

AGGIES!

Exchange Store Profits Are Yours

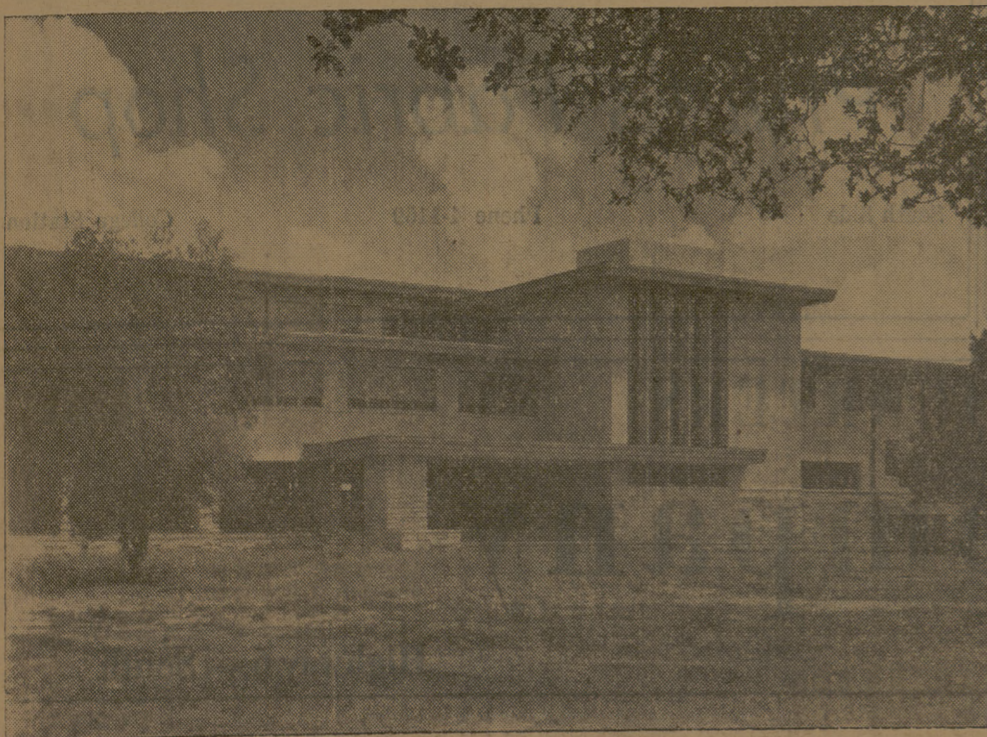

When you buy your books and supplies from THE EXCHANGE STORE you not only get the best quality available at fair prices but you are making a definite investment in special services for you and all other Aggies. Profits from THE EXCHANGE STORE operation, over and above operation needs, are pledged to student welfare and recreation.

During the past three years more than $250,000.00 has been returned and expended on a wide range of welfare and recreation projects. During the same period approximately $35,000.00 per year has been paid out in salaries to students and student wives.

The EXCHANGE STORE made donations totaling $155,000.00 to the new Memorial Student Union. The Memorial Student Union operating fund was enlarged by $105,000.00 from the EXCHANGE STORE profits. A total of $50,000.00 has been paid to the building fund of the Memorial Student Union by the EXCHANGE STORE.

Above—The band shell at the grove was built partially from EXCHANGE STORE profits. Of the total construction cost, $5,500.00 was supplied from the EXCHANGE STORE. The grove with its new band shell was the mecca of the summer recreation program this summer.

Above—two-thousand five hundred dollars worth of equipment was bought for the Music Hall from THE EXCHANGE STORE profits. Directly using this equipment were the Aggie Orchestra, Singing Cadets, and the Summer Aggie Combo shown above.

Below—Boxing, wrestling and Gymnastic equipment worth $1,000.00 was purchased from the EXCHANGE STORE profits. Shown here is some of this equipment in use.
