

College Station Tankers Second At TAAF Meet

The College Station swimming team returned from Tyler and the TAAF swimming and diving meet with the second place trophy in its possession, having scored 119 points to the first place total of 115 1/2 which was garnered by the San Antonio Aquatic Club.

Disqualification of the local tankers entry in the women's relay event and a slow finish by

Coach Art Adanson's swimmers was the turning point of the meet in favor of San Antonio. Adanson commented that he was "kicked to death" over the outcome of College Station in one of the largest TAAF meets that he has seen. He added that the local

Schroeder Ousted By Flam in Finals

River Forest, Ill., July 25.—(AP)—In only 50 minutes, the nation's top-ranked amateur, Davis Chip veteran Ted Schroeder was soundly trounced by national collegiate champion Herb Flam in straight sets, 6-3, 4-2, 6-2, in the finals of the National Clay Courts tennis meet yesterday.

It was a blow to Schroeder, top-seeded in the tourney, who has hoped to use his first clay courts title as a stepping stone to the 1950 Davis Cup team. And it was his second defeat in little more than a week. He was beaten in the semi-finals of the recent western tourney at Indianapolis by Tony Trabert.

Flam played brilliantly, flashing an almost perfect defensive game which broke Schroeder's service nine times and forced the La Graciosa, Calif., veteran into a total of 79 errors.

The 22-year-old Flam, who won the 1949 national collegiate crown representing UCLA, committed only 29 errors. Third-seeded in the meet, Flam went to the net only when necessary and made Schroeder look bad almost every time he did.

Selden in his career has the 29-year-old Schroeder played so demoralizingly. His only upset of competence came during the first set when he did negotiate eight placements against Flam's four.

All-Star Gridsters Reading For Eagles

By FRANK N. MANITZAS
Battalion Sports Editor

Dr. Eddie Anderson of Holy Cross has quite a job on his hands in attempting to have the college All-Star football squad in shape and ready to take on the Philadelphia Eagles, champions of the National Football League come Aug. 11.

MANITZAS

Practicing on the campus of St. John's Military Academy, Delfield, Wis., the fifty-one college gridsters from 33 different colleges and universities will be attempting to click as a team using the T formation as their form of attack.

Over at Grand Rapids, Minn. Coach Earle "Greasy" Neale will be putting his championship professional football team through the paces.

This will be the second season in a row that the Eagles have competed in the annual classic which is being held at Chicago's Soldier Field. Last year, the 16th year of the classic, the Eagles shutout the All-Stars, 38-0; hence, the college footballers will be more than eager to win as they will be out to avenge last year's loss.

Four players from the SWC, Doak Walker of SMU, Adrian Burk and J. D. Ison of Baylor, and Joe Watson of Rice, are on the All-Star squad. The squad has been cut in number from the regular 70-man unit to the present list of 52 in order that more players will be able to play in the game.

Bob McChesny, end from Hardin Simmons, is the other member of the All-Star squad from the surrounding territory.

SWC Stars' Actions, May Be Limited

The way it looks now, only Joe Watson from the College of the Pacific as well as Adrian Burk, in the game between the Rebels and the Yankees, Tidwell led his team, the Rebels, to a 22-13 victory, completing 13 of 19 attempted passes for 245 yards and two TDs.

He was the nation's leader in offensive yardage in '46, but in the two years that followed, he was inactive because of a broken ankle. Le Baron also played for the Rebels in the same game and passed for a counter and also boot for the winners.

Listed among the standouts for the collegians are fullbacks, Emil Stiko, Notre Dame; Art Murakowski, Northwestern; and Bill Svoboda, Tulane. Among the ends are Bill Wightkin and Leon Hart, both of Notre Dame; and Art Weiser of North Carolina.

Top tackles listed are Jim Martin, Notre Dame; Don Campora, College of the Pacific; Leo Noppell, Minnesota; and Lou Karras, Purdue.

Named among the top guards in the country and listed on the All-Star team include John Schneider, Pennsylvania; George Hughes, William & Mary; Ed Bagdon, Michigan State; and Porter Payne, Georgia.

Completing the list are the nation's leading centers among whom are Clayton Tommenaker, Minnesota; Harry Kane, College of the Pacific; and Bob Fuchs, Missouri.

Eagles To Use Outside T

Tommy Thompson, who can remember for his football days at Ft. Worth and while at the University of Tulsa, will be the man under for the Eagles. The outside T, which is merely the T formation with most of the plays being run around the outside of the line and between tackle and end, is very adept to passing plays.

Receiving Thompson's passes will be Pete Tihg, who was an all-American fullback while at Indiana and weighs 295 and stands 6'1". Tihg is one of the faster ends in the business, being able to run the 100 in 10 flat.

