TCU Wogs Entertain Ag Fish Tonight In Fort Worth Stadium

By RALPH GORMAN
Today at 11:30 a. m. Coach Peron Shoemaker's Fish football team boarded chartered buses to travel to Fort Worth where they will meet the TCU Poliwoogs in Purple Stadium at 8 under the arcs.
The Aggie freshmen will try to bounce back into the win column tonight after dropping into the ranks of the losers last week, when they fell before a powerful Baylor Cub team, 33-0. In the opening Fish game an Allen Academy eleven was turned back with a deluge of scoring in the second half, 33-20.
Lack of speed in the Cadet line will be a big drawback when they are matched with a Wog line that has proven to be alert and quick to move against the aggressor.
From the Wog camp comes the report that this year's freshman team cannot possibly match the seasonal record set by the Wog team of a year ago. The 1949 Wogs bested four of their five opponents.

Wogs Tied Arlington
Veterans of only one game so far, the Wogs showed talented backs to engineer future victories when they tied an Arlington State College team 6 all. Danny Powell, the Archer City triple threat; Dummas' Ray McKown, Ballinger's Dan Hallmark, Paris' Sammy Morrow, and Glenn Jones from Cowtown's Paschal High are five of the Wog stalwarts who led the Christian charges in their initial battle.
The Wog line is reputed to outweigh the Fort Worth varsity at 193 pounds and their speedy forward produces exceptional blocking. Walter Roach, TCU Wog coach, has been running his youngsters through grueling drills, as he insists that their offense "failed to click" against Arlington. He demands that his charges "be ready" for the freshmen Cadets.
Over on Kyle Field Shoemaker is aided by Gil Steinkamp, assistant freshman coach, in preparing the first year Aggies for their third encounter in hopes of raising the game average above the present .500.

Cavileer Still Out
Johnny Cavileer, former Austin High all-state candidate who turned in a sharp performance against the Cubs, will be the only Fish to miss tonight's game. Cavileer is out of the lineup nursing back injuries.

Post Grad Hall Open for Dates Over Weekend

Post Graduate Hall will be open for students' dates attending the Regimental Ball and All College Dance Friday and Saturday, Bennie A. Zinn, assistant dean of men, has announced.
Room assignments for the weekend may be made in Room 100 Goodwin Hall. Reservations for both must be made before Thursday at 8 p. m. After that time students may reserve rooms for just one night.
At the time reservations are made, students will be required to pay a small fee to cover the cost of matrons and other incidental expenses. Sheets, blankets, pillows, and mattresses will be provided. Refunds will not be made, Zinn said.
Rooms will be opened for the weekend at 4 p. m. Friday and must be vacated by 11:30 a. m. Sunday. Luggage will be removed from rooms and the P G Hall locked promptly at that time.
In compliance with the college regulations, guest staying in the dormitory must be in not later than 1 a. m. each night, and will check in to the matron in charge upon their return after the dance, Zinn said.
Escorts will be held accountable for the compliance with these regulations.

Ag Experimenters Receive $900 Check

A grant-in-aid check for $900 has been received by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. In June of 1949 Sam D. Taylor, general manager of the Rio Farms Inc., Edouch, Texas, made available a fund in support of 'The Rio Farms Processing Research Fellowship' in our Department of Horticulture," Dr. R. D. Lewis, station director, says.
Ed Hill, junior agricultural education major from Garland, won the IFYE trip from Texas last year. He has been in Greece since last June.
"Ack," as he is better known, had been in the United States only twenty days when he visited A&M. He came to this country under provisions of the International Foreign Youth Exchange Program.
When asked what he thought of teaching methods and the educational facilities at A&M, Ack replied that he couldn't visualize such a large school as this. He appeared to be very much impressed by the size of four campus. The size of the farms amazed him also, since the average farm in Greece contains about seven acres.
While in Texas, Ack will spend

City Council Okeys Contract For Electricity

The College Station City Council met at 2 p. m. yesterday to discuss terms for a contract with the Brazos River Transmission Cooperative with R. L. Ashton, a representative of that company.

