

NCAA Council Recommends 6 Suspensions

Chicago, Aug. 15—(AP)—Declining to name names, the National Collegiate Athletic Association Council yesterday recommended suspension of six 1950 reported violators of the NCAA's controversial "sanity code."

The policy-making council, following a weekend session here, also reviewed the cases of five other suspected violators, but deferred action until evidence is further studied.

Four of these were said to be on the verge of mending their athletic fences to observe the code which places strict limits on financial aid to athletes.

The council's recommendation of suspension must be submitted to the full NCAA convention in Dallas, Tex., Jan. 10-13 and a majority vote of the estimated 312 members is necessary to blacklist.

The council last weekend studied eight suggested changes in the code and recommended one which it declined to identify for presentation to the Dallas confab.

Recommended Five Revisions

Last April, a conference of athletic commissioners, meeting here, recommended five code revisions, ranging from virtually no change to full room and board facilities for athletes. The code now restricts financial aid to tuition only, on the basis of need. Code critics claim this breeds subterfuge with good athletes still getting good pay at schools with affluent alumni.

This is the second time the NCAA has put reported code violators on the carpet. At the NCAA convention in New York last January, seven schools were cited as violators and a vote on expulsion was taken. It barely failed, 111 to 93, for the necessary two-thirds margin for expulsion. However, on recommended suspension, as will come up at Dallas needs only a bare majority to carry. Suspension means the violator will be boycotted from NCAA title meets and schedules of other members and a lack of a vote in NCAA business.

Of the seven up for expulsion last January, Boston College and Maryland have been re-instated; the Citadel resigned; and Virginia, Villanova, Virginia Military Institute and Virginia Tech still are not in good standing.

Davis Cup Netters Chosen; Three Vets

New York, Aug. 15—(AP)—Three veterans—Ted Schroeder, Gardner Mulloy and Billy Talbert—and newcomer Tom Brown of San Francisco, were named as the United States Davis Cup team of 1950 yesterday.

The foursome will defend the huge international tennis trophy against the challenge of Australia at Forest Hills, N. Y., Aug. 25-27.

It will be the fifth straight year since play was resumed after World War II that the same two countries have fought for the cup, with the U. S. the victor in the first four. Last year the score was 4-1.

John H. Bishop, chairman of the USLTA Davis Cup selection committee, said Budge Patty, who has homes both in Los Angeles and Paris, would have been named to the U. S. team except for his sprained ankle.

Patty, 1950 winner of the Wimbledon championships, was hurt Sunday in the final doubles round at the Casino Club tourney at Newport, R. I. He and Schroeder were forced to default their first round match at Bookline, Mass., in the national doubles yesterday.

put, from Franklin; Richard Stone, 100 yard dash, from Navasota; Don Watson, 100 and 220 yard dash in senior division, from Franklin; and Freddie Anderson, 50 yard dash and boys' singles, from College Station.

Atmosphere Of Phillies Training Camp Helpful

By WHITNEY MARTIN

New York, Aug. 15—(AP)—It may be no more significant than fish in a fish market, but we sometimes wonder if the astounding success of the Philadelphia Phillies this year isn't at least partly due to the atmosphere of their training camp.

No other camp is quite like that Clearwater, Fla., spot where in a verdant setting verdant young whiz kids go through training chores in the casual carefree manner of youngsters on a corner lot. You get the idea that the whole business is just fun.

It's a Sunday school picnic, a barn dance and a day at the beach all rolled into one, and you catch the spirit of it the moment you walk into the big palm-fringed park with its green fence and spot the big boss, youthful Bob Carpenter, ambling around in his white slacks, chatting amiably with anyone in his vicinity.

It's that way all the way down the line—a friendly, companionable spirit. You catch it in talking with public relations man Babe Alexander, or road secretary Frank Powell, or field manager Eddie Sawyer.

No Barbed Wire Fences

There are no barbed wire fences around. Figuratively speaking, of course. The clubhouse, a low, sprawling structure out along the leftfield foul line, is as open as a yawn to any male visitors, and Sawyer's private office is about as private as Grand Central Station.

