

D. B. Coifer
College Archivist
Student Memorial Center
3 Copies

Circulated to
More than 90% Of
College Station's Residents

The Battalion

PUBLISHED IN THE INTEREST OF A GREATER A&M COLLEGE

Nation's Top
Safety Section
Lumberman's 1949 Contest

Number 37: Volume 51

COLLEGE STATION (Aggeland), TEXAS, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1950

Price Five Cents

Sophs Choose Run-Off Contenders; Vote Small

O. C. "Putter" Jarvis, Willie East, and William S. Thornton last night outballed other Sophomore class presidential nominees for a position on the run-off ballot.

G. B. Shaw, Noted Author, Critic, Dies

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
Aunt St. Lawrence, Eng., Nov. 2.—George Bernard Shaw, the century's most famous playwright, died today at the age of 91.

Aggie Rodeo Sets Two Shows For Weekend

The first of two performances of the 29th Annual All Aggie Rodeo will be held Friday at 8 p. m.

San Antonio Newspaper Honors A&M Anniversary

Seventy-five-year-old Aggeland receives another salute this coming Sunday—this one from the San Antonio Express Magazine.

Aggie Sweetheart

Dorothy Mangum

Dorothy Mangum Named 1950 Aggie Sweetheart

Miss Dorothy Mangum, petite and pretty brown-eyed brunette from Cotulla, Texas, is the Aggie Sweetheart for 1950-51.

Winner Was Cotton Queen Here In '49

The former A&M Cotton Queen took the top nod from an Aggie selection committee that judged 12 TSCW nominees for the honor last Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Ag Eco Major Elected to Head Ag Council

Marvin G. Twenhafel, senior agricultural economics major from Mercedes, was elected president of the Student Agricultural Council at a special election meeting last Wednesday night.

Cat Says Charge It . . .

Cherry Grove Beach S. C.—(AP)—There's no back-alley browsing at mealtime for J. Carl Lynn's tomcat. He just purrs, "charge it, please."

Reds Reinforce Border, Allies Back On Defense

Seoul, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Red troops threw their new military might against advancing Allied forces today to block approaches to the Korean-Manchurian border.

Tickets for SMU Dance

Tickets are now on sale for the SMU Homecoming Dance, featuring Ray McKinley and his Orchestra. They may be purchased in the Student Activities Office.

Class of 1954 Takes Run-Off Election

The Class of 1954 undertakes its first official business tonight with a run-off election for class officers.

Credit Supervisor To Address BAs

Kenneth Steffy, credit report supervisor of Dun and Bradstreet, Inc., will address students of the business department and other interested persons tonight at 7:30 in the YMCA Chapel.

Extra Rooms

Harry Boyer, on the right, chief of housing, suspects foundation holes being drilled for the new Administration Building.

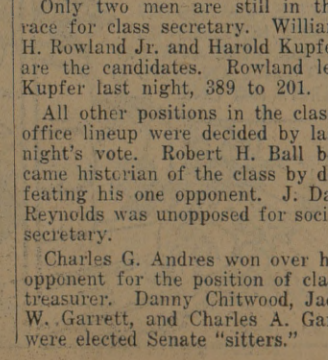

Freshmen Set Runoff Tonight

The Class of 1954 undertakes its first official business tonight with a run-off election for class officers.

San Antonio Newspaper Honors A&M Anniversary

Seventy-five-year-old Aggeland receives another salute this coming Sunday—this one from the San Antonio Express Magazine.

Aggie Sweetheart

Dorothy Mangum

Dorothy Mangum Named 1950 Aggie Sweetheart

Miss Dorothy Mangum, petite and pretty brown-eyed brunette from Cotulla, Texas, is the Aggie Sweetheart for 1950-51.

Winner Was Cotton Queen Here In '49

The former A&M Cotton Queen took the top nod from an Aggie selection committee that judged 12 TSCW nominees for the honor last Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Ag Eco Major Elected to Head Ag Council

Marvin G. Twenhafel, senior agricultural economics major from Mercedes, was elected president of the Student Agricultural Council at a special election meeting last Wednesday night.

Cat Says Charge It . . .

Cherry Grove Beach S. C.—(AP)—There's no back-alley browsing at mealtime for J. Carl Lynn's tomcat. He just purrs, "charge it, please."

Reds Reinforce Border, Allies Back On Defense

Seoul, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Red troops threw their new military might against advancing Allied forces today to block approaches to the Korean-Manchurian border.

Tickets for SMU Dance

Tickets are now on sale for the SMU Homecoming Dance, featuring Ray McKinley and his Orchestra. They may be purchased in the Student Activities Office.