The council asked that the cooperative furnish the city with electricity at their sub-station some five or six miles from town. Also included in the agreement was that the Brazos River organization supply a regulator at the point where College Station ties on to the line so the stated amount of voltage will be available.
The councilmen authorized Mayor Ernest Langford to sign a contract with the Brazos Valley Transmission Cooperative when technical and legal matters could be taken care of.

The tie-up with this company would mean that residents of College Hills in College Station could receive benefit of the new electric rates recently adopted by the council.

The Brazos Valley Transmission Cooperative, whose general office is in Waco, would bring electricity here to the sub-station from their dam in Temple.

Also passed upon at the meeting yesterday was Ordinance No. 150 which officially established the new electric rates for those people in College Station buying power from the city.

A spokesman for the council said last night that the report from F. C. Bolton, Martin C. Hughes, and Norman F. Rode on an estimation of the cost for the new electricity source will be ready within the next week or so.

and facial lacerations received last week.
The rest of the lineup remains intact and will be the same as in the first two contests with the exception of Cavileer.
Bernard Petty, of San Angelo, and Bobby Price, of Haskell, will handle the end posts with Eric Miller, of Bartlett, alternating with Petty. At left and right tackle positions, respectively, will be John Gibbons, of Uvalde, and Jerry Cotter, of Littlefield. Nearing the pivot post, Shoemaker has assigned guard chores to Bill Burchell, of New Orleans, and Lewis Capt, of Uvalde.

Billings At Center
In the center of the Cadet line and performing linebacker duties will be Calvin Billings, of Sulphur, Louisiana.

At the man-under slot for the Fish will be Johnny Salyer, another Austinite who completed 12 passes in 22 attempts in Waco's Muni Stadium last week. Providing the necessary driving power at the fullback post will be Pete Mayeaux, of New Orleans.

The Rising Star combination has been named to handle wingback chores and fans will find Franklin (Bucky) Reed on the left side, while Donald Criswell balances the half-back combo.

KORA To Cover Game
Radio Station KORA has announced that it will broadcast the Wog-Fish contest tonight with broadcasting time starting approximately at 7:50.

Social Season Kickoff Set, Aggieland To Furnish Music

Two social events, the Seventh Regimental Ball and the first All College Dance of the year, are scheduled for Friday and Saturday nights, Grady Elms, vice assistant dean of men for activities announced yesterday.

First regiment to have their annual ball in the Memorial Student Center, members of the Athletic committee, veteran organizations, and day student group will "swing and sway" to the music furnished by the Aggieland Orchestra in the MSC Ballroom and Terrace Friday evening.

The first College Dance, (it has not been labeled officially as such) will be held in Sbis Hall because of lack of space in the MSC. Scheduled to begin at 9 p. m. and last until midnight, the dance, semi-formal, is also slated for musical accompaniment by the Aggieland. The dance will be semi-formal, Elms said.

Because of its popularity the Aggieland Orchestra this year has added several new instrumentalists. Director Bill Turner reports. Added members of the orchestra this year are Darrel Nickerson of Baytown on the first trumpet, Wayne Dunlap of Lake Charles, La. on third trumpet, Bill Walker of Houston on the Bass, and David Lawson on the trombone.

A 1947 member of the band, Glenn Duhon, is back on the tenor sax. Merle Bauman, another new member, takes position on the trombone.

Aggie Players to Meet
The Aggie Players will meet in the Music Hall tonight because of the Quarterback Club meeting scheduled in the Assembly Hall.

A Visitor From Greece . . .

Emmense Facilities, Campus Amaze Visiting Exchangee

By GEORGE McBEE
A&M was finally paid an exchange visit last week-end by a distinguished looking guest from Greece. This smiling gentleman was Achilles Kakalis, International Farm Youth Exchangee from Greece.
"Ack," as he is better known, had been in the United States only twenty days when he visited A&M. He came to this country under provisions of the International Foreign Youth Exchange Program.
When asked what he thought of teaching methods and the educational facilities at A&M, Ack replied that he couldn't visualize such a large school as this. He appeared to be very much impressed by the size of four campus. The size of the farms amazed him also, since the average farm in Greece contains about seven acres.
While in Texas, Ack will spend most of his time living on farms and working with farm families. He will be introduced to as many diversified types of farming as possible while he is here. Through actual participation, it is hoped he will learn new methods of farm management and social customs that will enable him to work in the improvement or agriculture and farm life in Greece.