On any given day during an exhibition game you'll see wives of players and officials parked in chairs in front of the clubhouse, basking in the brilliant sun. Children romp around. A player not immediately engaged in the game might be playing catch with a six-year-old lad.

On the clubhouse veranda are cases of pop and milk, and boxes of sandwiches. A Boston Red Sox player, coming around the corner of the building for the first time and taking in the scene—the women and children, the refreshments, the casual atmosphere—paused with mouth agape.

"What is this?" he blurted. "Looks like a beach."

We aren't insinuating that the lads don't study their baseball lessons down there. They get plenty of expert teaching, and when they play the game they go all out.

Maybe next year they'll have a roller coaster and hall of mirrors down here. The carnival atmosphere really seems to get results.

CS Softballers Defeat Hearne For First Win

College Station's Pee Wee softball team rose from the ranks of defeat over the weekend as they trounced the visiting Hearne Pee Wee squad, 16-2, on the lighted softball field.

A responsive crowd saw the home team hit losing pitcher Kelly, who defeated the same CS juniors in Hearne earlier in the week, 10-5, for 15 hits and gave up eleven walks in the seven inning affair.

Pinkney Cooner twirled the winners to their first victory in three starts, allowing only seven scattered hits in the process. He was also one of the top hitters of the evening as he connected with two singles in five trips and scored twice.

College Station's third baseman Dave Bonnen and shortstop Freddie Anderson paced the hitters as each connected with the sphere three or four times at bat. One of Bonnen's hits was a double, and he led the scorers with three runs while Anderson scored only once.

The winners started off fast as they scored four markers in the opening inning to take the lead which they never relinquished.

Three consecutive singles by Anderson, Bonnen, and Hickman started the rally, but Anderson started out at third before Dan Williams drove in the other two men on base with a double. John Rob't. Smith walked, and a single by Cooner scored the victors final two runs of the inning.

The hitting continued as each man on the College Station team scored before the end of the game with the runs coming in the third, fifth and sixth frames. The final two innings saw the Pee Wees cash in with ten markers.

Hearne's only two runs were brought home in the sixth with Donell and L. Pursley scoring with aid from two errors and a double.

TCVV Blasts Dorm 14 To Remain In 1st Place

Behind the two-hit twirling of L. E. Winder, TCVV remained in the leader's roll in the second session intramural softball league as they scored heavily in the first and fifth frames to hand Dorm 14 its fourth defeat, 10-1.

Four other teams saw action yesterday with Dorm 15 turning giant killer, edging Texas Geology in an extra inning of play, 7-6, with Jack Alexander singling to bring home John Mueller and the winning run.

In the other game the two cellar teams, Falton and Dorm 17 met with the latter finishing on top 23-4.

TCVV consolidated two singles, three walks, and an error in the opening inning to go ahead with four runners. Campbell led off for the winners, received a walk, and scored on Ed Timlin's single. Short fielder Williams reached the first sack on an error, then two consecutive walks, allowed to Donaldson and Fong together with Choates single, scored Timlin, Williams, and Donaldson.

Winder Retires Losers

Winder retired the losers in order the first period and repeated the act in the third, allowing hits only in the second and fourth and the only score in the fourth when shortstop Gibson crossed home plate on an error.

Winder scored in the second after having reached first with a double and two more runs in the next frame by Floyd and Williams with the aid of a single, two walks, and two errors which clinched the game.

Williams' triple, and five bases on balls, three in order, scored Donaldson, Fong, and Williams for the winners' final markers. Ray Carroll was charged with the loss as he gave up a total of five hits.

Dorm 15-7, Texas Geology 6

After a two week layoff the Texas Geology softballers saw action yesterday and much to their disappointment, losing to sixth place Dorm 15 in an extra inning of play, after TU had tied up the game with the aid of two homers.

Jumping to the lead in the opening frame, the winners scored three runs with the assistance of a single and two walks. G. W. Smith led off for Dorm 15 with a single, and two consecutive walks gained by winning pitcher Hershel Pitts and Glenn Goodman loaded the victor's bases. Bernard Place and R. D. Pratt's long fly outs scored the three men on base for the three point lead.

