

McCulley Named Training Officer

Lt. Col. William S. McCulley, of College Station, member of the department of mathematics, has been appointed Squadron Training Officer of the 9807th Volunteer Air Reserve Training Squadron, according to Lt. Col. Marvin J. Birdwell of Bryan, squadron commander.

In his new position, he will be responsible for training in Air Reserve units at College Station, Huntsville, Brenham and Schulenburg, all coming under the jurisdiction of the 9807th VART Squadron Headquarters.

Details of the West Point allotment for enlisted reserves were received at headquarters of the 9807 VART Squadron early this week.

Only unmarried enlisted men between the ages of 17 and 22, as of July 1, 1951, with one full year in an active duty or active reserve training status may apply.

Applications must be submitted as soon as possible prior to a "designating examination" to be held Nov. 15, 1950.

Dr. Ake Gustafsson

Gustafsson of Sweden, internationally recognized authority in plant genetics, has been named a distinguished professor to the Department of Agronomy and Genetics. He will give 30 lectures, lasting through December 31.

Letter Writer Misplaces A&M—Skips Engineers

Chalk another one up to the "We've Been Misunderstood" column. This one, though, leaves lots of food for thought.

Seems a letter found its way to Ross Hall a short time ago after traveling a rather delayed route.

Murals ---

won a match over B AF, 2-1. McDaniel and McAllister took Bailey and Cargill; Latham and Dick Morrow disposed of Cobb and Williams. The airboys only victory came when Hillman and Hayes stroked a win over Fathere and Jensen.

A clean sweep was made by C Inf over A Vets, 3-0. Jarvis and Gorman, Locaste and Thomas, Steen and Moore were winning combinations for the infantrymen.

A Coast Netters Win

The racketeers of A CA beat the tennis performers of A FA, 2-1. D. Y. Fisher and E. H. Winn won over "Cool" Davis and Al Summy of A FA; Bob Childress and Jack Thornton took the measure of Cody Milligan and Ralph Hartman. Jack Crockett and Platt salvaged a game from their team's loss by setting by Clint Hackney and Jerry Albert.

D Vets dominated the court play by subduing B Ath, 3-0. T. E. Field and Charlie Davenport, Bill Butler and H Statts played "heads up" tennis for the winners.

F AF defeated a court-wise L AF team, 2-1. Waggoner and Peyton, Penn and DeLange were the winning tennis combinations.

—Beat Baylor—

The contents of the letter we'll disregard, since they're unknown to us.

But the address is an entirely different matter. The postman had these directions to go on: The Agricultural & Military School,

DENTON, Texas

U S A

According to the envelope, the letter originated in "Colon, Rep. of Panama." A pencil correction by the Denton post-master sent the letter on the final leg of its trip here.

We'll admit that it's not too out of the ordinary to hear A&M mistakenly interpreted as Athletic and Military. But this is the first time we've seen Agriculture & Military. Perhaps the writer has a grudge against Dean Barlow. Or perhaps he's unhappy with engineering in general.

Be that as it may, why was the letter addressed to Denton?

One explanation might be that the fame of Aggie-Tessie traditional relations has spread to distant lands. And perhaps the names of the schools were so closely associated that the writer wasn't quite sure which was where.

Then again, the writer might have figured that he could find as many Aggies up there as he could here.

What ever the reason, you've got to give the correspondent credit. He could have been a lot farther from the truth.

Again chosen winner of the Battalion Sign Contest was D Field Artillery. The pea shooter's winning idea has a muscular Aggie football player booting the Baylor Bear between the uprights. Running right behind D Field was L Squadron's novel sign with Jeto perched in the corner. This week's contest winner was chosen by the Corps Chaplain Curtis Edwards and a Battalion representative.