Exchange Policy
The policy of the Exchange Program has been for an exchange to stay in a country for six months, and then return to his home. Ack will be in Texas until January 3, 1951. The major portion of this time will be spent in Dallas County and vicinity. He will go from there to Iowa State College at Ames, Iowa for more studying. After that, he will go back to Greece, following a few other short visits throughout the United States.

Hurricane Hits Florida, Total Damage Unknown

Miami, Fla., Oct. 18.—(AP)—A hurricane headed toward Florida's rich citrus belt today after pounding Miami with 125-mile an hour winds and leaving an estimated $2,000,000 damage in its wake.

Losing some force as it pushed northward near the eastern edge of Lake Okeechobee, the hurricane still packed winds of near 100 miles an hour as it aimed for central Florida.

It had passed to the west of Fort Lauderdale and the "Gold Coast" area between Miami and Palm Beach but that 70-mile strip was on the fringe and felt its fury.

In a 4:30 a. m. (EST) advisory the weather bureau said the storm was centered about 25 miles west of Palm Beach, near latitude 26.6 north, longitude 80.4 west, moving north-northwest at 12 to 14 miles per hour.

Should Lose Force
"It should continue a northerly course today and gradually lose force but hurricane precautions should be continued from the Palm Beach-Lake Okeechobee area northward to the Titusville-Orlando area," the advisory said.

Strong winds were forecast for the remainder of north and central Florida and winds of gale force will extend northward to the Atlantic Coast as far as Charleston, S. C.
As day dawned over southeast Florida, reports of damage began trickling in.
Miami Safety Director O. D. (Jack) Henderson said he "would not be surprised if the property damage reaches or exceeds $2,000,000."
Henderson made two general tours of the debris-littered city and said:
"If it's as bad all over as it is in those parts I saw," it may easily reach that figure."

No Deaths
Five persons were injured but no deaths were reported immediately. All Miami policemen were called to duty. Electricity was off in most of the city.
There was no water in many sections, especially in the suburbs. Telephone service between Miami and Miami Beach failed. Many other phone lines were down in the area where half a million people live.
Fort Lauderdale, raked by 100-mile-an-hour winds, was plunged into darkness. Some damage was reported to roofs, windows and shrubbery. Reports from Dade, just west of Fort Lauderdale, said that farming community was "hard hit."
The hurricane was expected to pass between West Palm Beach and Lake Okeechobee, an area 40 miles wide. It was moving north or north-northwest at 12 to 15 miles an hour.

Precautions Urged
The weather bureau urged all precautions for the protection of life and property in those areas and in the counties to the north and east of Lake Okeechobee to the Titusville area.
Miami began to survey damage. The storm toppled radio towers, snapped power lines and uprooted trees. Windows were smashed and shrubbery whipped to shreds.
While there was no spectacular damage, some buildings were unroofed and damage to homes from water likely will be considerable. The wind tore off chunks of roofing and rain whipped in.

Employees Dinner Set for Thursday

A dinner dance will be held in the MSC Thursday evening October 19, at 7:00 p. m. by the A&M Employees Dinner club.
Dress for the monthly meeting is optional.
Tickets are available at the main desk of the MSC and must be purchased prior to noon on Wednesday, October 18. The tickets cost $1.50 per person.
The dinner dances of the A&M Dinner Club are social events open to the faculty and staff members of the College and cooperating agencies.
These events are usually held on the third Thursday of every month unless there is a conflict in the schedule.

Town Hall Tickets Are Still Available

A few student Town Hall tickets are still available, according to C. G. "Spike" White, director of student activities.
Several reserved seat tickets and a few general admissions may still be purchased. A large number of general admissions are available for non-students.
The first concert, to be held October 19, will feature Leonard Warren, famous Metropolitan Opera

Truman Offers All Asia 'Partnership of Peace'