Cooley Scores

John Cooley, usual TU pitcher but playing in shortfield yesterday, connected with a single to be the first Texan to reach first. Two outs later Sadler's single drove Cooley home for the loser's only run of the second frame.

Dorm 15 scored twice in the second with John Muller and King Lauvva spiking home plate after each had reached first on a single.

Three runs in the third frame shoved the Geologists back in the running when Weatheral and McGlue cashed in with the aid of Tchoepoe's circuit clout. Place scored for 15 in the same period giving Dorm 15 a 6-4 lead.

The winner's lead was short lived as another homer in the next frame scored two runs which tied up the game. Wessley reached first on a single while losing twirler Boruff gained his first homer of the season to tie up the game.

Mueller scored in the eighth to give Dorm 15 its fifth win.

Dorm 17-13, Walton 4

Six runs in the third was Dorm 17's big gun in the five inning tilt yesterday which saw the winners move from the cellar and tie with Walton for seventh place.

McCasland was the winner's top hitter as he gained three hits in five trips and also scored three runs. Glenn Torrence of Walton scored twice but hit only once in three trips to pace the losing team batters.

Losing hurler Joe Pike was hit for 12 bingles while winning twirler Red Heidemman gave up five hits in the five frames of softball.

Scoring six runs in the third with the assistance of three consecutive hits and three consecutive errors, the winners pushed ahead 9-2. G. W. Neely, M. C. Turner, Charles Pence, H. E. Brawley, McCasland, and Hansen scored the important markers for the winners.

Charles Risks Crown Tonight

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 15—(AP)—Ezzard Charles shoots for the Joe Louis jackpot tonight when he risks his NBA-heavyweight crown against under Freddie Beshore at Memorial auditorium.

If Charles shows enough "Tiger" and flattens the 5 to 1 challenger inside the 15-round limit, he wins a $500,000 September date with Louis. An upset by Beshore would scramble the situation.

With no radio and television, Promoter Dewey Michaels counts on a last minute sale to bring a crowd of 10,000 and a gate of $80,000. It may be less.

Ring time for the twice-postponed indoor battle is 8:00 p. m. (CST) with the weigh-in scheduled for noon.

Beshore, a blond Pennsylvania Dutchman from Harrisburg, Pa. has trained long and hard for his one "shot at the moon." Injuries to Charles postponed his big chance twice, after some 700 rounds of training he's as ready as he'll ever be.

A weaving, crouching body puncher, Beshore will try to carry the fight to the counter-punching champ. He and his manager, Ralph Gold, admit their chances improve as the fight goes on. Beshore is a slow starter with hopes of wearing down the champ "after the eighth round."

Jake Mintz, as always the loud spokesman for Charles, said the champ was going after a knockout "as soon as he can."

"Ezzy knows the spot he's in," said Manager Mintz, "he knows he needs to win sensational. He's mean and ready. That layoff made him realize what it means to be champion."

Kell, Doby Close For AL Hit Lead

Chicago, Aug. 15—(AP)—George Kell of Detroit and Larry Doby of Cleveland carried their neck and neck race for the American League batting championship through last week.

Figures for games through Sunday put Kell in the lead with 355. Doby had 351. A week ago Kell was hitting .353, Doby .350.

Al Rosen of Cleveland is the home run leader with 30.

Musial Replaces Robinson for Lead

New York, Aug. 15—(AP)—Jackie Robinson's batting slump — he's hitting .182 for the past two weeks — not only has cost him the National League lead but may drop him among the also rans if it isn't stopped soon.

Two weeks ago the Brooklyn second baseman was hitting .370 and was on top. Since then he has banged out only eight hits in 44 attempts and now he has an average of .348 and is second.

Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals has an average, including games of Sunday, of .361.

In won and lost records, Sal Maglie of the Giants and Bob Miller of the Phils lead with identical 10 and 3 marks. That's a .769 percentage.
