Aggies Get Set For Razorback
Invasion, Due Saturday Night

By ROGER COSLETT

Arkansas' Razorbacks descend upon the Texas Aggies from their lofty perch in the Ozarks in quest of their second conference victory this Saturday night.

A&M's Maroon and White gridsters, over their injuries following last week's 27-20 loss to Baylor, will be all out to hand the Porkers their third conference loss.

Coach Otis Douglas' team has dropped conference games to Texas Christian and the University of Texas while managing to best only the Baylor Bears.

Arkansas opened its season by losing to Oklahoma A&M. They bounded back the next weekend to trounce firmly North Texas State but dropped another non-conference tilt to Vanderbilt 14-13 last week to bring their record to a won 2, lost 4.

Douglas, fresh from pro coaching duties with the Philadelphia Eagles has indoctrinated pro tactics in the form of the split T into Arkansas' system of play.

His pro defense is patterned to man-for-man coverage while his offense is wellsuited to passing.

Manpower is plentiful but experience sparse for the Razorbacks. They boast the biggest tackles and ends in the SWC. All told they have 26 returning lettermen including four ends, four tackles, five guards, three centers and ten backs.

Inexperienced quarterbacks were the Arkansas mentor's biggest worry at the beginning of the season but trainees have come along better than expected.

Both coaches and spectators will get a chance to see if Arkansas' past six games have provided the experience needed by Douglas' boys in order to make them into a well oiled machine of men.

In the all time series between the two schools the Aggies have won 10, lost 11, and two games have ended in ties.

Charging straight at you from above is Aggie Halfback Billy Tidwell. Tidwell has lugged the pigskin 51 times while gaining 362 yards, for a 7.5 yards-per-carry average. On the left is Bruisin' Bob Smith, Aggie fullback. Smith has gone through opposing lines for 694 yards on 106 carries for a 6.5 yard average. He leads the conference in touchdowns scored with 11 for 66 points.

Gilstrap to Speak

H. C. "Bully" Gilstrap, University of Texas assistant football coach, scout and public relations man, and Bill "Dog" Dawson, Aggie end coach and scout will be guest speakers for the Quarterback Club tonight at 7:30 in the Assembly Hall. Color movies of the A&M Baylor game will be shown.
