Military School Gets New Officers

Replacements have arrived for seven officers who have completed their three-year tour of duty as part of A&M's military personnel, according to Col. H. L. Boatner, commandant and PMS&T.

Lt. Col. Leslie S. Moore, recently assigned as a student officer at the Chemical School of the Army Chemical Center in Maryland, replaces Major O. A. Wiken as senior Chemical Corps instructor.

Graduated from A&M with an M. S. in agriculture in 1925, Col. Moore received a B. S. in chemical engineering here in 1931. He has been in the service since 1925 and was overseas during World War II from May 15, 1944 to Dec. 30, 1945. Colonel and Mrs. Moore are living at 722 Garden Acres.

Assigned to duty at A&M as senior Quartermaster instructor, Lt. Col. Edward F. Sauer replaces Lt. Col. W. P. Scholl, who has been reassigned to Japan.

Colonel Sauer was commissioned a second lieutenant in 1922 upon graduation from Indiana University, where he received a B. S. in commerce and finance. He was awarded a Bachelor of Laws degree at the Jefferson Law School in Kentucky in 1928.

In the European theater from May 29, 1942 until Nov. 16, 1945, Colonel Sauer served the latter part as commanding officer of the 54th Quartermaster Battalion. He and Mrs. Sauer are living at 731 Meadowlark in Bryan.

Replacing Lt. Col. F. R. Swoger as senior Ordnance instructor is Lt. Col. Cecil M. MacGregor, recently assigned as a student officer at the Ordnance School in Aberdeen, Md.

Entering the service as a second lieutenant in 1931, Colonel MacGregor was awarded a B. S. degree in mechanical engineering at Oregon State College the following year. He served on Okinawa from April, 1947, until June 1949. Colonel and Mrs. MacGregor and their three children are residents of College Station.

Major Jordan J. Wilderman has been assigned as assistant instructor of Artillery, replacing Major C. F. Ostner, who completed his tour of duty here last June.

A West Point graduate of the Class of 1940, Major Wilderman served as a staff officer with several Field Artillery units in the European theater from December, 1944 to August, 1945.

Prior to his A&M assignment, he was a student at the Armored School, Fort Knox, Ky. He served previously as an instructor of cadets at the Military Academy in West Point.

Major and Mrs. Wilderman and their two children are living at 503 Gilchrist in College Station.

Major William A. Burrus has been assigned as assistant instructor in the Corps of Engineers. He replaces Major V. C. Williams, now in Japan. Major Burrus entered the service as a second lieutenant in May, 1934, upon graduation from Virginia Military Institute, where he was awarded a B. S. in civil engineering.

He served overseas in the Marianas-Bonins command from February 1949 until July 1950. He and Mrs. Burrus and their two children live at 408 South Sterling in Bryan.

Returning from a three year tour of duty in Germany, Major Stanhope S. King will serve as assistant instructor in the Quartermaster Corps. He served with the 691st Quartermaster Battalion in France and Germany and on Okinawa during World War II.

Major and Mrs. King are living at 1800 Echois Street in Bryan.

Major Robert W. Carpenter, 1942 graduate of the Military Academy at West Point, and an A&M student from 1934-37, will probably be assigned to the freshman instruction team. Serving overseas from September 1944 till October 1947, with the 117th Regimental Combat Team, the Eleventh Corps, and the Eighth Army Headquarters in the New Guinea, South Philippines, Luzon and Leyte campaigns.

Major and Mrs. Carpenter and their daughter Katherine reside at 512 Brooks Avenue in College Station.

Replacements for two officers have not been announced. Those leaving are Captain George M. Staples, transferred to an Air Force base at Tucson, Ariz., and Major L. E. Garrett, associate professor of infantry, has been assigned to Korea.

Two non-commissioned officers have also been transferred, although replacements have not been

Drapes Being Placed in MSC

Among the numerous jobs in furnishing the Memorial Student Center is the making and hanging of drapes for the building. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Felts of Houston have been assigned the task.

Robert D. Harrell, Shamrock Hotel decorator, blended wall colors for the MSC, selected upholstery and drapery material, and furniture. He asked Mrs. Felts to make and hang the curtains.

Mrs. Felts and her husband came to the campus three days ago and have since been sewing and hanging drapes in the Center. Among the 33 rooms in their job are the ballroom, the main dining room, main lounge, assembly room, and the Serpentine Lounge.

Curtains for three rooms on the main floor have been completed.

Mrs. Felts said that materials for drapes are linen, knobby woven fabrics, and "lame". Curtains for the long hall in the front of the building are to be Foam Glass on traverse rods.

Drapes in staff offices are green. Other rooms completed feature beige and printed materials.

New York Companies are furnishing the materials. Among them are Moss Rose Mills, J. H. Thorpe, Howard & Schaffer, F. Schumacher, and Goodall Fabrics.
