albert Loast of Kansas City, Mo. was show superintendent.

Officers of the Brazos Valley Kennel Club are Albert K. Sparks, president; Lewis Haupt, vice-president; Mrs. A. K. Sparks, treasurer; and Mrs. Marion R. Mangrum, secretary. The officers of the club formed the show committee with L. E. McCall as chairman.

leave to your own good judgment. It might be relatively meaningless, or it might indicate something less than complete satisfaction with the manner in which the city government is being operated. If the latter, it is perhaps natural that the protest should be registered against you as the major candidate whose name appeared on all ballots.

This is an explanation, not an apology. Those who wrote in my name were undoubtedly sincere and certainly within their rights. I simply want to make it clear to you that I do not approve of this method of attempting to displace a public official, which is only one of several reasons why I voted for Ernest Langford. If the time should ever come when I feel impelled to run for Mayor of College Station, it will be out in the open where all the voters may express a preference.

Sincerely yours,
Joe R. Motheral

Ceremonies Set By Catholics

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the new Catholic Student Center will be held next Sunday just north of St. Mary's Chapel at North Gate, on the site of the new building.

The day's program will celebrate the 45th anniversary of Msgr. J. B. Gleissner as chaplain to Catholics at A&M, according to Dr. P. J. Woods, member of the local building committee.

A field mass on the building site at 10:30 will be personally celebrated by Msgr. Gleissner, assisted by two former A&M students, Rev. James Nelson and Rev. Ernest Michalka, of the La Porte Theological Seminary. This will be followed by a "diamond jubilee banquet" at Eblen Hall with Gen. James H. O'Neill, chief of chaplains, U. S. Army, as principal speaker.

The ground-breaking for the center will be done that afternoon by A&M President F. C. Bolton, Bishop Louis F. Reichler of Austin, and Msgr. Gleissner.

All students are invited to attend a reception in the chapel of the YMCA from 4 to 6 Saturday afternoon honoring Gen. O'Neill.

The fourth grade of A&M Consolidated School, under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. John V. Perry, presented their annual program entitled "Good Neighbors" to the school last week. Members of the cast were (left to right, seated): Julian Donahue, Martha Burke Sue Mowery, Alma Ann Elliott, Barbara Freibe, Ann Cleland, Mary Margaret Heith, and Harry Ray Terry. Standing: Judith Bishop, Frank Booth, Wanda Franklin, Alfred Hanceck, Wayne Thompson, Paul King, Virgil Arnold, Mary Garcia, Emily Sue Bernard, Gail Schlesselman, John Martinez, Steadman Davis, Pauline Duran, Joe Smith, Larry Spalding, Bill Brazzale, Sidney Greer, Burney Meyer, James Arnold, and Jerry Holland. ## An open letter to the people of Bryan and College Station:

On Thursday I went to Dalls to see a new car. I had heard and you had probably heard rumors about many small cars and radical designs which were to come out. I didn't expect to see a great change. The reason for this is that I had seen other Companies make claims about their smaller lower priced cars. When these cars came out you and I both were disappointed. These cars were simply stripped down copies of present models.

I expected more from Nash, but I wasn't prepared for what I saw. Please take my word for it—The New Nash I saw was DIFFERENT!

To those people who have wanted a convertible but would not buy one because of the lack of safety—I assure you that this new Nash Convertible is as safe as any standard hard top sedan. That's a big statement but a true one!

Here's something else that's hard to believe. We haven't gotten the actual prices yet, but this we know—this New Nash—a full standard size 5 passenger convertible sedan—custom complete with:

1. CUSTOM UPHOLSTERY—(Pin Point and pin stripe Mohair combination)
2. The famous Nash WEATHER-EYE CONDITIONING SYSTEM
3. The sweetest designed RADIO and ANTENNA
4. Solid custom HUB-CAPS
5. DIRECTIONAL SIGNALS—SEMI AUTOMATIC TYPE
6. CARPET TYPE FLOOR MATS
7. FOAM CUSHIONS
8. ELECTRIC CLOCK
9. Custom STEERING WHEEL and SEVERAL OTHER EXTRAS

All this is standard equipment—Yet, with all this—The New NASH RAMBLER Convertible is lower priced than any other of the lowest priced convertibles on the market—without any equipment on them at all!

I personally invite all of you to see the—NEW NASH RAMBLER LANDAU.

TOMORROW FRIDAY APRIL THE 14TH
