

A&M Tracksters Planning To Reclaim SWC Crown

By RAY HOLBROOK

The Texas Aggie track and field team, runner-up to Texas University in the conference meet last spring, will be out to reclaim the title this year, having held the crown for three straight years of the last four.

Winning five of seven meets last year, the Aggie cinder stars had a very successful season outside of the unusual day which they faced at the conference meet in Austin. Texas won the meet with 60 points to 43 for A&M and 32 to third place Rice. The only other loss suffered by the Aggies was a dual meet to TU which the Steers won 63-59.

On the winning side of the ledger, the thinly clad whipped North Texas, LSU, and Rice in dual meets by wide margins. In the Border Olympics they scored 64 points to swamp second place Texas with 40 and third place Oklahoma A&M.

At Corpus Christi in the Quarterback Relays the Maroon and White edged out the Orange and White, 66 1/3 — 64 1/3, with 30 1/3 points going to third place Rice.

Aggie Mainstays

Some of the mainstays of the team last year were Co-captains George Kadera and J. D. Hampton, in the weights and distances, respectively; Bob Hall, low hurdle specialist; Paul Leming, ace soph high hurdler; Jack Simpson, and Don Graves, pole vaulters and high jump; Julian Herrine and John Garmany, milers; and Don Mitchell and Bernard Place, quartermilers.

Other lettermen include Billy Bless, low hurdler; Buddy Davis, high jump; Ed Hooker, decus; Jerry Bonnen, and Jim McMahon, two-mile; Alex Ortiz, 880; and quartermilers Don Cardon, Buddy Shaeffer, and Cecil Inglehart.

Encouragement for Coaches

Particularly encouraging for coaches Frank Anderson and Ray Putman are prospects for next spring. Graduating seniors from last year's team include only Kadera, Hampton, Hall, Bonnen, Hooker, and Cardon—but capable replacements indicate the team will be just as strong as before.

Freshman weight star Darrow Hooper will step into the shoes of Kadera and should fill them easily. Bless was second to Hall in the low hurdles at the conference meet and should move to the top spot this year.

Although SWC record holder in the mile and two mile Hampton failed to win a first in last May's conference meet, his loss will be felt the hardest.

Replacements

However, with proven boys like Herring and Garmany around plus some help from McMahon and Jack Jones, the mile and two mile will be capably handled. Others of last year's freshman team who will help the varsity tremendously this year are Bill Stalter and James Ragsdale.

Stalter was undefeated in freshman 100 and 220 competition, and will plug a big gap in the Cadet sprint ranks. Ragsdale is a very good broad jumper and a promising low hurdler. The Farmers were desperate during the last season for a broad jumper of his ability.

Henry's Return—Profitable

The Aggie cinder hopes will also be boosted by the addition of

Military Engineers Slate First Meet

The Society of American Military Engineers will hold their first meeting of the year Sept. 28 at 7:30 p. m. in the Chapel of the YMCA according to C. C. Taylor, president of the Society.

Principal speaker at the meeting will be Howard Barry, head of the A&M Photographic and Visual Aids Laboratory.

Barry will also introduce the film "Functional Photography in Industry" which will be shown at the meeting Taylor said.

The 45 minute film, which is in color, provides a survey on film of the ways in which photography today is serving industry in research, production quality control, advertising, and sales.

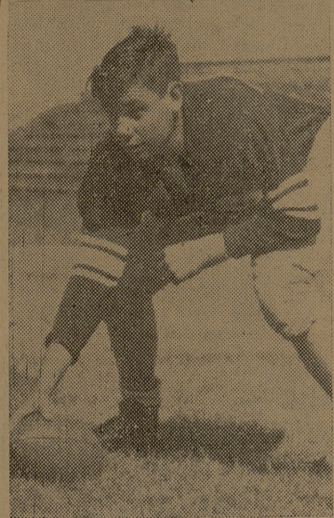

Because the film will be of interest to more than just the Society, all interested individuals are invited to attend.

