Young people of the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church of Bryan will participate in the service of Morning Prayer when National Youth Sunday is observed this Sunday, a church spokesman announced.

The service of Holy Communion will be celebrated at 8:30 a. m. as usual, with the Morning Prayer following at 10:45, he said.

At the outset of the service, Miss Kerstin Ekfelt will read the invitation to general confession of their sins, after which Miss Maureen Motter will lead the psalm for the day, Ronnie Martin will lead the verses, with Miss Jean Walton giving the lesson from the Holy Scripture.

Also to be included in the Morning Prayer service will be the reading of the ancient Apostles' Creed by the congregation as led by William A. Kivlehan. Prayers and additional verses will be divided between John Jourdan Irvin and Ames Kent Swartzfager, with the offertory announcement scheduled to be made by Mary Lee Taylor.

Sara Puddy Named Players Secretary

Sara Puddy, a Consolidated High School junior, has been elected recording secretary of the Aggie Players.

Miss Puddy has the role of Phyllis Glenting in "Kind Lady," a play by Edward Chodorov, which the Players will present Dec. 7 and 8.

This will be the fourth play she has had a part in. She had a part in "Our Town" and appeared in two productions during the 1949-50 school term.

Grade School Publishes Four Page Paper Today

The Consolidated Junior News has gone to press! Today the first issue of this four-page newspaper made its appearance at Consolidated Elementary School, said Mrs. H. S. Creswell, Principal.

Four hundred copies of the eight and a half by eleven inch tabloid paper will be printed twice a month. It is printed on a Ditto machine and will be published entirely by subscription.

All members of the staff are in the Press Club, and the paper is the result of their efforts, Mrs. Creswell said.

Today all members of the first-grade were given copies of their school paper, whose articles range from one to four inches.

Jim Morgan, of the fourth-grade, is editor, and fifth-grader Richard Rieser business-manager. Jim hails from Bryan and has been at Consolidated only two years. He is an enthusiastic collector of stamps, and maintains a sizeable rock-collection.

Richard claims Raleigh, N. C., as home. He left there at the age of six months, and grew up here in College Station. Although he has no hobbies, he has done some community work.

Year-before-last Richard was Cancer Fund Promoter for an amateur variety show staged at the Campus Theater. Last year he was in charge of the children's shows.

Camera Club Has Developing Talk

The second in a series of lectures on film and photographic print processing was presented to the A&M Camera Club in Room 3A of the Memorial Student Center Oct. 13. Guest speaker was Walter Lang, senior ChE major from Houston, who addressed the club on "Film Processing Tanks, Selection of Developer, and Preparation for Development."

The series of lectures now being offered was made possible by increase in club membership brought about by the new darkroom facilities. "Last year," Harding explained, "our darkroom in Foster Hall offered very limited facilities, and club membership was correspondingly small. But after installation of our new equipment in the MSC, we got over 100 new members at our first meeting this fall."

Friday, Lang will discuss and demonstrate film developing in tanks.

DAR Meeting Set At Adamson Home

La Villita Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Art Adamson in West Park.

The meeting was opened with the Lord's Prayer and salute to the flag led by Mr. J. W. Mitchell.

Mrs. L. S. Paine, regent, presided at the meeting.

Two new names were accepted unanimously and plans for increasing the budget were presented by Mrs. E. B. Reynolds during the business session.

General 'Ike' Being Pushed For President

Washington, Oct. 17 — (AP) Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower once again has become a presidential possibility for 1952 and the big threat to all other would-be candidates, Republican or Democratic.

That is true despite the General's statement that he has not changed his mind about staying out of politics.

To Washington political experts it is apparent that the plug Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York put in for Eisenhower as a 1952 Republican presidential candidate has three important results:

• Whether he likes it or not, General Ike definitely has been shoved into the 1952 political picture and will stay there unless and until he takes himself out just as definitely.

• Dewey's pledge to work for the popular soldier-educator makes it rough on any other Republicans who may be hopefully eyeing the White House. Dewey lost as the GOP Presidential candidate in 1944 and 1948, but he still is head of the Republican party and still has a lot of influence in it.

• President Truman now would find it more difficult to pick Eisenhower to command a proposed international army to defend Western Europe against Communism. There has been much speculation that the Columbia University president might be called back into uniform for this assignment. But if Mr. Truman sent Eisenhower to Europe now he might lay himself open to charges he was trying to get out of the country the man who might be his most dangerous political nomination in 1952.

As a five-star general, Eisenhower still is on the Army's list of active officers. Now 60, the former supreme commander of Allied forces in Europe could be put on duty at any time.

Eisenhower has said over and over for more than two years that he is not a candidate for public office, that he is a man without political connections or ambitions, that he has a job to do at Columbia.

Ordinarily a person wouldn't have to repeat it every week to convince people he meant what he said. But Dewey's support for Eisenhower created an exceptional situation.

Nobody of Dewey's stature in the Republican party had come right out before and said he would back the General for the Presidential nomination in 1952.

Pennies Short—Mint Broke.

Philadelphia, Oct. 17 — (AP)—Employees of the Philadelphia mint are working overtime to meet a shortage of pennies and other coins.

Edwin H. Dressel, superintendent of the U. S. Coin Factory, said yesterday the stepped-up operations have been going on for the last two weeks and will continue indefinitely.

The demand for coins, especially pennies, "came up so quickly," Dressel said the mint wishes it had a much larger work force than its appropriation permits.