Class of 1954 Takes Run-Off Election

The Class of 1954 undertakes its first official business tonight with a run-off election for class officers.

Credit Supervisor To Address BAs

Kenneth Steffy, credit report supervisor of Dun and Bradstreet, Inc., will address students of the business department and other interested persons tonight at 7:30 in the YMCA Chapel.

Extra Rooms

Harry Boyer, on the right, chief of housing, suspects foundation holes being drilled for the new Administration Building.

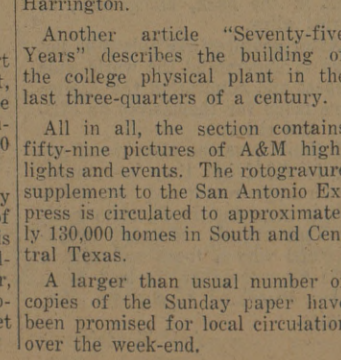

Freshmen Set Runoff Tonight

The Class of 1954 undertakes its first official business tonight with a run-off election for class officers.

San Antonio Newspaper Honors A&M Anniversary

Seventy-five-year-old Aggeland receives another salute this coming Sunday—this one from the San Antonio Express Magazine.

Aggie Sweetheart

Dorothy Mangum

Dorothy Mangum Named 1950 Aggie Sweetheart

Miss Dorothy Mangum, petite and pretty brown-eyed brunette from Cotulla, Texas, is the Aggie Sweetheart for 1950-51.

Winner Was Cotton Queen Here In '49

The former A&M Cotton Queen took the top nod from an Aggie selection committee that judged 12 TSCW nominees for the honor last Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Ag Eco Major Elected to Head Ag Council

Marvin G. Twenhafel, senior agricultural economics major from Mercedes, was elected president of the Student Agricultural Council at a special election meeting last Wednesday night.

Cat Says Charge It . . .

Cherry Grove Beach S. C.—(AP)—There's no back-alley browsing at mealtime for J. Carl Lynn's tomcat. He just purrs, "charge it, please."

Reds Reinforce Border, Allies Back On Defense

Seoul, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Red troops threw their new military might against advancing Allied forces today to block approaches to the Korean-Manchurian border.

Tickets for SMU Dance

Tickets are now on sale for the SMU Homecoming Dance, featuring Ray McKinley and his Orchestra. They may be purchased in the Student Activities Office.

Dorothy Mangum Named 1950 Aggie Sweetheart

Miss Dorothy Mangum, petite and pretty brown-eyed brunette from Cotulla, Texas, is the Aggie Sweetheart for 1950-51.

Winner Was Cotton Queen Here In '49

The former A&M Cotton Queen took the top nod from an Aggie selection committee that judged 12 TSCW nominees for the honor last Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Ag Eco Major Elected to Head Ag Council

Marvin G. Twenhafel, senior agricultural economics major from Mercedes, was elected president of the Student Agricultural Council at a special election meeting last Wednesday night.

Cat Says Charge It . . .

Cherry Grove Beach S. C.—(AP)—There's no back-alley browsing at mealtime for J. Carl Lynn's tomcat. He just purrs, "charge it, please."

Reds Reinforce Border, Allies Back On Defense

Seoul, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Red troops threw their new military might against advancing Allied forces today to block approaches to the Korean-Manchurian border.

Tickets for SMU Dance

Tickets are now on sale for the SMU Homecoming Dance, featuring Ray McKinley and his Orchestra. They may be purchased in the Student Activities Office.

Dorothy Mangum Named 1950 Aggie Sweetheart

Miss Dorothy Mangum, petite and pretty brown-eyed brunette from Cotulla, Texas, is the Aggie Sweetheart for 1950-51.

Winner Was Cotton Queen Here In '49

The former A&M Cotton Queen took the top nod from an Aggie selection committee that judged 12 TSCW nominees for the honor last Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Ag Eco Major Elected to Head Ag Council

Marvin G. Twenhafel, senior agricultural economics major from Mercedes, was elected president of the Student Agricultural Council at a special election meeting last Wednesday night.

Cat Says Charge It . . .

Cherry Grove Beach S. C.—(AP)—There's no back-alley browsing at mealtime for J. Carl Lynn's tomcat. He just purrs, "charge it, please."

Reds Reinforce Border, Allies Back On Defense

Seoul, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Red troops threw their new military might against advancing Allied forces today to block approaches to the Korean-Manchurian border.

Tickets for SMU Dance

Tickets are now on sale for the SMU Homecoming Dance, featuring Ray McKinley and his Orchestra. They may be purchased in the Student Activities Office.

By Dave Coslett