After the film there will be a short business meeting of the Society, according to Taylor.

Bill Henry, letterman broad jumper in '49 and James Baker, star freshman quarter miler in the same year. Both were ineligible due to scholastic difficulties.

Add this to all the heretofore mentioned returning lettermen and the results are encouraging. TU graduates Charley Parker, Bob Walters, and Perry Samuels and will be considerably weaker, as will Rice with the graduation of Tom Cox, SWC record holder in the 440, and Tobin Rote, conference javelin champion.

So, summing it up, we're looking forward to '51 and another SWC Track and Field Championship for the Maroon and White cinder stars.

Jack Burchard

Burchard is a starting guard on the A&M Consolidated eleven and will play both offense and defense tonight against the Navasota Rattlers.

Welcome Party For Newcomers Held Sept. 20

Newcomers were formally welcomed to the campus at a tea given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. M. T. Harrington at the president's home.

Receiving with Mrs. Harrington were Mesdames C. C. French and Horace Blank. Also present to welcome newcomers were Mesdames Gibb Gilchrist, D. W. Williams, R. D. Lewis, G. G. Gibson, H. V. Barlow, C. N. Sheppardson, W. L. Penberthy, J. P. Abbott, J. B. Bertrand, I. B. Boughton, H. L. Boatman, E. W. Napier and I. B. Currie.

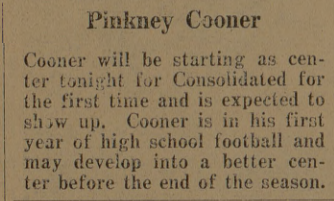

The social rooms opened to the guests were brightened by roses. A centerpiece of bright colored roses, cockscomb and pinfeathers, decorated the table.

Exhibits were displayed by several groups of the Social Club to acquaint the newcomers with various activities available to them on the campus.

These included handicraft display, swimming groups, art groups, and foods groups.

In addition to Mrs. Blank and Mrs. Currie, various officers and committee chairwomen assisted in greeting guests.

Callender Employed By Houston Company
Richard Callender, recent graduate of the Engineering School and former linebacker on the varsity football team, has been employed by the Brown & Root Co. of Houston.

Pinkney Cooner

Cooner will be starting as center tonight for Consolidated for the first time and is expected to show up. Cooner is in his first year of high school football and may develop into a better center before the end of the season.

Top Reds Leave UN Dinner As Dewey Speaks

New York, Sept. 22—(AP)—Andrei Y. Vishinsky and Jacob Malik walked out of a United Nations dinner last night when Gov. Thomas E. Dewey said in a speech that the Soviet Union holds millions of slave laborers "under conditions which amount to torture unto death."

As the heads of the Russian U. N. delegation strode off the dais, Dewey remarked:

"I must say I am complimented by the withdrawal of those who plot the destruction of the world." There were cheers in the audience. Vishinsky and Malik maintained a stony silence as they left the Waldorf-Astoria dinner given for U. N. assembly delegates by the city of New York.

In the third paragraph of his written speech, Dewey read: "It would be folly to ignore the harsh fact that while the Soviet Union has 10 million to 15 million people living in slave labor under conditions which amount to torture unto death, no person anywhere in the world can sleep nights with any sense of security."

There was a number in the audience of 1,500 as Dewey began the sentence, and widespread applause as he finished it.

The Soviet exit began as Dewey reached the mention of slave labor. Vishinsky and Malik were off the dais by the time Dewey finished the sentence.

Possibly Dewey's speech was known to the Russians in advance. Copies had been distributed to newsmen, and some were on the reporters' tables at the dinner.

The audience was hushed as Dewey completed his address. Saying he spoke as titular head of the Republican party, Dewey pledged GOP support for Secretary of State Acheson's U. N. proposals for dealing with future aggression.