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
San Francisco, Oct. 18.—(AP)—President Truman set the world stage today for an unprecedented counter-offensive to Soviet peace propaganda. He offered a full "partnership of peace" to all Asia, backed up by United States military might.
The State Department's "Voice of America" bombarded every reachable listener with a constant repetition of Truman's warning to the peoples of the Far East that Russia is trying to turn them into "colonial slaves of a new imperialism."
And the President left for the Russian politburo a bold and blunt reminder that the United States will not stop short of war to resist aggression and preserve "our free way of life."
Mr. Truman flew back to Washington shortly after delivering his major foreign policy speech last night in the war Memorial Opera House where the United Nations charter was born five years ago.
He left San Francisco's international airport at 11:15 a. m., EST., on the last, eight-hour leg of a 14,400-mile round trip flight during which he talked with General Douglas MacArthur on Wake Island about what, he said, were the "dangers which still face us."
"What we want is a partnership for peace with all the world," Mr. Truman told a cheering audience. He said "we want peace but it must be a peace founded upon justice. That American policy is as

On Guion's Stage . . .

Warren Slated For Town Hall Opener

By GEORGE CHARLTON
A man who was fired for singing on the job, ironically enough, will step in front of the Guion footlights tomorrow night to initiate the first of the Town Hall series and to give vent to a voice which some critics have described as the "finest dramatic baritone in the world."
The singer they are referring to is Leonard Warren, star of the Metropolitan Opera Company. The boss who fired him either had a bad ear for music or simply let it get on his nerves. At any rate, after Warren's dismal failure in business, he went on to the musical world quickly and to the point where laurel upon laurel were heaped on his vocal abilities.
He began his first singing lesson at 27 when he left the world of business and got a job with the Glee Club of Radio City Music Hall. Even then no one exclaimed "oh my, you have a beautiful voice" or that "you just gotta do something with it." In fact, the reaction was adverse: his voice wasn't virile enough, they told him, and he was again fired.

Well Filled Agenda
He's no lazy individual. Beside his Met career, he's also the member of four other opera companies. Between operatic appearances, he makes an annual concert tour of the U. S. and Canada. He has been guest artist on the Voice of Firestone and PCA-Victor radio programs.

Record fans rate Warren high on their lists. He has recorded works from nine operas including "Tales of Hoffman," "Faust," and "Falstaff."

His program tomorrow night includes 17 selections from such composers as Rossini, Gounod, Debussy, Brahms, Verdi, and Handel. Wilford Sekterb, his accompanist, will furnish piano musical background during the two-hour program.

Tickets may be purchased in the Student Activities Office.

Senior Court Plans Meeting For This Week

The Senior Court will hold an orientation meeting some time this week, Lt. Col. M. P. Bowden, assistant commandant, said today.

Organization of the senior court includes veteran day students and veterans on the campus. An effort is made to represent each organization on the senior court.

Meetings of the senior court are dictated by the cases arising. If there are no cases, no meeting is held.

Cadets designated as members of the senior court are: President David G. Haines, Colonel; Robert L. Sturdivant, Lt. Colonel; William R. Moss, Lt. Colonel; Albert W. Seiter, Jr., Lt. Colonel; Robert W. Jack, Major; Jes D. Melver, Major; Edward B. McAllister, Major; and Richard R. Tumlinson, Major. Also designated were Wayne T. Ball, Major, Robert L. King, Major; Joseph D. Hinton, Major; Arthur W. Noll, Captain; Noble N. Clark, Captain; Henry G. Phillips, Captain; Douglass D. Hearne, Captain; Marvin G. Twenhafel, Captain; Joe B. Tillery, Captain; Enoch T. Darby, Captain; Kenneth W. Schaae, Captain.

According to college regulations, members of the present Senior Court will remain in office for only one semester, when they will be replaced by other seniors appointed by the commandant.

Tri-Counties Club Sets Election Meet

At a meeting of the Calhoun-Jackson-Matagorda Counties Club last Thursday, Roland E. Bussell, of Bay City was elected temporary chairman and Roddin H. Purswell of Palacios was named temporary secretary, Purswell said today.

All students from these three counties are urged to attend a meeting Wednesday 7:30 p. m., in room 301, Goodwin Hall to elect permanent officers and adopt a constitution for the tri-county club, according to Purswell.

Queen Candidate

Betty McQuire
Miss McQuire is J. C. Casbeer's entry for the 75th Anniversary Queen contest and is as easily seen by the picture she is—wow! She is from Lampasas and has been a favorite throughout her high school and college career.
