

5 Texas Teams Hold Unmarred Grid Records

Five Texas College teams are undefeated and united as the football campaign pushes toward the half-way mark.

Leading the parade is West Texas State, not mentioned seriously in pre-season prognostications. The Buffs have swirled to four straight victories and rolled up 155 points while so doing—an average of almost 39 per game.

Last week West Texas State put on the clincher in whipping Texas Tech 28-13. Now the Buffs are considered the real thing.

Abilene Christian College also has taken four straight but had plenty of trouble maintaining an unbeaten record last week, nosing out Southwestern 7-6.

Southern Methodist, Texas and Rice are the other Texas teams with perfect marks put none has played as many games as ACC and West Texas.

Teams to be dropped from win column were Austin College, who took a 40-15 blasting from East Texas State; Texas A&M, who lost to Oklahoma 34-28, and Texas Lutheran who was licked 12-0 by Schreiner Institute.

This week at least three of the five remaining teams with unblemished records are in danger of falling. Texas plays Oklahoma, ACC meets East Texas State and Southern Methodist clashes with Oklahoma A&M. West Texas plays New Mexico and Rice takes on Pittsburgh.—Based on AP Reports.

Bob Bates

Although Bates is shown as an offensive center, he is more valuable as a linebacker and defensive specialist. Bates' play in the Oklahoma game was only a sample of the performance that the two year letterman has been turning out all season.

Ag Eleven Prepares For 1st Home Tilt With VMI Keydets

BASED ON AP REPORTS

The toughest team faced by the Oklahoma Sooners in the past three years started workouts yesterday in preparation for its coming weekend engagement with Virginia Military. It will be the first meeting between the Aggies and the Keydets, with the former entering the tilt a favorite.

Last Saturday, VMI took an easy victory over Richmond winning 26-14, as they came from behind in the final quarter to win.

Head trainer Bill Dayton said that although many of the cadets were on the injured list, the Aggies will be ready to go in their opening home game against VMI Saturday night.

From other SWC schools:

ARKANSAS

Arkansas' offensive lineup was shaken up as Coach Otis Douglas sought to develop better protection for his passers and find a more consistent ground-gaining combination.

Don Logue was promoted to first string quarterback. Ray Parks moved up to join Buddy Rogers at half and Jack Bailey shared the fullbacking with Lewis Carpenter.

The Razorbacks scrimmaged from 3:30 p. m. until dark as they started preparations for Saturday's game with Baylor.

S M U

Two of Southern Methodist's Mustangs injured in last Saturday's football against Missouri may be ready to play if needed against Oklahoma A&M here Saturday night.

They are quarterback Rusty Russell, Jr. with a torn cartilage adjoining one of his ribs, and halfback Johnny Champion, with a sprained ankle.

Dr. Robert Morgan, team physician, said today however that substitute Henry Stollenwerck will be out of action for at least a month and probably more. Stollenwerck fractured the small bone in his left leg, about six inches above the ankle joint in the Missouri game.

TEXAS

Byron Townsend, the bull-dozing fullback who rolled up more than 150 yards against Purdue for the Texas Longhorns, wrenched his knee in practice yesterday.

Coach Blair Cherry said that Townsend "may be able to go Saturday" in the Longhorn's game against Oklahoma in Dallas but that the extent of the injury won't be known for 24 hours.

Emphasis in the Longhorn camp today was on the aerial game.

RICE

Rice head coach Jess Neely had no hospital list yesterday, but he gave his football regulars a day of rest.

Neely was confident that fullback George Clauser, injured in last week's victory over Louisiana State, will be ready for the Pittsburgh game Saturday.

Neely had no comment on reports from Baton Rouge that LSU returned there with a huge hospital list.

"We'll let LSU do the talking," he said.

The Rice Owls will fly to Pittsburgh Friday morning.

T C U

Texas Christian reserves and freshmen held a rousing practice session yesterday while the varsity football team rested.

Center Max Eubank and guards Bill Willingham and Tom Evans played in the middle of the line. They had been out with knee wounds the last two weeks and missed last Saturday's Arkansas game. All were pre-season starters.

BAYLOR

Five Baylor Bears were on the injury list yesterday and Coach George Sauer let the football squad take things easy on the practice field. All should be ready for Saturday's game against Arkansas; Sauer said that the "serious work" getting ready for one of the toughest games of the year will begin tomorrow and continue through Thursday.

Isbell Jibes Irish On Upset Loss

Chicago, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Cecil Isbell, whose 1946 Purdue team lost to Notre Dame, 49-6, yesterday had a jibe for the Irish.