VMI Gridsters Better Manned Coming Season

Lexington, Sept. 22—When V. M. I. and William and Mary square off in Roanoke's Victory Stadium Saturday night, the Keydets won't be the pitifully-outmanned team they were when the two clashed a year ago.

William and Mary's probable offensive starters out-weigh those of V. M. I. by 12 pounds per man this season, but that's mild compared to the difference in '49. The Indians were over 25 pounds a man bigger then as they romped to a 54-6 win over the 190-pound defensive V. M. I. forward wall.

Offensively in '49 V. M. I.'s linemen weighed a mere 182 pounds each, while opposite them was a Tribe defensive barrier 40 pounds bigger in average. Even the Indian backs outweighed the Keydet ball-carriers by more than 20 pounds.

The line difference has been cut considerably by 1950 with the addition of several last year's big reserves to the V. M. I. starting eleven. Tackles Jack Frankberger and Claude Eley, 215 pounds apiece, bolster the offensive weight of the Keydet line, although offsetting them are center Kirby Bernich, a mere 170 pounds, and ends Neal Petree and Bill Lack, plus guard Tommy Bonnet, all 185-pounders. The other guard, Weir Goodwin, helps the average some with his 200 pounds.

William and Mary might start a 209-pound defensive line, which would mean that V. M. I.'s offensive wall, operating against them, would be about 16 pounds lighter at each slot. And the defensive Keydets, whose job it will be to stop the powerful offensive team from the Colonial City, will average 198, or about seven pounds less than "Rube" McCray's "Big Seven" starters.

Here's the comparative summary for the 1950 contest: on defense, V. M. I. is 18 pounds a man better off for the William and Mary game than they were a year ago. On offense, the Keydets' gain in weight difference is 25 pounds, primarily due to the fact that William and Mary's defensive line will be 15 pounds smaller this season than it was last.

Fencing Business Meeting Called

Fish Football Begins

By HAROLD GANN

"This reminds me of the practice fields at Notre Dame," commented Freshman Football Coach Perron Shoemaker as he scanned a record-breaking group of 103 Fish football candidates jammed on Kyle Field.

Supporting two strong freshman aggregations the last two seasons, A&M's Athletic Department didn't issue as many scholarships to promising newcomers this year.

The untried group, however, is the largest in years, and some noted sports followers say the current crop is on par with the previous two editions. Many say it is better.

Again, the athletic department brought in hefty linemen and speedy, hard-charging backs.

A check of the first 16 linemen reveals an average weight of 193 pounds, with the lightest prospect weighing 190 and the heaviest tipping the scales at 250 pounds.

"We have eight outstanding backs capable of playing college ball," said Shoemaker, who will direct the team against Allen Academy in the opener on Kyle Field October 5.

The former Alabama end is now stressing individual drills, dividing the squad into two offensive units. "I depended a lot on high school records and what they have displayed so far in placing boys on the first two units", he pointed out.

"But, to my knowledge, any boy on the field could make the team. They are that closely matched." Backs Bud Rollins, Hayden Mayeaux, Buck Gibson, and George Perkins are all-state high school stars with remarkable records.

Rollins May Not Play

Rollins, the 195-pound fullback from Wink, may not play this year because of a back injury received in a practice session before the North-South All-Star football game.

Perkins, a 175-pounder from De Quincy, La., and Mayeaux, a 185-pounder from Holy Cross, New Orleans, are competing for the full-back slot.

Perkins, who was the leading high school punter in Louisiana last year, should develop into one of the conference's leading punters.

The Fish Schedule:

*Oct. 5—Allen Academy on Kyle Field.
*Oct. 11—Baylor Cubs at Waco.
*Oct. 18—TCU Wogs in Fort Worth.
*Nov. 7—Rice Owlets on Kyle Field.
*Nov. 23—Texas Frosh on Kyle Field.
* Denotes night game.

Melvin Free

Free is the heaviest man on the Consolidated defensive line, and all of his 200 pounds are slated to be in the tackle position tonight.
