

Typing Class Aids Teachers And Students

A&M Consolidated is offering a course in second year typing this year for the first time.

The students taking the course are each assigned to a teacher and do all the typing for them. They type letters, tabulate material, type tests, and any other typing the teachers might have to do. A regular class meeting is held every Monday and Thursday and they do the typing for the teachers at that time.

The students taking the course are Dorothy Bates, Mary Frances Bond, Marie Cobb, Reba McDermott, Liz Miller, Royce Rodgers, Ann Southern, and Dorothy Spriggs.

The Fish of Co. 2 brought their eager basketball performers, as well as a representable crowd, to outplay a short Co. 6 squad, 34-12 in the second day of intramural play.

Co. 2's Coleman ripped the netting for eight points and top honors. Teammates Wilkinson and Stockton each scored six tallies. Muniz and Bleye led the court play for the losers by counting four points apiece.

Coudreau of Co. 7 led his Fish teammates to a 26-20 win over Co. 12 by tallying 10 markers. Although his team lost, Co. 12's Gofarth gathered first place in points by ripping in 13. Petty, with eight and Clark with six markers also stood out for the winning Co. 7 team.

Co. 4 Too Fast For Co. 1

Co. 4 sped over Co. 1, 26-16 by employing fast breaks. Johnny Broker and Harris were tops for the victors by scoring seven and five points respectively. Co. 1's Nark and Wilson gathered five counters apiece for the losers.

In the first non-military basketball game of the season, Mitchell Hall outlasted Milner Hall, 21-17. Bennett of Mitchell scored seven markers while teammates Marisse and Wegman pushed in four points apiece.

In a slow game, Leggett Hall shoved the Trailer Camp Village Veterans around, 14-8. Reese of Leggett and Campbell shared the top rand for the highest point marker by tallying four points apiece.

In another Fish game, Co. 11 sat out a forfeit over the Band.

Mother and Dads Club Holds Fall Reception

The A&M Consolidated Mother and Dads Club held a reception in the gymnasium of the high school last night to give the faculty and parents of the students a chance to get acquainted.

An estimated 400 persons attended.

Senior hostesses for the reception were: Mrs. D. W. Fleming, Mrs. Ray Oden, Mrs. John Rogers, Mrs. Earl Hildebrand, Mrs. W. E. Stiles. Chairwoman of the hostesses group was Mrs. Carl Landiss.

Assisting the senior hostesses were junior hostesses Marian Gaddis, Martha Ann Williams, Carolyn Landies, Eleanor Price, Liz Miller, Reba McDermott, Patsy Ross, Sandra Couch, and Marilyn Fleck.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Les Richardson, Mrs. L. E. Boze, Mrs. W. T. Riedel, Mrs. Jim Bevins, Mrs. M. J. Gremillion,

Consolidated's Dance Calendar Set by Council

Consolidated's dance calendar was planned at the first regular Student Council meeting October 2 and the dates each class would give dances were decided upon.

November 24 will be the date of the first dance of the year. Consolidated's annual Sadie Hawkins' Dance will be held at that time. It was decided by the council the Junior Class would sponsor it.

The Christmas Dance, which is to be held December 15, is to be sponsored by the Senior Class. The Junior Class will give the St. Valentine's Dance on February 16.

St. Patrick's Day will be commemorated by the Sophomore Class with a dance on March 19. A Masquerade Dance will be held on April 13. The Freshman Class will sponsor the dance.

Sports at Consolidated will be honored May 11 when the Senior Class sponsors the Sports Dance.

Consolidated's final ball will be the Twirl Dance on April 27. The Twirl Dance will be sponsored by the Student Council and each class—Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior—will help with some phase of the dance.

Mrs. Otho Chafin, and Mrs. Fred Brison.

Mrs. W. M. Turner was the chairman of the reception and was assisted by Mrs. Victor Schember, Mrs. Marion Pugh, Mrs. P. G. Murdoch and Mrs. Carl Landiss.