Now an assistant coach of the Chicago Cardinals, Isbell told the Herald-American quarterback meeting:

"I was really sorry to see Notre Dame's streak broken by Purdue, 28-14. I was sorry for one thing. I wish it had been 100 to 0."

Johnny Lujack, who quarterbacked the 1946 Irish, also addressed the meeting but made no reference to Isbell's remarks or Notre Dame's setback.

QB Winner

Winner of last week's Quarterback Club contest is Jack Welch, 2606 Todd Street, Bryan. He will receive two tickets to this week's game with V.M.I. when the Quarterback Club meets Thursday night at 7:30 in the Assembly Hall.

Now midnight coffee is a snap!

When you're cramming for a tough quiz... you may need the quick "lift" of good coffee! And Nescafé is the easy answer to that one. It makes roaster-fresh coffee right in the cup.

No coffee-pot. No grounds. No brewing. Just put one teaspoonful of Nescafé in a cup, add hot water (preferably boiling) and stir. Swell coffee to give you that late-hour pick-up!

And so easy on the allowance! The 4-oz. jar makes about as many cups as a pound of ordinary coffee, yet costs far less. Get a jar today. Check!

More people drink NESCAFÉ than all other instant coffees!

*Nescafé (pronounced NES-CAFAY) is the exclusive registered trade mark of The Nestlé Company, Inc. to designate its soluble coffee product which is composed of equal parts of pure soluble coffee and added pure carbohydrates (dextrin, maltose and dextrose) added solely to protect the flavor.

Bob Selleck and Will Green led A Infantry to a 26-12 victory over A Air Force in the opening of the 1950 Intramural Basketball season at the Grove yesterday. Selleck scored eight points for the victors and Green looped in seven for the winners. Bob Dobbins and Cadwalder Roger each tallied four for the losers.

E Air Force won a fast game from C Air Force, 21-13. McAllister of E Air Force was high point man of the contest with eight points. Kingston led the losers with five.

Kiebler, Wagenfehr, and Fletcher each hit the net for five points as A QMC downed D Air Force 24-11. Ralph Mock and Ted Tomczeszyn each tallied four points for the losing airmen.

In a slow moving tilt A Cavalry scored a 10-9 win over K Air Force. Blaine and Moon led the Cavalry with four points each while Capt and Bates each tallied four for the Air Force unit.

B Cavalry Wins Curtis Lucas looped in eight points as B Cavalry edged past A Seniors 18-16. J. R. Barlow scored seven digits for the senior company before he fouled out of the game.

Jones was the whole show as A Chemical Warfare stopped E Field Artillery in a very splendidly played game, 21-27. Jones tallied 17 of his team's 21 points.

C Veterans defeated D Infantry in a very sloppily played game, 10-8. Brown led the winners with five points.

B QMC Wins In Tennis B QMC scored a 2-1 win over A Signal in a best 2 out of 3 matches in the opening of team tennis. Hink and Enlow of the QMC's defeated Detweiler and Williams, 8-5. Newman and Richmond also of the QMC's stopped Byer and Riechert, 8-2. Chapman and White salvaged the only match for the Signal Corp by defeating Burns and Tarver in a "love" match.

ASA scored a 2-1 win over B Air Force. Bristow and Boddeker scored a victory over Cobb and Hayes, and Hoskins and Satterwhite teamed up to defeat Hillman and Kennedy for the second victory necessary to win the match.

The three teams entered by A Engineers scored a clean sweep by winning all three contests from D Field Artillery.

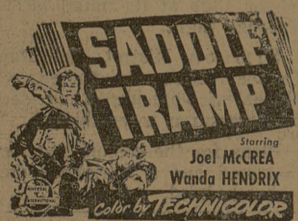

B Field Artillery also scored a clean sweep over B Composite. Wilder, Merbelt, Mattei, Lively, Wicks, and Boyd all played for the winners.

Bill Stevens and Bob Collier teamed up to win the first match from Pete Rozelle and Dick Birdwell as B Infantry defeated B Engineers in a 2-1 series. Don Richey and Jack Heacock scored the decisive win in the contest.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 4...THE COMMON LOON

"Don't be silly! What do you think I am... a goose?"

Our fine-feathered friend isn't being "taken-in" by all those tricky cigarette tests you hear so much about! A fast puff of this brand—a sniff of that. A quick inhale—a fast exhale—and you're supposed to know all about cigarettes. No! You don't have to rely on quick-tricks. The sensible way to test a cigarette is to smoke pack after pack, day after day. That's the test Camel asks you to make...the 30-Day Mildness Test. Smoke Camels—and only Camels—for 30 days. Let your own "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste) be your proving ground. And when you've tried Camels as a steady smoke, you'll know why...

More People Smoke Camels than any other cigarette!