Other members of the team that may start are center Dick Linscog, guards Bucko Kilroy and Cliff Tilton, who once played for TCU, tackles El Wistert and Vick Sears, ends Pete Phillos and Neal Armstrong, and backs Joe Muha, Bosh Prickard, and Ark's Clyde Scott.

Texas Geologists Edge Walton In Nine Innings

Texas Geology's softball team got off on the right foot last night as it won its opening game of the second summer season defeating Walton in nine innings, 5-4.

In earlier games yesterday Miller easily defeated Dorm 17 with three big innings, 11-3, and TCVV shut out Dorm 14, 4-0, with L. E. Winder pitching a top notch ball game, allowing no more than four batters to face him in each of the seven frames. He retired the side in order in four of the innings.

It was Walton's second loss in two playing days, and its third for the second session having lost Friday to Dorm 15, 3-1. The other game Friday featured Williams twirling TCVV to an 8 to 4 win over Dorm 15.

Pitcher Cooley of TU gave up only four hits and allowed only three bases on balls while striking out 14 Walton batters. Losing pitcher Bill Plagens was hit for nine bases, walked seven, and whiffed 17 Texans.

The Geologists used a ninth inning rally which produced two runs off a walk and two singles to win the game. Sadler and Dean scored the markers with Sadler and McChesny receiving the bingles.

Walton also scored in the ninth, but only Bob Lawler crossed the plate, breaking the tie which had existed since the sixth inning only to have the winners of the first session's tournament to come back in the latter stages of the game.

Harry Vaughn, Max Word, and Plagens scored in the third, the losers big inning while TU's other runs were gained in the fifth and sixth.

Commenting on a plea by Paul Boyd, referee of the controversial Arkansas-Texas Christian game last fall that brought conference renascence, that the case be re-opened, Williams said:

"The Southwest Conference Faculty Committee conferred with J. Louis W. Jones, president of the University of Arkansas, during the meeting in Austin in May and so far as I know the matter is now closed."

Boyd, in a statement from his home in Temple yesterday, said he had been blackballed as a conference official. He declared the renascence of Arkansas was unjust and that there was no rougher football in this game than other conference games.

Boyd charged that Arkansas was censured not only for the 1949 game but for other years.

Yonkers, N. Y.—(AP)—The half-mile harness track, Yonkers Raceway, has been resurfaced and will be in good condition for the 12-night summer meeting scheduled for August 15-28.

Miller remained undefeated when they easily outscored Dorm 17 in five innings of play. Scoring runs in four of the five innings the Tigers were never behind as they opened up the game with a four run lead in the first frame.

John Vaughan was the winning pitcher, allowing six hits and three walks.

Seeing the quartet of runs in the opening inning were Joe Bennett, Bert Hayes, Kot Voss, and Vaughan. The counters came home after two hits, a walk, a sacrifice, and an error.

TCVV 4, Dorm 14-0

Winder's shut out victory for TCVV over Dorm 14 shows that the Texas Geologists are going to have quite a time of it this second session. It was TCVV's third straight win without a loss.

All four of the winners' runs were scored in the sixth inning, when the pitcher's duel between Winder and losing twirler Carroll came to an abrupt stop.

Four hits, and two walks brought home Campbell, Williams, Dotter and Winder for the winning score.

Robinson Regains Lead From Musial

New York, July 25.—(AP)—Jackie Robinson's five hits against Pittsburgh Sunday enabled him to regain the National League batting lead from Stan Musial of St. Louis.

The Brooklyn second baseman trailed Musial by three points after Saturday night's action. Now it's Robinson 367, Musial 360.

Musial continued hisizzling pace during the week, stretching his consecutive game hitting streak to 28 games. The modern National League record is 37.

Ralph Kiner of Pittsburgh is the power king with 76 runs batted in and 28 home runs. Bob Miller of the Phils is the top pitcher on pen and lost records with an 8-1 mark.

Maroon & White... Sports Chatter

The Athletic Council meeting which was scheduled for today was postponed indefinitely. Athletic Director Bones Irvin announced yesterday...

The meeting was for the purpose of voting on a certain group of men who were being considered for the position as basketball coach here...

The way it looks now, it may be a long time before a cage tutor is named to take over the job which was vacated by Marty Karow...

James Fowler and Bob Bales, football stalwarts of the Aggie line, are now attending summer school here.

Good news for the coming grid season... Responsible sources have reported that Andy Hillhouse is definitely planning to attend A&M in the fall...

Pirates Dump Phils, 2-1

Pittsburgh, July 25.—(AP)—Ratn wiped out Eddie Waitkus' two-run homer in the top of the seventh last night and gave the Pittsburgh Pirates a 2-1 six-inning triumph over the Philadelphia Phils.

The loss knocked the Phils out of the National League lead. The contest was halted 34 minutes by rain at the end of the seventh inning.