The faculty was grouped in three receiving lines to facilitate the meeting of the parents and teachers. In charge of the receiving lines were Mrs. A. L. Parrack, for the high school, Mrs. Curtis Williams, for the junior high school, and Mrs. R. O. Berry, for the elementary school.

The tea tables were set in front of the stage in the gym and had a very attractive floral center piece of pampa grass, dyed maroon and white.

The tables were set up by the Mothers and Dads to sell Christmas cards and magazine subscriptions. Last year they received a $200 profit from the sale of the magazines and about $250 from the sale of the Christmas cards.

Mrs. J. T. L. McNew was in charge of the magazine sales and Mrs. T. H. Terrell was in charge of the Christmas card sales.

Officers of the Mothers and Dads Club are Fred Brison, president, Mrs. A. L. Parrack, first vice-president, Mrs. Curtis Williams, second vice-president, Mrs. R. O. Berry, third vice-president, Mrs. Raymond Rodgers, secretary, Mrs. Inez McKay, corresponding secretary, and George Litton, treasurer.

Area AAUW Has Meeting In MSC

The Bryan-College Station Branch of the American Association of University Women met Monday evening in the Memorial Student Union Building.

Mrs. J. S. Sorrels presided at a brief preliminary business meeting after which Mrs. A. W. Melloh, first vice-president and program chairman introduced Mrs. Frank Powell who acted as narrator for the entire program.

Mrs. Powell told the story of AAUW from its beginning its present world-wide affiliation. During the course of the narrations, officers and committee chairmen of the local branch were called upon to present the local history, accomplishments, and future plans.

The first branch to be formed in Texas was in Dallas in 1908, with San Antonio following in 1909. There are now 56 branches in Texas with a combined membership of about 5,500.

AAUW members who appeared on the program included Mrs. D. W. Fleming, second vice-president and membership included Mrs. D. W. Fleming, second vice-president, and membership chairman; Mrs. John McNeely, fellowship funds chairman; Mrs. C. W. Burchard, legislative chairman; Mrs. A. T. Weydell, education chairman; Mrs. J. G. Potter, international relations chairman, and Mrs. S. H. Hopkins, social studies committee; and Mrs. Omer Sperry, publicity chairman.

The Arts Committee was represented by Mrs. George Potter, Mrs. Robert Wilson, and Mrs. Frank Powell who presented their study group plans.

Horticulturist to Speak At Garden Club Meeting

Anne Wertsner Wood, well known horticulturist, lecturer and writer, will be presented by the Bryan Garden Club tomorrow at 3 p. m. in Stephen F. Austin High School Auditorium.

Miss Wood recently resigned as Field Secretary of the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society to devote more time to writing and lecturing.

She gained vast practical experience as a gardener and through her flower show work. For many years she staged all the flower shows sponsored by the Horticultural Society and its section in the great Philadelphia Flower Show.

The Kodachrome slides used for illustrated lectures have all been taken by Miss Wood.

As a lecturer, Miss Wood has traveled from Maine to Florida and west to New Mexico. Many people have reported results from her platform advice and demonstrations on gardening subjects, flower arrangement and Christmas decorations.

Miss Wood is the author of "Make Your Own Merry Christmas," a very practical book of ideas for the holidays.

A new revised and enlarged edition will appear late next month.

In addition to books, she wrote the chapter on "Plant Propagation" in the "Woman's Home Companion Garden Book," and she writes frequently for newspapers and popular garden magazines.

Admission will be charged and tickets may be purchased at Candy's Pharmacy, Haswell's Book Store, Madley's Pharmacy, Lipscomb's Pharmacy or from a member of the Bryan Garden Club.

The status of the Department of Missions, given by the Rt. Rev. John Hines, Bishop Coadjutor, will be a part of the meeting. Various other officers of the Diocese will accompany the bishops.

Reservations may be confirmed by the local rector who will also arrange for the transportation. The supper in this area will be held at St. Thomas' Chapel in College Station, Wednesday, Oct. 18.
